WELCOME

Grass Roots Ultimate (GRU) is proud to welcome you to Boulder, Colorado for the 2011 USA Ultimate College Championships. This event is the culmination of an amazing season for your team and we hope to provide all of the participants with a memorable experience. We have made every effort to provide all of the amenities your team might require. Please take advantage and enjoy these beautiful fields but remember to do your part to keep them clean so our local players can continue to enjoy this precious resource. If you enjoy playing here we hope you'll return for one of our summer tournaments (GRASS, GRUB, and CO Cup).

Over the weekend you'll see many of the reasons we love living here. Memorial Day is a busy weekend here in Boulder with the Creek Festival and the world-famous Boulder 10K. Give yourself extra time to get around and to find parking. Be sure to ask some locals about great places to eat and don't miss the chance to get up on a local mountain to check out the view.

While you are here don't forget to apply, and reapply sunscreen (visit our SPF Station courtesy of Likewise Skincare in the expo area) and drink plenty of water! The thin dry Colorado air is unforgiving to athletes who overlook these details. Best of luck in the tournament and congratulations again on a successful season! We look forward to showcasing the best of the sport of Ultimate to our community.

Sincerely,

Erin Peden, Tournament Director

2011 USA Ultimate College Championships

COMPETITION RULES

- USA Ultimate Official Rules, 11th Edition will be in effect.
- All games to 15, point-cap at 17.
- Half-time is 10 minutes.
- Each team has two timeouts per half.
- Regardless of how many timeouts a team has used before overtime, during overtime each team has one timeout.
- Overtime: A game is in overtime if tied at one point less than original game total (in a game to 15 goals, overtime occurs when the score reaches 14-14).
- Hard time-cap goes on at the end of the round time on the schedule. Game is over at the end of the point in progress, unless tied. If tied, play one more point.
- Soft time-cap goes on 20 minutes before the hard cap. Add two points to higher score after first score after soft time-cap. Game ends when first team reaches new game total, or when first team reaches 15 or more, ahead by at least two points, whichever comes first.

SPIRIT AWARDS

Ultimate has traditionally relied upon the spirit of sportsmanship, which places the responsibility for fair play on the player. Highly competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of mutual respect among competitors, adherence to the agreed upon rules of the game, or the basic joy of play. — 11th Edition USA Ultimate Rules of Ultimate.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS: Teams will each be asked to nominate a player from their own team who they feel displays the highest level of Spirit. The definition of Spirit is up to each team, but should include elements of sportsmanship, leadership, perseverance, fire, etc. Choose the person whose attitude you wish other people on your team would emulate and who other players off your team admire. Individual Spirit winners will receive a medal and prize disc (courtesy of DISCRAFT). Thanks to Discraft for their support of Ultimate and Spirit of the Game!

TEAM AWARDS: Following every game, each team will be asked to rate its opponent on a scale of 1-5, with 5 being the highest level of sportsmanship. These ratings will be averaged and the team in each division with the highest rating will be awarded the Team Spirit Award after their division's finals.

USA ULTIMATE SPIRIT RATINGS GUIDELINES

The ratings are ordered from 5 (indicating the highest level of spirit) through 1 (the lowest level of spirit):

5: Highest level of respect shown throughout the game towards opponents, officials, and spectators. For the level of play, showed excellent knowledge of the rules and abided by them throughout the game. Any conflicts were resolved amicably and without incident. Opposing team's conduct added to our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team unflinching played fairly and with an excellent attitude.

4: Respect shown throughout the game towards opponents, officials, and spectators. For the level of play, showed above average knowledge of the rules and abided by them throughout the game. Any conflicts were resolved favorably and without incident. Opposing team's conduct did not detract from our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team played fairly and with a good attitude.

3: Generally exhibited respect towards opponents, officials, and spectators. For the level of play, showed adequate knowledge of the rules and abided by them during the game. Any conflicts were resolved plainly and without incident. Opposing team's conduct generally did not detract from our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team generally played fairly and with a decent attitude.

2: Exhibited a lack of respect towards opponents, officials, and/or spectators. For the level of play, showed a lack of knowledge of, or disregard for the rules at points during the game. Any conflicts were resolved heatedly or led to contentious incidents. Opposing team's conduct detracted somewhat from our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team played unfairly and/or with a poor attitude.

1: Exhibited a major lack of respect towards opponents, officials, and/or spectators. For the level of play, exhibited no knowledge of the rules or blatantly disregarded them during the game. Conflicts were resolved acrimoniously or led directly to contentious incidents. Opposing team's conduct made the game basically unenjoyable. The opposing team played unfairly and their attitude was abysmal.

10 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SPIRIT OF THE GAME™

1. THE GOLDEN RULE: TREAT OTHERS AS YOU WOULD WANT TO BE TREATED.

Spirited games result from mutual respect among opponents. Assume the best of your opponent. Give him or her the benefit of a doubt. You would want the same for yourself. But if you are thick-skinned, do not assume that your opponent is. Maybe you should think of this rule as, "treat others as you would have them treat your mother."

2. CONTROL: SOTG TAKES REAL EFFORT.

SOTG is not just some abstract principle that everyone adopts and then games run smoothly without effort. Close calls are made in tight games. Hard fouls are committed. SOTG is about how you handle yourself under pressure: how you contain your emotionality, tame your temper, and modulate your voice. If you initiate or contribute to the unraveling of spirit, the concept falls apart quickly. If you act to mend things (or at least not exacerbate the situation) by following (1) above, the game heals itself.

3. HECKLING AND TAUNTING ARE DIFFERENT.

Ultimate has a long tradition of good-natured heckling. Heckles are friendly barbs, typically from non-playing spectators. Heckling can be fun, but taunting is unspirited and wrong. Harassing remarks after an opponent's foul call or close play are NOT heckling: they are abusive taunts which create unpleasant playing conditions and often escalate to acrimonious disputes.

4. SOTG IS COMPATIBLE WITH CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY.

It is a fallacy to argue that the stakes are so important that some aspect of SOTG can be cast aside. Time and again, great teams and star players have shown that you can bring all your competitive and athletic zeal to a game without sacrificing fair play or respect for your opponent.

5. DON'T "GIVE AS YOU GOT."

There is no "eye for an eye." If you are wronged, you have no right to wrong someone in return. In the extreme case where you were severely mistreated, you may bring the issue up with a captain, tournament director, or even lodge a complaint with the governing body. If you retaliate in kind, however, a complaint may be filed against you. We recall point (1): treat others as you would have them treat you, not as they have treated you. In the end, you are responsible for you.

6. BREATHE.

After a hard foul, close call, or disputed play, take a step back, pause, and take a deep breath. In the heat of competition, emotions run high. By giving yourself just a bit of time and space, you will gain enough perspective to compose yourself and concentrate on the facts involved in the dispute (was she in or out; did you hit his hand or the disc; did that pick affect the play). Your restraint will induce a more restrained response from your opponent. Conflagration averted, you may resume business as usual.

7. WHEN YOU DO THE RIGHT THING, PEOPLE NOTICE.

When you turn the other cheek, you know you've done the right thing. You may not hear praise, there may be no standing ovation, but people do notice. Eventually, their respect for you and their appreciation of the game will grow.

8. BE GENEROUS WITH PRAISE.

Compliment an opponent on her good catch. Remark to a teammate that you admire their honesty in calling themselves out of bounds. Look players in the eye and congratulate them when you shake their hands after a game. These small acts boost spirit greatly, a large payoff for little time and effort.

9. IMPRESSIONS LINGER.

Not only does the realization that your actions will be remembered for a long time serve to curb poor behavior, it can also inspire better conduct. Many old-timers enjoy the experience of meeting an elite player who remembers their first rendezvous on the field and recalls the event in detail. A good first encounter with an impressionable young player can have considerable long term positive impact.

10. HAVE FUN.

All other things being equal, games are far more fun without the antipathy. Go hard. Play fair. Have fun.

UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Vancouver, BC

Team Name: Thunderbirds

Captains: Katie Berezan, Crystal Lok Koo

Coaches: Tasia Balding, Ashley Welsh

UBC Ultimate was founded in 1997. Throughout the years, many talented players have gone through the Thunderbird program; it has become a breeding ground that attracts players from across the country. We have had the honour to be coached and taught by some of the best players in Vancouver.

Our first showing at the USA Ultimate College Championships was in 1997 when the team placed second. The team qualified three years in a row starting in 2006 and made it back the next year, which led to our big win in 2008. We have three players on the team that are attending College Nationals for the third time; Alannah Johnston, Jenny Lo, and Geneva Locke. Hannah Epperson, Maria Chau, and Katie Berezan were also present in 2008 for the victory. We are all excited to be back and able to share this experience with the rest of our team.

Team Name: Pie Queens

Captains: An-Chi Tsou, Palak Shah

Coaches: Joy Chen, Corey Lee, Ethan Schlenker

The Berkeley Pie Queens have a long history of playing with utmost respect for our opponents and ourselves. Named after a diner in Oakland, we pride ourselves on our pie-making abilities and our commitment to challenging ourselves to be the best teammates we can be. Despite our continuous struggle for field space, we have been to Nationals in 1991-93, 1996, 2003-05, 2007 and 2010. As a program, we have grown from winning Regionals with a near-savage squad in 1996 to sending three teams of spirited and talented athletes to the 2011 Norcal Conference Championships.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA – SANTA BARBARA

Santa Barbara, CA

Team Name: Burning Skirts

Captains: Carolyn Finney, Marie Madaras

Coaches: Andrea Romano, Kaela Jorgenson, Tyler Bacon

The Santa Barbara women's college Ultimate team began in the fall of 1984, a team which by 1988 dubbed themselves the Burning Skirts. Under the guidance of founder Liz (Stoltz) Allen, the Skirts made their inaugural appearance in the College Championships in 1988. The Skirts won their second and third College Championship titles in 1990 and 1991. After a thirteen-year hiatus from the national scene, the Skirts returned to the Championship game again in 2007 and 2008, falling just short of the title. In 2009 the team brought home its fourth title. After appearing in the finals game for the last four years, the Skirts look to continue the streak as they head to Boulder for the 2011 College Championships.

COLORADO COLLEGE

Team Name: Lysistrata's Tools

Captains: Sophia Herscu, Hannah Sohl, Molly Sinnott

Coaches: Emily Anderson, Justine Crowley, Michelle Grosscost

In 404 B.C. the unabating Peloponnesian War came to a sudden and grinding halt when Lysistrata, wife of the leading general, decided she'd really had enough. After denying the goods to her ever-loving husband, she convinced the town's female cohorts to do the same for their spouses. Viola, war no more. Chalk one up for the female sex! Following the tradition of our namesake, we love to deny victory to our opponents, and we like to do it in epic, athletic style. As a new team on the scene, we on 'Strata don't have a great deal of recent history to draw upon, but we make up for it in heart, soul, athleticism, intensity and drive. Lysistrata's Tools was created in 1981 by one of our current coaches, Justine Crowley. While we've been in existence off and on since then, it has only been in the past three years that Strata has emerged in the competitive Ultimate scene. Due to the hard work, enthusiasm and dedication of our players, captains, and coaches over the past three years, we have finally solidified our program. We are incredibly excited for our first appearance at nationals. Watch out ladies, 'Strata is coming to town!

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

Gainesville, FL

Team Name: FUEL

Captains: Arinn Bolin, Pav Birk, Jackie Fane

Coach: Joe Crinkley

Since its inception in 2001, FUEL has grown from a ragtag group of nine Ultimate loving ladies into an elite squad of more than 20 of the best female Ultimate athletes the state of Florida has to offer. FUEL has qualified for Nationals twice in its history; first in 2006 and then again the following year. Having dominated the Southeast Region all season and competed well against other Nationals qualifiers at the President's Day Invitational, FUEL's goal this year is to top its best Nationals performance, which was a quarterfinals appearance in 2006. Much like previous years, FUEL has built its reputation this season on speed, depth, and a fun-loving attitude that embodies the spirit of Ultimate. FUEL plays a fast-paced exciting style of Ultimate that is sure to shock more than a couple of teams in this year's Championship series.

Captains: Jessy Erickson, Jiear Vang

Coaches: Kevin Seiler, Lana Seiler,

Memo Hinckley

Usually misquoted to Shakespeare, it is the English playwright and poet, William Congreve, that really said "Heaven has no rage like love to hatred turned / Nor hell a fury like a woman scorned." Iowa State University's "Woman Scorned" was founded by Rachel Derscheid in the year 2002. The history of Woman Scorned is varied: from barely fielding a team in its inaugural series competition, to harvesting stellar players who have competed on the national club scene with regularity. While a College Championship appearance remained elusive to this tough squad until 2009, Scorned has made small steps towards more competitiveness each year. Facing tough Central Region teams this season, Iowa State has fulfilled its Ultimate goal, earning a bid to the 2011 Championships, and is anxious to improve upon its 2009 finish.

Coaches: Lindsey Hack, Heather Ann Brauer, Raju Prasad

Pleiades was founded by Emily Larson in the fall of 1995 when she split from Darskide (now UNC's men team) to form a women's team. After several name changes, the team settled on Pleiades for its meaning: "Seven Sisters." According to Greek mythology, Pleiades was originally the name for the seven daughters of Atlas and Pleione. The hunter Orion chased and courted the daughters until the gods transformed them into stars for safe-keeping. The Pleiades known today is an open star cluster which makes up part of the constellation Taurus.

Pleiades has recently become one of the most successful women's programs on the East Coast, consistently bringing in and growing strong, athletic Ultimate players. This will be our fourth-straight year attending College Nationals and we fully intend to continue the tradition in years to come.

Team Name: Seaweed

Captains: Claire Chastain, Jessica Patrick

Coaches: Danny Wrenn, Nikki Zeldin

In 1989, a small group of Ultimate enthusiasts formed a club women's team at UNCW aptly naming it Seaweed due to the coastal location. In a few short years, Seaweed climbed to the top of the women's College Nationals scene, winning its first championship in 1992. Four years later, they claimed the title again after an undefeated season. Led by fifth years Kelly Tidwell and Sara Casey, Senior Jessica Patrick and Junior Claire Chastain, Seaweed is back for the third year in a row and looking to end the season on top. A combination of grit, athleticism, and heart has lead to their past and current success, not to mention the coaching styles of two Seamen/Seaweed Alum: Danny Wrenn and Nikki Zeldin.

Team Name: Gung-Ho

Captains: Sara Miller, Lien Hoffman, Julia La Manna

Coaches: Ron Kubalanza, Marty Wasserman

Two girls, orange camo jerseys, and big dreams started Northwestern's women's Ultimate team in 1998. The team adopted the name Gung-Ho in 2000, which means working together with heart and spirit. After struggling for a few years to get our footing in the Great Lakes Region, Gung-Ho took ninth in our first appearance at Nationals in 2001, then repeated that performance in 2002. We took 11th in 2005 and were the first Great Lakes team to make it to quarters in 2007, finishing fifth. Last year Gung-Ho picked up a new coach in Ron Kubalanza and a 17th-place finish at Nationals. With an underclassmen-heavy team and an unparalleled work ethic in the blustery Chicago wind, we're ready to bring our game to the championships.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Columbus, OH

Team Name: Fever

Captains: Janine Walker, Cassie Swafford

Coaches: Deanna Ball, Brent Reeb, Rodger Oakes

In the bustling city of Columbus, OH, an epidemic has been gathering strength and heating up as OSU's Ultimate team, Fever, set its sights on one monstrous goal for the year: to qualify for the 2011 College Championships and make history as Ohio State's first women's Ultimate team do so. Starting out small in 2002, Fever Ultimate has had a long road to travel en route to the national tournament. The team qualified for Regionals its first year together, but it was not until the 2007-2008 season that Fever really began to set its sights on Nationals, winning Sectionals and qualifying again for the Regional games. Over the next few seasons, the team truly began to heat up its game, making regular appearances at the Sectional and Regional competitions, but falling just short of a Nationals bid. The temperature reached an all-time high this season, however, as captains Janine Walker and Cassie Swafford led the 20-person team to snag both the Ohio Conference and Ohio Valley Regional titles, a first in Fever history. The team set its goals high, keeping a Nationals bid in sight year-round as they trained under the mad coaching skills of Deanna Ball, Brent Reeb, and Rodger Oakes. So don't sweat it if you're a little worried about OSU Fever's rise to the national competition...perspiration may be a sign that a bodily fever is dropping, but in Ultimate it just means that one team is getting hotter and hotter!

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Stanford, CA

Team Name: Superfly

Captains: Sara Maatta, Sam Law, Jennifer Schmerling

Coaches: Robin Davis, Jamie Nuwer

No other team in the history of college Ultimate has as storied a past as Stanford Superfly. Since the Stanford women's team first qualified for the College Championships in 1995, it has made the final game 11 times en route to winning seven championship titles (including a three-peat from 2005-2007). Our program has always achieved great results, but those on the team this year would probably say they're most proud of how strongly Superfly 2011 has bonded away from tournaments. We've held each other up through 40-yard ladder sprints in the sprinklers at 7:00am and focused for endless hours on defensive strategy; we work incredibly hard for each other and yet we're always laughing. Led by veteran coaches Robin Davis and Jamie Nuwer, we have built an athletic, scrappy team that only improves with each game we play. It's been a long four years since Stanford made an appearance in the national championship finals, but this team has the willpower and strength to fight our way back to the top.

What will fuel Fugue to accomplish such a feat? Its fierce athleticism, rowdy defense, high-speed play, and above all, their unshakable love for Ultimate and for each other.

Team Name: Lady Gee Gees

Captains: Kathryn Pohran, Sonia Komenda, Kaylee Sparks

Coaches: Ken Alexander, Viviane Bartlett

The Lady Gee Gees were founded in 2004 by Amy Richardson, Julie Holsworth, and Andrea Cardin. Over the years we've been fortunate enough to attract players from junior team, as well as athletes from other sports, and the team has been growing ever since. The team has been participating in the Canadian series since its inception in 2004, winning each University tournament title we are able to attend. With success in Canada, the team expanded its experience down south and first appeared on the USA Ultimate scene in 2007. The Lady Gee Gees try to attend several tournaments in the U.S. each year in order to lengthen our season and increase the experiences of the team to further player development. Each year shows drastic improvements in the team as a whole, from the beginning of the year to the end, and we're always excited to see how many new players continue playing Ultimate after our college season ends.

TUFTS UNIVERSITY

Medford, MA

Team Name: Ewo

Captains: Laura Glassman, Anna Chute

Coach: Sangwha Hong

The Tufts Women's Ultimate Frisbee team was founded around the spring of 1982 under the name of Rollicking Ultimate Disc, and made its first nationals appearance in 1991. Though always faced with challenges posed by the stormy Northeast, Tufts has managed to stay present on the national scene (later renamed Tufts Elephant Women or Ewo), returning to the college championships in 1994, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2006 and 2007. Tufts' Johanna Neumann became the youngest player to win the Callahan as a junior in 2000, and Caroline Chow came in fifthplace in 2007.

Fueled by a disappointing 2010 season which ended with an 8-9 loss to Middlebury in the finals of Regionals, the Ewo worked hard throughout the fall and winter seasons to get in shape and develop the skills that would enable them to reach the 2011 National Championship. The Tufts Ewo surprised everyone at its first tournament of the 2011 season, Centex, with big wins against UNC, Carleton, and University of Washington to place third. Tufts secured its return to the National Championships this year by winning the New England D-I College Region!

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

Charlottesville, VA

Team Name: Hydra

Captains: Devon Ericksen, Shannon McVey

Coaches: James Burke, David Allison

Virginia Women's Ultimate is a program that has been around since at least the early 80s when current captain Devon Ericksen's mother played for the team. More recently, the Virginia women last attended College Nationals in 2004. Since that time, the team has undergone a number of changes, including a name change from Agent Orange to Hydra in 2007, and the adoption of coach Dan Perry in 2008. In 2009 the Hydra ladies were inspired by watching the Virginia men's team attend Nationals for the first time under the leadership of Greg Ericksen and Robert Runner, and in a circle on the Columbus fields on Sunday they decided to make Nationals a goal. Captains Brittany Taylor and Hannah Green took the team to new levels in 2010 as Hydra attended Women's Centex for the first time and finished fourth in the Atlantic Coast Region, up from seventh the previous year. In 2011, James Burke and David Allison took over for Dan as coaches, and a 12th-place finish at Centex and third-place finish in the AC Region under the leadership of Shannon McVey and Devon Ericksen have led to the realization of Hydra's goal of making Nationals.

Coaches: Kevin Cheung, Russell Street

UBC put Vancouver on the college Ultimate map in the mid-2000s with a number of strong teams led by current Furious George standouts Oscar Pottinger, Nick Menzies and Morgan Hibbert. They led the T-Birds to a number of great finishes during regular season tournaments, and in 2005 qualified the T-Birds for Nationals where they disappointingly lost in pre-quarters to regional rival Washington. Since then, UBC has fielded a strong team almost every year, seeing success during the regular season, but continually falling short at Regionals and failing to return to Nationals. This year a strong incoming class of freshman, as well as a number of graduate students, added to the already senior-heavy squad to give UBC arguably its best team ever.

CARLETON COLLEGE

Northfield, MN

Team Name: CUT

Captains: Christian Foster, Alex Evangelides, Grant Lindsley

Coach: Phil Bowen

Founded in the early 80s, CUT has been one of the nation's premier programs for a long time. Qualifying for Nationals for the first time in 1990, CUT proceeded to qualify for Nationals for the next 16 consecutive years until the streak was broken in 2006 when the Central Region had just one bid. CUT won nationals in 2001 and 2009, and finished second at last year's championships to Florida.

COLORADO COLLEGE

Colorado Springs, CO

Team Name: Wasabi

Captains: Josh Anderson, Nicky Spiva, Ezra Siegel

Colorado College Wasabi was founded in 1998 by people we don't know, and has grown a lot since then. Until this year, Wasabi's best finish was fifth at Regionals in 2009. When we think of the team three years ago, an image of Rob Andre, our lanky captain, in a white painter's suit, smoking cigarettes while sprinting down the field comes to mind. It was a great bunch of guys, who loved the game and were completely untainted from the viles of RSD. The team has come a long way, but has stayed true to its sloppy roots.

Last year Wasabi finished seventh at Regionals. It was not a fortuitous spring season for Wasabi. Defensive stud Henry Konker had torn his ACL. Nicky Spiva had a broken finger on his right hand, so he was playing lefty. We were only able to muster 11 players to drive to Fort Collins for the tournament.

This year Wasabi boasted a roster of 24 people. Henry Konker was back in action with a clunky new knee brace. Captain Ezra Siegel had returned from the east. And we had two new freshmen studs, Gavin Nachbar and Conor Crowley, who ended up anchoring the O-line handler set.

Wasabi tried to get into Prez Day and Centex to no avail. Luckily, other teams dropped out and we were given the chance to compete. Wasabi lost to UBC in the quarters 15-13, which was later avenged in Centex Finals. This is the first time Wasabi has ever qualified for Nationals.

This year's team represents one of the deepest, most prepared Mamabird squads in school history. HARVARD UNIVERSITY

Cambridge, MA

Team Name: Red Line

Captains: George Stubbs, Whitt Virgin-Downey

Coach: Josh McCarthy

A consistent presence in the Northeast Ultimate scene since the early 90s, Harvard Ultimate donned the name Red Line in 2000, and over the course of the decade has evolved into a perennial regional contender. After an appearance at the championships in 2001, the program grew hungry for more and added Coach Josh McCarthy for the 2004 campaign. Since then, Red Line has made an impressive five Nationals appearances in the last seven years.

Red Line 2011 features a strong mix of experience and young talent. Harvard's offense, featuring Callahan shortlister George Stubbs, boasts an impressive array of firepower. Meanwhile, the D-Line is anchored by several veterans now playing their final year of college Ultimate. Harvard went undefeated through the series en route to a repeat New England Regional Championship, and has high hopes and expectations for its performance in Boulder.

Like many Red Line teams before us, we are on a Vision Quest—a journey to climb that wall, date that drifter, and grab our share of the glory. All we've ever known was that we were born to live and then to die and we've got to do it alone, each in his own way. And I guess that's why we've got to love those people who deserve it like there's no tomorrow. Because when you get right down to it...there isn't.

Over the last few years Illinois has consistently proven itself as one of the top college Ultimate programs in the country. We are a program that prides itself on developing players who come to Illinois with no experience playing competitive Ultimate. We teach all levels of Ultimate, from the basics of throwing a forehand all the way to throwing bombs in the worst of weather. With a record three-straight Great Lakes Regional wins and an appearance at the College Championships the past four years, Illinois hopes to improve on its finish from last year and have a good showing at this year's tournament.

The core of this year's team has been through a lot to get to the point we are at today. Three years ago the leader and captain of IHUC tragically died in a car accident. After the death of Brian Gleeson, the players that he recruited set out to continue his mission of restoring IHUC to prominence. In the 2008-09 season IHUC battled into the game to go before being defeated by Grey Duck. Last year IHUC took the fourth and final bid to Nationals before finishing tied for ninth place. This year, IHUC put it all together to finish second at Regionals and is primed to turn a few heads at Nationals. This year's core has laid the foundation for IHUC to build on for years to come.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Stanford, CA

Team Name: Bloodthirsty

Captains: Nick Greenfield, Ben Phillips, Jordan Jeffery

Coaches: Neale Mahoney, Krishna Rao, Dan Silverstein

The Stanford Men's Ultimate Team has a long and illustrious history, dating back to the team's founding in 1980. SMUT soon joined the ranks of the nation's top teams, and won the first National Collegiate Championship in 1984. Since then, the team has finished as runners-up five times, and finally added another championship trophy to the case in 2002. Along the way, the team has won hundreds of games and scores of tournaments, and is known as one of the most consistent powerhouses in college Ultimate.

Over the years, hundreds of young men have been members of the team, each contributing his part to the creation of an Ultimate program that provides a wealth of experience for each new generation of players. In the Stanford Men's Ultimate Team, players find athletics, competition, opportunities for learning, and close, life-long friends. With each passing generation of players, the team's elders instill a sense of importance in having such a robust, self-sustaining program. This type of long-term view on the legacy of Stanford Ultimate is what has made SMUT both a powerhouse in competition, as well as a compelling life experience for its players.

Since 2003, the team has made the Final Four five times and is back at Nationals after missing the Big Dance in 2010.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Austin, TX

Team Name: TUFF

Captains: Ben Hamilton, Andrew Klotz

Coaches: Calvin Lin, Stephen Presley

Texas Ultimate was born back in the 80s and rose to a finals finish in '88 and semifinals in '89 under the leadership and big throws of G.C. and huge grabs by Bagger. Texas continued to compete at Nationals throughout the early-90's under strong teams lead by Homey and Chris Stone. Unfortunately, Texas went missing throughout the mid- to late-90's.

The new millennium brought a new team name and the renewed goal to compete at Nationals again under the guidance of Skippy, Scotty B, and Bchill. After a loss in the finals at Regionals in 2000, the program was born when UT established their first ever B team (Virgins). The focus was to grow stronger by bringing in new talent and developing returning players.

After UT RecSports threatened to cut team funds if the name wasn't changed, the team agreed on TUFF (Texas Ultimate Frisbee Friends) just before the 2002 spring season. Focused training earned TUFF its bid to Nationals after the Regionals Championship in Little Rock, Arkansas. Since then, the team has qualified for Nationals seven out of the last nine years and has become one of the premier teams in the country.

TUFTS UNIVERSITY

Medford, MA

Team Name: Elephant Men

Captains: Jay Clark, Alex Cooper

Coaches: Dan Forseter, Mike Zalisk, Mike Bright

One of the original college Ultimate teams, the Tufts Ultimate Frisbee team was founded in 1972, with the motto Pax et Frisbus, or peace and Frisbee. Its current name, the Elephant Men was first recognized in the 1980s. With one of the first teams, Tufts Ultimate began its history with a game against Clark University, winning handily. Tufts started to establish its dominance in the Northeast, winning competitions throughout the 70s and early 80s. In 1984, Tufts hosted, and qualified for, the first Collegiate Nationals. Since 1984, Tufts has qualified for Nationals in 1989, 2000-2002, 2004, and most recently, 2009. Home to Callahan winner, Mike Zalisk (2002) and numerous past and present elite club players, Tufts' history portrays it for what it is, one of the most storied and successful programs in college Ultimate history.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

Seattle, WA

Team Name: Sundodgers

Captains: Eric Braun, Greg Brey, Philip Murray

Coaches: Pat McCarthy, Gabe Pederson

This is the first trip back to Nationals since 2005 for the Sundodgers. This incarnation draws upon many of the aspects of past Washington squads — much of the good without some of the bad. A solid but senior-laden team in 2009 got to the game to go in the old Northwest region. A rebuilding year in 2010 saw the Sundodgers overachieve but still fall short.

Much in the same way a good steak sandwich comes together, so did the 2011 Sundodgers: Any good sandwich always starts with the bread, it's what holds everything together and without the structure provided by coaches Pat McCarthy and Gabe Pedersen; this sandwich wouldn't be a sandwich. A well-aged steak is the key ingredient, the returners from the 2009 and '10 teams would be the tender steak seasoned with the rub of returning captain and Fish Phil Murray. (This steak is capable of being delicious on its own but much better with an assortment of compliments). Add to these green peppers and onions of transfer students who've been there, to give just the right amount of crunch. Slapped on top is the cheese of the rookies who bring the taste of enthusiasm and joy to the sandwich. And finally the sauce brought to the sandwich by the UW fans and supporters who bring a little bit of zing to each bite. Put them all together and the 2011 Sundodgers are DELICIOUS!

WHITMAN COLLEGE

Walla Walla, WA

Team Name: Sweets

Captains: Jeremy Norden, Chris Hansman

Coaches: Jeremy Norden, Chris Hansman

On April 2, 1989, a child by the name of Jerome Destiny Norden entered the human world. On the fifth day of his life (April 7, 1989) Jer began to walk, and by the summer he was executing textbook dump cuts. Jer-Bear also mastered most of his throws within his first year on this planet. Believe it or not, but J's first throw was a no-look, eighty yard, upwind, from the top of his shoestrings, low-release forehand dime. He threw it when he was three months old; since then, it has become his signature throw.

From that point forward, Jeremy dedicated his life to two tasks: accumulating as many Ultimate jerseys as humanly possible, and getting the Whitman College Sweets to the USA Ultimate College Championships. Now that Jerome has accomplished the later task, he will be focusing even more of his mental and physical strengths on the fine art of jersey hoarding -- beware!

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Madison, WI

Team Name: Hodags

Captains: John Bergen, Ben Feldman

Coach: Hector Valdivia

The UW-Madison Ultimate Frisbee club was founded in 1977. Upon creation, the team immediately began to establish a great winning tradition with nice sectional championships and five Final Four finishes in regional play. Between 1977 and 1988, the team had an overall record of 347-189.

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility, opened in 1988, offered the club an opportunity to clean-up during the winter season. Coincidence or not, it wasn't until after 1988 that the club first qualified for Nationals.

In spring of 1994, the "Hodags" team name was implemented, and has been held to this date. Tryouts were conducted for the first time in the fall of 1988. Since 2001, the Wisconsin Hodags have won three National titles and have made five Finals appearances.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Medical staff (trainer and EMT) will be available throughout the event at Tournament Central. Please seek advice and assistance regarding prevention and treatment of injuries or illness. Directions to the local hospital can be found in the "Directions" section of this program.

CONCUSSIONS

- Concussions are brain injuries that can occur as a result of a blow to the head.
- Symptoms may include headache, nausea, vision problems, confusion and balance problems.
- If you think you or one of your teammates might have a concussion, tell your coach and have the person see a medical professional. Medical staff is on hand at the event at Tournament Central.

HEAT, NUTRITION AND HYDRATION

- Heat-related illness occurs when body cooling by evaporation is limited. Sweating depletes the body's salt and moisture, which leads to dehydration. If a player recognizes any signs or symptoms of heat-related illness, he or she should treat the problem immediately.
- Signs and symptoms of heat illness can include a change in a level of consciousness, abdominal cramps, nausea/vomiting, fatigue/tingling, chills, inability to spit, dry mucous membranes, decreased output and change in color of urine.
- Prevention and treatment of heat illness:
 - Avoid alcohol, caffeine, and carbonated beverages.
 - Medications such as antihistamines, decongestants, certain asthma medications, and diuretics can increase risk for heat illness. Avoid them if possible.
 - Avoid certain nutritional supplements (such as caffeine and ephedrine) that can dehydrate the body and/or increase metabolism and heat production.
 - Know your body – Be honest! Are you fit enough to perform under current conditions?
 - Drink and eat – Eat and drink (water AND sports drinks) "optimally" before, during, and after play. Potassium is important (good sources include: sports drinks, yogurt, grapefruit juice, bananas, and oranges). Sodium is also important (good sources include: sports drinks, vegetable juices, pretzels, nuts, cheese and crackers). After play, carbohydrates are important: foods such as potatoes, honey, cereal, white bread, corn chips, sports drinks, jelly beans, rice cakes, bagels crackers, gummy candies).
 - Don't drink too much. Over-hydrating can be dangerous if it leads to a fluid and electrolyte imbalance.
 - Monitor your urine – Clear/copious = hydrated. Dark = Need water/electrolytes.
 - Be sensitive to prior illness – If you've been sick, your body may be more susceptible to dehydration.
 - Rest and cool down after play – Find shade, wet the skin, get in front of a fan or breeze.

SIDELINE SAFETY

- Players and spectators should make every effort to keep objects, including but not limited to bags, strollers, chairs, coolers and tents, at least 3 yards from the sideline.
- If a player feels that an object on the sideline is not safe, he or she should inform Event Staff and should refrain from playing until satisfied that safe conditions have been established.
- USA Ultimate and Event Staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of USA Ultimate or Event Staff, unsafe for players, staff, or spectators.

LIGHTNING GUIDELINES

- Event staff will communicate with players and spectators via PA system and field marshals equipped with radios that there is a lightning danger, play will be stopped, and everyone should seek shelter.
- Safe shelter for players and spectators at the field site includes any fully-enclosed building or vehicle with a hard-top and closed windows.
- Event staff will use the Flash-to-Bang method to determine when to send people to shelter. By the time the Flash-to-Bang count has reached 30 seconds, all individuals should be in a safe shelter location.
- If you can't get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects, and water. Assume a crouch position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.
- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe provided the person has followed other safety guidelines.
- Event staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.

MASSAGE THERAPISTS

Tall Paul's Bodywork will have massage therapists on site throughout the weekend, providing relief for those aching muscles for a nominal fee. They will be located in the Medical and Massage tent at the south end of Field 1.

SPIRIT OF COACHING

BACKGROUND: The role of the coach at all levels of Ultimate is unique in a sport that places on-field player authority above non-player influence. As a non-player, the coach's authority must not extend to the on-field officiating process. Coaches may be faced with situations where they are able to correct the self-officiating process and ensure the correct outcome to a given play. In this situation, coaches must not interfere in the officiating process, in order to ensure that players learn and take responsibility for officiating. Coach interference in the decision making process, even in the most egregious violations, will indicate to players that the coach and not the players have the ultimate responsibility for ensuring the inherent fairness of the game. Teaching players the rules and how to implement them should be done at practices or off the field. It is the coach's responsibility to ensure that the players understand their own responsibilities as players and teach players how to handle those responsibilities.

GUIDELINES:

- Coaches should introduce themselves to the other coaches prior to a game and discuss concerns. This could potentially include the level of play, the level of intensity (e.g. spiking and rushing the field), and possible modifications to the captain's clause (e.g. prohibiting zone for new teams or footblocking).
- Because the potential for misperception is high, spiking is prohibited at the youth level unless otherwise agreed upon by the coaches or captains. Spiking in a disrespectful manner is never ok at any level.
- Coaches will not make calls from the sideline nor offer their opinion on a play. Coaches should encourage players to come to a resolution on their own, and if asked during a dispute coaches may offer rules clarifications. After a dispute a coach may talk to his or her own player about the dispute and offer opinions.
- Youth coaches will make an effort to educate parents about Spirit of the Game and work to create a sideline atmosphere that respects Spirit of the Game.

- Coaches will teach and give players opportunities to practice knowledge of the rules of Ultimate.
- Coaches will always exhibit respect for opposing players.
- Coaches will always exhibit respect for other coaches.
- Coaches will always exhibit respect for observers.
- Coaches will model Spirit of the Game at all times.

SUMMARY: The coach's goal in terms of Spirit of the Game is to create an environment in which players are responsible for upholding the rules and ensuring that the outcomes of plays and games are fair.
