Cort Carlson
Executive Director
Aurora Area Convention & Visitors Bureau

On behalf of Ultimate Chicago, I would like to welcome you to the 2018 Masters Championships! We are excited to host this event for the first time! This is our fourth USA Ultimate national event in the past four years and our second one this year. We are also looking forward to working with the Aurora Area Convention & Visitors Bureau and the Fox Valley Park District for the first time.

Many hours of work went into planning and creating this event. A big thank you goes to Byron Hicks from USA Ultimate for always being a fun and easy partner to work with, as well as the rest of the staff who fly out to help run this event. Also, this event could not happen without the time and effort of the volunteers. They generously work long hours to make sure this very large tournament goes smoothly. So, THANK YOU volunteers! (Feel free to thank them yourselves as well.)

Please enjoy your time playing in this year's Masters Championships. Play well and don't forget to enjoy your experience! Best of luck to you all!

Sincerely,
Gail Reich

NOISEMAKER GUIDELINES

The following guidelines for noisemakers will be applied at USA Ultimate events. They are designed to strike a balance between limiting artificial noise that adversely impacts the competition or the on-site experience of participants with allowing for noise that helps create an enthusiastic, fun and supportive environment. Players, teams and spectators are expected to abide by these guidelines while on site at the event.

- Powered noisemakers are not allowed at the event site. This includes, but is not limited to, air horns, sirens and electronic bullhorns.
- Novelty noisemakers are NOT permitted, except under the following conditions:
 - o Must remain outside of the equipment lines.
 - o May only be used between a goal being scored and the offense signaling readiness for the next point.
 - o May not be used during timeouts taken during active play.
 - o Novelty noisemakers include, but are not limited to, whistles, vuvuzelas, squeeze horns and musical instruments.
- Music-playing devices with external speakers are permitted under the following conditions:
 - o Must remain outside of equipment lines, except during warm-ups and half-time.
 - o Must remain at a reasonable volume considering other event participants and attendees.
 - o May not be used to play music with offensive lyrics or themes.
- No noisemaker of any kind is permitted that may present a safety hazard.
- Any noisemaker permitted above may be disallowed if the volume or content of the noise is deemed to be offensive or disruptive to the enjoyment of the event, or the noisemaker is used in an un-spirited manner such as to taunt, intimidate or give a team an undue competitive advantage, as determined by event staff.

Event staff and observers will inform teams and individuals of these guidelines as needed. Repercussions for violation of these guidelines may include confiscation of the noisemaker, removal of the individual from the event site and/or in-game sanctions associated with the Misconduct System.

ULTIMATE IN 10 SIMPLE RULES

- 1. THE FIELD: A rectangular shape with end zones at each end. A regulation field is 70 yards by 40 yards, with end zones 25 yards deep.
- 2. INITIATE PLAY: Each point begins with both teams lining up on the front of their respective end zone line. The defense throws (“pulls”) the disc to the offense. A regulation game has seven players per team.
- 3. SCORING: Each time the offense completes a pass in the defense’s end zone, the offense scores a point. Play is initiated after each score.
- 4. MOVEMENT OF THE DISC: The disc may be advanced in any direction by completing a pass to a teammate. Players may not run with the disc. The person with the disc (“thrower”) has ten seconds to throw the disc. The defender guarding the thrower (“marker”) counts out the stall count.
- 5. CHANGE OF POSSESSION: When a pass is not completed (e.g. out of bounds, drop, block, interception), the defense immediately takes possession of the disc and becomes the offense.
- 6. SUBSTITUTIONS: Players not in the game may replace players in the game after a score and during an injury timeout.
- 7. NON-CONTACT: No physical contact is allowed between players. Picks and screens are also prohibited. A foul occurs when contact is made.
- 8. FOULS: When a player initiates contact on another player a foul occurs. When a foul disrupts possession, the play resumes as if the possession was retained. If the player committing the foul disagrees with the foul call, the play is redone.
- 9. SELF-OFFICIATING: Players are responsible for their own foul and line calls. Players resolve their own disputes.
- 10. SPIRIT OF THE GAME: Ultimate stresses sportsmanship and fair play. Competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of respect between players, adherence to the rules, and the basic joy of play.

They say a dynasty can only truly be determined after its past, but one thing is for certain, the Portland masters team is a current living dynasty in the truest sense of the word.

"No universal selfishness can bring social good to all. Communism - the effort to give all men what they need and to ask of each the best they can contribute - this is the only way of human life."

Captain(s): Rob Doyle, Keith Larsen, Rick Artus

twitter.com/GERONIMULTIMATE

The new owner of our team has accepted a lucrative offer to relocate us to Miami on the condition that we finish in last place. To ensure our failure, she has gotten rid of some of our best players from last season and replaced them with aging veterans and inexperienced rookies. We picked up a player who is lightning-fast but utterly unskilled. We got another who has a cannon for an arm but lacks control over his throws, and he's currently feuding with our star player. And, to make matters worse, our team's emotional leader has terrible knees and is clearly destined to retire at the end of the season. We're a patchwork team of misfits and it's no surprise that we're the underdog, but we're not moving to Miami without a fight!

Naptown

Indianapolis, IN

Captain(s): Joshua Kemmerling, Andrew Miller

@NaptownUltimate

Naptown originated in 2017 when the founder decided there simply wasn't a strong enough masters option in the Great Lakes region. A team with players primarily from Indianapolis and Bloomington, Ind. came together to place higher at the 2017 Masters Championships than any team in our region with an 11th place finish. Naptown continues to grow and fielded both an A team and a B team at the Regional Championships in 2018.

Outlaw

Arkansas and Oklahoma

Captain(s): Terrell Hoagland, Joel Brown, Jon Summers, Karl Doege

@outlawultimate

Outlaw is comprised of the most wanted players from the Arkansas and Oklahoma territories. Never before have you encountered such a wretched hive of scum and villainy. This posse of highly suspect individuals has wreaked havoc both on and off the fields, from the beaches of Tybee Island, across the vast expanse of Heritage Park, to the lush fields of Redmond, Wash. and all places in between. In 2015, the gang finally rustled up a critical mass of masters eligible perpetrators and are back in the saddle to ride once again. This crew is making its third consecutive Nationals appearance and looking to build on its notorious reputation.

Pacemaker

Chicago, IL

Captain(s): Dan Baker, Dan Benjamin, Tom Carter

@Chi_Pacemaker

Pacemaker has been around for four years and is from Chicago, Ill., birthed long ago from a vision. In the first year of Haymaker (an open team from the same city), the core group of guys thought that one day they would form either a mixed team, appropriately named Babymaker, or a seasoned squad of crotchety vets named Pacemaker. The latter won the day due to the brotherly love that kept Haymaker together for 13 years and is still going strong. Pacemaker welcomes players from other regional teams, such as Beachfront Property and Machine, and looks to make a run for the title at the Masters Championships. Pacemaker replaces the Haymaker virtues of "Glory, Honor, Liberty and Pleasure" with "GET OFF OUR LAWN!"

Captain(s): Mike L'Hommedieu, Dan Korban

polarvortex-oldmanwinter.com/?page_id=511

This is Polar Vortex's fifth season together as a team and third trip to the Masters Championships. Polar Vortex hails from the frigid and windy city of Chicago where it is not unheard of to begin outdoor practices with a bit of snow on the ground. However, much like the natives of Chicago, a little weather or adversity can't keep Polar Vortex down. The comradery and shared spirit of ultimate keeps the team warm and fighting.

Royal Stag

Madison, WI

Captain(s): Will Sierzchula, Robert Burtley, Tristan McKittrick, Scott Sawinski
twitter.com/RoyalStag5

Royal Stag hails from Madison, Wis. Madison is known for three things: the Badgers, craft brew and ultimate. This is the second year Royal Stag has made it to Nationals. Last year, they were happy to be there; this year, they are looking to make some noise at the masters level. Royal Stag has been around for five years with no end in sight. Royal Stag hopes to build even more momentum to make this team a permanent fixture at the Masters Championships.

Surly has won national championships in 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2016. We would not be here without the support of Omar, Jim Mott, all of the former Surlies, the grand masters guys, the great grand masters guys, the Cynics, Xtra Surly, our women's counterparts and the Minnesota Ultimate community. Thank you all. Though our spirit ranking may be assisted by the delicious Surly beer we provide to other teams, we aim to carry on the legacy of Marty Bakko, to whom the Spirit Award is dedicated, both on and off the field. Captain(s): Tim Jacobson, Joe Andrighetti, Jonah Shaver

@SurlyCynicUlt

Surly Cynic got its first taste of Nationals in 2016, and, just like the beer that shares our name, one taste wasn't enough. We are back at Nationals for a third run in 2018, this time eyeing quarters and hoping to be in the running for the team Spirit Award. Surly Cynic is proud to honor the spirit of our teammate, Marty F. Bakko, who passed away in 2009 but whose name remains synonymous with competition, spirit and ultimate. Cynic is pleased to represent Surly Nation, a community of ultimate players (seven teams!) that hail from the Twin Cities in the state of Minnesota.

There comes a time in every buffalo's life that it emerges from its pupa as a great Woolly Mammoth. This happens when the buffalo reaches a score and eight years of age. Woolly Mammoths can often be spotted by their preferred drink of bourbon and ginger, which means you can often smell them coming when the odor of fermented barley, rye and a hint of sweet ginger is in the air. In the end, every buffalo should know one day it will make its way to becoming a great Woolly Mammoth.

Happy Hour

Madison, WI

Captain(s): Megan Bauer, Todd Henderson, Toby Wex

@HappyHourMaster

Happy hour used to mean something in this country. Before the half priced shots of rail gin, 5:00 p.m. was a time to gather together and stick it to Uncle Sam over a pre-dinner cocktail. Yet, over the years we lost our way, and that single joyous hour of camaraderie was replaced by three hours of convincing your coworkers you're cool by downing four Jager Bombs. Unsatisfied with the state of their country's post-work libation ritual, an ensemble of wily ultimate players out of Madison, Wis. set forth with a mission to return America to her former 1920's secret boozy glory. Armed with the original recipe for a Tom Collins, three baby strollers and the conviction that every hour can be a happy one, this troop of flatball veterans got off work just in time to light up the scoreboard and their neon "Happy Hour" sign. Prost!

Charleston, SC

Captain(s): Will Bradshaw, Keith Doucette

It all began at a Fourth of July BBQ in 2017. The couple hosting was talking about their upcoming trip to Denver to compete in the first ever appearance of mixed masters in USAU's Masters Championships. The group soon came to the realization that we all qualified as masters players and the 2018 roster began to take shape. The majority of Low Tide resides in Charleston, S.C. and has played together for over a decade. The roster filled out via connections in Wilmington and the Triangle area of North Carolina, Augusta, Ga. and Greenville, S.C. The special element that makes Low Tide a team is friendship. We love ultimate and we love, support and inspire each other on and off the field. It is high time for Low Tide!

Old #7

Nashville, TN and Huntsville, AL

Captain(s): Heather Gardner, Grant Gardner, Andy Sieja, Mark Ullom

From the glory of Prime, Old #7 was born. A combination of players based in Tennessee and Alabama (and one Savannah, Ga. player!), Old #7 was designed to be much like the smooth (is it smooth?) Tennessee whiskey that is equidistant from Huntsville, Ala. and Nashville, Tenn. Despite our design plans, our most similar feature to said whiskey is our aged color and burning aftertaste. Nevertheless, we persisted with our namesake. Other than ultimate, our hobbies include learning the GroupMe app, breakfast tables and vigorously defending said breakfast tables. We also like to ask ourselves: "Who is old?" but we end up answering our own question with: "We old." Thus, we forsake all midlife crises.

Madison Old Fashioned

Ingredients:

11 well-aged stellar MUFA women

15 well-aged above average MUFA men

Eight orange cones

One regulation ultimate disc

Cherries and orange slices

Brandy (Korbel, that's how we do it in Wisconsin)

A shake of bitters

Sugar cubes and 7-Up (for sweet) or sour mix (for sour)

Tasting Notes:

A truly great Old Fashioned recipe should be equally fantastic when prepared as either a sweet or sour. Madison's mixed second rendition of Old Fashioned proves to be up to the task. Although the ingredients differ, the essence of a fun and spirited game remain a dominant flavor. Notes of hucks, poaches and scoobers are also present. This is a summer experience sure to be enjoyed.

The year of 2018 is when Old Money finally, at long last, came into its fortune. An unlikely trove of misfits, urchins, ne'er-do-wells and hangers-on were revealed, by yours truly, to have bloodlines and marks befitting the name of their royal metropolis. Flush with wealth unearthed from their august forebears, Old Money can be seen galivanting about, celebrating with grand arcing throws and graceful, though perhaps unseemly, catches. Fate draws them now to the Windy City. There is no telling how skill and chance will shape their next inheritance, but they travel happily, calling out the sound of the fortune that rings in their ears. Cha-CHINNGGGGG

Sorta Classic

San Francisco, CA

Captain(s): Douglas Hannah, Brooke Ray Rivera

Classy was born on the glittering shore of the San Francisco Bay in 2008. Over the next decade, the team would hone its signature blend of hard work, community and willful disregard for bodily health and local noise ordinances. With friends and alumni having scattered across the region (and world), these are the values that we carry with us today to the Masters Championships: community, love of the game, love for each other and willingness to grind to get it done (sorta).

unAmbiguously Grey

Washington, DC

Captain(s): Jarnail Bajwa, Wei Lu, Peter MacArthur

Widely considered the most impressive championship run any DC-based ultimate team has accomplished in the last decade, unAmbiguously Grey (AG) capitalized on five consecutive Book Dive championships (arguably the premier fall charity hat tournament in the DMV), catapulting themselves onto the club scene in 2011. As the team matured, so did AG's team name and culture, driving its success with three Nationals titles since 2013. Furthermore, after observing political gridlock from the cacophony of YAY-sayers and NEIGH-sayers in its home city, AG committed to work for their teammates. The results speak for themselves.

Hot Flash

Cincinnati, OH

Captain(s): Kristi Schmeling

@HotFlashUlti

Hot Flashes are generally experienced as a feeling of intense heat with sweating and rapid heartbeat, typically persisting for about 90 minutes at a time. The Hot Flash event may be repeated three to four times each day throughout the course of a long weekend and are often more intense during hot weather at the end of July, or in Aurora (Illinois, and sometimes Colorado).

In this year's championship, our fifth appearance at USA Ultimate Masters Championships in as many years, we're excited to represent the Great Lakes region on our "home turf." With one of our primary recruitment centers hosting the World Masters Ultimate Club Championships the week after Masters Championships, we've picked up quite a few rookies this season to round out our roster. This team has become very close knit. Battling in brutal heat in Florida and competing at high altitudes in Colorado, we look forward to coming together for the masters season every year. We'd love for you to join us in the Wobble after the game, or at the party.

We'll get pumped up head-banging to Queen on the way to the field complex, though it should be noted that there are no palm trees in Aurora, Ill.

Rusting Bridge Face

@RustingBridgeFace

In 2005, fresh out of high school and upon first learning the game of ultimate, a group of women had a dream to create the greatest masters team the world has ever seen. They set their sights on the long goal and steadfastly worked toward creating a playing culture within which more mature players may thrive. Along the way, through various college, club and recreational playing opportunities in the Pittsburgh area, friendships were born as these women found others who shared their dream. Thirteen years later, the fruit of their labors came to bear in the creation of Rusting Bridge Face (RBF), Pittsburgh's elite women's masters team. In its inaugural year, RBF brings together a group of ladies from a variety of backgrounds who share a common lineage in Pittsburgh ultimate. They also bring facial expressions that embody the industrial spirit of the city of bridges.

@COUGARSultimate

Surly C.O.U.G.A.R.S. returns in 2018 with some new faces on our Summer Resort Line. Although we are typically a solitary animal, we joined forces with the Surly community to take on more territory in lowlands and mountainous deserts to become top predators. With our powerful hind legs (proportionally the largest in the cat family), we used our leaping and short-sprint ability to earn a bid out of the North Central. As always, we use our stalk-and-ambush style to put our paws on your plastic. As the second heaviest cat in the Western Hemisphere, our paws are heavy, but these aging predator hearts are light in the crepuscular hours when we search for young meat, beer and corn – our standard Midwest diet. Rawr.

Yeehaw was formed by Austin Ultimate player Colleen Kepner in 2014, with assistance from former teammates, opponents and friends Catherine Belgarde Shirvell and Amber Abel Sturrock in Houston. Collaborating across cities, they rallied players from all over Texas to attend the Masters Championships in nostalgic Sarasota, Fla. that summer. After its inaugural year, Yeehaw reunited to play together in 2015. After a two-year break in action, Yeehaw returns this year under the leadership of Suzanne Lacy of Austin, in collaboration with Catherine Belgarde Shirvell of Houston. With a diverse set of playing backgrounds, Yeehaw continues to be a group of ladies from across Texas, as well as a few from elsewhere in the region (including New Mexico and Arkansas). We're happy to be playing in Chicago this year and looking forward to another incredible journey this year in the world of masters ultimate.

Eldors

Santa Barbara, CA

Captain(s): Matt Shaff, Steve Dugan, Greg Husak

The great birds keep aging. The first Condors won a national championship in 1977. As those birds aged into the masters division, they won the 1993 Masters Championships. A new generation of Condors added open championships at the turn of the century, and now they have aged into the grand masters division to bring a new brand of championship to Santa Barbara more than 40 years after the first one.

Kalakala

Seattle, WA

Captain(s): Barney Ahouse, Bil Elsinger, Jude Larene, Justin Deng

Kalakala was constructed back in 2016 to set the Seattle ultimate grand masters community on a new journey. High level competition was our goal, but not at the expense of fun and spirit. A taste of the big show that year led us to bigger and better performances last year. This year, we'll be bringing Seattle grand masters ultimate to the world stage, but not before we compete at the stage where teams dream to play.

No Country

Maine and New York

Captain(s): Joel Thompson, Arnold Sanchez

This year marks the sixth appearance for No Country at the Masters Championships. Several No Country veterans rode into the great grand masters sunset in 2018, making room for new blood (much newer, younger blood, in fact). As usual, the veterans and newcomers comprise a motley assortment of characters from across the northeast, along with a few friends from abroad. Unlike past years, the Boston-Vermont axis that once prevailed has given way to a New York-Maine core that has deep roots, and whose members share a fondness for maximum effort and direct feedback, very direct. It's fine; we're too old to waste time mincing words anyway.

Coach(es): Mark Abney, David Allocco, Angelo Artemakis, Marc Furigay, Mike Gwinn

polarvortex-oldmanwinter.com

Old Man Winter was born in a bar on the coldest night of 2015. After playing on Polar Vortex and winning the team Spirit Award, both Andy Delorenzo and Frank Menendez knew that the time was right to start a grand masters team. In keeping with our winter theme, and meeting on the worst night at a bar, after several rounds of beer we decided to name this team Old Man Winter. Old Man Winter was the Great Lakes grand masters regional champion in 2015, 2016 and 2017. In 2018, Surly GM decided to crash our party and take our regional championship, but they left good beer. In the future, we are planning to have a program and team in all men's masters club levels. Father Time has let us know that The Dead of Winter great grand masters is near.

Rust is only in its second year with players primarily out of Alabama, but also with key players out of North Carolina, Virginia and Mississippi. The open team in Birmingham is the Ironmen and the youth team is Forge. Carrying on with the same general motif, we formed Rust, fitting that theme as well as fitting our division. We just missed Nationals in our first year and are happy to be a part of it in our second.

@SurlyUltimate

Surly Grand Masters continues the long-standing Minneapolis tradition of (very) old person ultimate. We have had success at the masters and grand masters levels, winning multiple championships in both divisions. We carry forward the traditions of Surly: playing hard ultimate and sharing great beer. We're proud to represent the finest Midwestern tradition of sports for sports' sake. During our Wednesday night open masters practice, we regularly have men from five different Surly men's teams that enjoy playing. We even figured out how to go to a different Midwestern Regional Championship just because we want more sports. We dedicate every season to our teammate, Marty F. Bakko, who passed away in 2009 and gives his name and character to the masters division Spirit Award.

Ottawa, ON

Captain(s): Clare Gee, Karen Kavanagh

Solstice is the first Canadian grand masters women's ultimate team, and this is our inaugural year. We are based in Ottawa, Ontario and have players on our roster from Ottawa, Kingston, Belleville, Edmonton and St. Johns. We have played in one tournament thus far, which was the first ever competitive tournament for 10 members of our roster. All of the players are very excited to be part of this growing movement for more tournaments for mature female ultimate players. Many of us have daughters, and we hope that our efforts in 2018 will translate to increased opportunities for female players of all ages in the future.

MEN'S GREAT GRAND MASTERS TEAMS

Age Against The Machine

Cincinnati, OH

Captain(s): George White

@Age_Ultimate

Since rising from the ashes of their youth in the late 1990's, Age Against the Machine has led the struggle for spirited old man ultimate. With appearances at multiple masters, grand masters and great grand masters national championships, not to mention self-styled World Championships in Montreal and Sarasota, this collection of crafty, crusty and creaky men continue to encourage their fellow aged to wake up, know your enemy and settle for nothing. Like bulls on parade, these men, formerly perky and somewhat athletic, but now armed only with their failing wisdom and questionable perseverance, and lacking in skill what they also lack in speed, will rise up one final time against the unrelenting machine.

CHRONIC

Chicago, IL

Captain(s): George Spentzos

Once upon a time, under the arches many moons ago, there was a creation. An all-seeing eye which foresaw the beginning of the theatre of madness. An ultimate world where players came to get caught in the wave of excitement and experience joy and friendship. The beginning had begun, and, from the ashes, an inspiration was created - a new chapter. The flowering of our minds has taken the first flight forward into the realm of CHRONIC!

DoG

Boston, MA

Captain(s): Jim Parinella, Alex de Frondeville, Jim Olson

DoG is one of the most storied franchises in ultimate history. Beginning in 1994 after years of close misses for Boston ultimate teams, Death or Glory immediately made an impact, running off six consecutive national championships in the open division along with three Worlds titles. The team also won titles in their first year in both masters (2007) and grand masters (2009), plus a Masters World Championship in 2008. The team took a hiatus after its remaining core joined up with No Country in 2013, but with 12 members returning to Nationals this year, the name too has returned.

Old and In The Way

Denver and Boulder, CO

Captain(s): Bob Pease, Gary Foreman

There are a lot of old teams out there, but possibly the greatest, and certainly the oldest, is Old and in the Way. We were even old back in the 1980s when a band of antiquated disc mates, under the influence of Jerry Garcia and possibly other things, named their team after a song we loved (and often sang). Then, something strange happened: as we got older, we got better, winning two Masters Championships in 1999 and 2005, one WFDF Masters World Championship in 2000 and a grand masters national championship in 2010. Now, inspired by one more shot at glory, we are being wheeled out of our nursing homes, picking up our banjos and reassembling (with nine original members from our 2000 Worlds team on board!), in hopes not just of winning, but of continuing to embody a spirit of camaraderie and fun that has now lasted for over three decades.

GREAT GRAND MASTERS TEAMS

Old Growth

Tacoma, WA

Captain(s): Colin Iosso, Don Wright, John Springer, Jimmy Peschel

I think that I shall never see

A team as lively as Old Growth.

A team whose hungry limbs reach forth

To catch each disc from West and North;

A team that runs and leaps all day,

Defends and scores throughout the fray;

A team that may in summer show

All other teams just where to go;

Old Growth has no fear of strain;

We've intimately lived with rain.

Teams are made by fools like we,

But only God can make a tree.

San Francisco, CA

Captain(s): Dan Powers, Bob Clark-Ridell, Kerry Karter
@ultimaterelics

The Relics are back to defend our 2017 great grand masters championship title. The joy of recruiting continues: call up your old pals. "I haven't played ultimate for decades." "Can I play with my hip replacement?" "Bummer, I pulled my Achilles' heel picking up a pencil." "Would love to but got a family conflict." "Are you kidding me, I can still play masters or grand masters, so I'm not playing great grand masters until I can no longer walk. (One week later) Got any spots left?" We are a bunch of Relics and get NO RESPECT. "Do you know who I am? I invented the stall count! I'm not throwing you a dump pass. Go long!" The San Francisco Bay Area RELICS have exhumed cadavers from inside the region and beyond to play with old friends. We aren't surly, rude or in the way. We're so old we are the Original Seven on the Line.

SICK

Austin and Houston, Texas

Captain(s): Rob Seidenberg

After 10 years of life in the grand masters (ahem) fast lane, Sick Hammers bifurcated in 2018, leaving the truly SICK (in mind, body and spirit) to fend for the honor of the international (and oh-so-chichi) 50+ crowd. This Texas-centric gang (primarily Austin and Houston) is joined here by a few west coasters (the Texafornia days) and a couple of strays from the Wisconsin and New Jersey territories. The squad's spirit (traced back to the early roots of 33 1/3 and Jack) remains undaunted. Muddy, gullied fields stinking of cow manure; barren pitches eviscerated by howling, plastic-swatting winds; baking, 100-degree prairies with barely a sapling for shade - these are the conditions that send lesser mortals scampering to panic rooms. But, for SICK, these are deluxe party rooms and realms in which they revel and romp.

TriAged is in its fourth year setting the world on fire with flashes of brilliance and plenty of sketchy plays. Hailing 100 percent from the Southeast region and 90 percent from North Carolina, TriAgeders are a motley crew from all walks of life. While being chill and out for fun, heckling is our poetry, and we value our unofficial motto of "The stakes couldn't be lower." Accordingly, we already consider ourselves the winners — tournaments are just a formality to allow others to share in our glory. We work hard, play hard and occupy the sidelines reminiscing our previous glory even harder. A more respectable and dignified group of men could probably be found randomly from anywhere, but we are who we are and we're stuck with each other, till death do us apart. Come visit us in the Triangle area of North Carolina!

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Medical staff, including athletic trainers, will be on site at Tournament Central to treat injuries, handle emergencies and provide some preventative care. The event will provide standard athletic tape, pre-wrap, ice and some bandages. Other supplies, including special tape or bandages and anti-inflammatory drugs, must be provided by teams or may be charged by the training staff.

If there is an injury on a field that needs medical attention, inform a field marshal, and he or she will radio to the trainers.

If you have medical issues that require attention in the morning before play, please show up early to avoid long lines. The trainers will be at the fields two hours prior to game time each day.

CONCUSSIONS

EDUCATION

- USA Ultimate recommends the CDC “Heads Up Safety” program, a free one-hour online training: cdc.gov/concussion/headsup/youth.html.
- USA Ultimate’s participant waiver includes important information from the CDC regarding concussion safety: usultimate.org/membership/usa_ultimate_membership_forms.aspx

COACHING REQUIREMENTS

- Coaches at USA Ultimate events are required to have completed a concussion awareness and safety recognition program (like the CDC program above or other local or state-recommended course). Coaches should not submit records of course completion to USA Ultimate, but should maintain records on-site while coaching.

REMOVAL & RETURN TO PLAY

- All guidelines identified by the CDC must be strictly followed in the event of a suspected concussion.
 1. Remove the athlete from play.
 2. Ensure the athlete is evaluated by a health care professional trained in concussion diagnosis and management. Do not try to judge the seriousness of the injury yourself.
 3. If the athlete is a minor, inform the athlete’s parents or guardians about the known or possible concussion and give them the fact sheet on concussions.
 4. Allow the athlete to return to play only with permission from an appropriate health care professional.

DOCTOR’S NOTE REQUIREMENT

- If, during a USA Ultimate event, an athlete receives care at a hospital, medical clinic or doctor’s office, or is referred to a hospital or doctor by event medical staff, the athlete is barred from further competition in that event until he or she provides a doctor’s note, on letterhead or prescription pad, to event medical staff stating that the athlete is authorized to return to competition.

ATHLETE PROTECTION

- USA Ultimate takes the protection of event participants seriously. In accordance with SafeSport and the USA Ultimate Conduct Policy, all USA Ultimate employees, volunteers, athletes, members, coaches and chaperones are prohibited from engaging in the following conduct with athletes at any time (a more thorough description is available at www.usultimate.org/protection):

- o Bullying
- o Hazing
- o Harassment, including Sexual Harassment
- o Emotional Misconduct
- o Physical Misconduct
- o Sexual Misconduct, including Child Sexual Abuse

- With the passage of the recent federal legislation to protect amateur and minor athletes, all SafeSport trained individuals (including coaches, team support, USA Ultimate staff) are now mandatory reporters.
- If you have questions or would like to file a complaint with USA Ultimate, please contact Dan Raabe at dan@hq.usultimate.org.

HEAT, NUTRITION AND HYDRATION

- Heat-related illnesses occur when the body's ability to cool itself by evaporation is limited. Sweating depletes the body's salt and moisture, which leads to dehydration. If a player recognizes any signs or symptoms of a heat-related illness, he or she should treat the problem immediately.
- Signs and symptoms of a heat illness can include changes in level of consciousness, abdominal cramps, nausea/vomiting, fatigue/tingling, chills, inability to spit, dry mucous membranes, decreased output and change in color of urine.

PREVENTION AND TREATMENT OF A HEAT ILLNESS

- Avoid alcohol, caffeine and carbonated beverages.
- Medications such as antihistamines, decongestants, certain asthma medications and diuretics can increase the risk for heat illness. Avoid them if possible.
- Avoid certain nutritional supplements (such as caffeine and ephedrine) that can dehydrate the body and/or increase metabolism and heat production.
- Know your body – be honest! Are you fit enough to perform under current conditions?
- Eat and drink (water AND sports drinks) optimally before, during and after play. Potassium is important; good sources include sports drinks, yogurt, grapefruit juice, bananas and oranges. Sodium is also important; good sources include sports drinks, vegetable juices, pretzels, nuts, cheese and crackers. After play, carbohydrates are important: foods such as potatoes, honey, cereal, white bread, corn chips, sports drinks, jelly beans, rice cakes, bagels, crackers and gummy candies.

- Don't drink too much. Over-hydrating can be dangerous if it leads to a fluid and electrolyte imbalance.
- Monitor your urine. Clear/copious = hydrated. Dark = Need water/electrolytes.
- Be sensitive to any prior illness. If you've been sick, your body may be more susceptible to dehydration.
- Rest and cool down after play. Find shade, wet the skin or get in front of a fan or breeze.

SIDELINE SAFETY

- Spectators and equipment must stay at least five yards away from the sidelines. Where there are buffer lines, respect them. Chairs, coolers, strollers, people and other objects must be at least three yards from the sidelines.
- If a player believes that an object on the sideline is not safe, he or she should inform event staff and refrain from playing until he or she is satisfied that safe conditions have been established.
- USA Ultimate and event staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators from on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of USA Ultimate or event staff, unsafe for players, staff or spectators.

LIGHTNING GUIDELINES

- Event staff will communicate with players and spectators via a PA system and through field marshals equipped with radios if there is a lightning danger. Play will then be stopped, and everyone should seek shelter.
- Safe shelter for players and spectators at the field site includes any fully enclosed building or vehicle with a hard top and closed windows.
- Event staff will be monitoring radar and listening for thunder. If lightning is occurring within 10 miles or thunder is audible, play will be suspended and all individuals should get in a safe shelter location.
- If you can't get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects and water. Assume a crouched position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.
- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe, provided the person has followed other safety guidelines.
- Event staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.

10 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SPIRIT OF THE GAME™

1. THE GOLDEN RULE: TREAT OTHERS AS YOU WOULD WANT TO BE TREATED.

Spirited games result from mutual respect among opponents. Assume the best of your opponent. Give him or her the benefit of a doubt. You would want the same for yourself. But if you are thick-skinned, do not assume that your opponent is. Maybe you should think of this rule as, “treat others as you would have them treat your mother.”

2. CONTROL: SOTG TAKES REAL EFFORT.

SOTG is not just some abstract principle that everyone adopts and then games run smoothly without effort. Close calls are made in tight games. Hard fouls are committed. SOTG is about how you handle yourself under pressure: how you contain your emotionality, tame your temper, and modulate your voice. If you initiate or contribute to the unraveling of spirit, the concept falls apart quickly. If you act to mend things (or at least not exacerbate the situation) by following (1) above, the game heals itself.

3. HECKLING AND TAUNTING ARE DIFFERENT.

Ultimate has a long tradition of good-natured heckling. Heckles are friendly barbs, typically from non-playing spectators. Heckling can be fun, but taunting is unspirited and wrong. Harassing remarks after an opponent's foul call or close play are NOT heckling: they are abusive taunts which create unpleasant playing conditions and often escalate to acrimonious disputes.

4. SOTG IS COMPATIBLE WITH CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY.

It is a fallacy to argue that the stakes are so important that some aspect of SOTG can be cast aside. Time and again, great teams and star players have shown that you can bring all your competitive and athletic zeal to a game without sacrificing fair play or respect for your opponent.

5. DON'T “GIVE AS YOU GOT.”

There is no “eye for an eye.” If you are wronged, you have no right to wrong someone in return. In the extreme case where you were severely mistreated, you may bring the issue up with a captain, tournament director, or even lodge a complaint with the governing body. If you retaliate in kind, however, a complaint may be filed against you. We recall point (1): treat others as you would have them treat you, not as they have treated you. In the end, you are responsible for you.

6. BREATHE.

After a hard foul, close call, or disputed play, take a step back, pause, and take a deep breath. In the heat of competition, emotions run high. By giving yourself just a bit of time and space, you will gain enough perspective to compose yourself and concentrate on the facts involved in the dispute (was she in or out; did you hit his hand or the disc; did that pick affect the play). Your restraint will induce a more restrained response from your opponent. Conflagration averted, you may resume business as usual.

7. WHEN YOU DO THE RIGHT THING, PEOPLE NOTICE. When you turn the other cheek, you know you've done the right thing. You may not hear praise, there may be no standing ovation, but people do notice. Eventually, their respect for you and their appreciation of the game will grow.

8. BE GENEROUS WITH PRAISE.

Compliment an opponent on her good catch. Remark to a teammate that you admire their honesty in calling themselves out of bounds. Look players in the eye and congratulate them when you shake their hands after a game. These small acts boost spirit greatly, a large payoff for little time and effort.

9. IMPRESSIONS LINGER.

Not only does the realization that your actions will be remembered for a long time serve to curb poor behavior, it can also inspire better conduct. Many old-timers enjoy the experience of meeting an elite player who remembers their first rendezvous on the field and recalls the event in detail. A good first encounter with an impressionable young player can have considerable long term positive impact.

10. HAVE FUN.

All other things being equal, games are far more fun without the antipathy. Go hard. Play fair. Have fun.

Special thanks to Eric Zaslow and members of the 2005 Conduct Committee (Jeff Dunbar, Kate Bergeron, Eric Zaslow, Will Deaver) for the development of this document. Adopted by USA Ultimate Executive Committee, March 29, 2005.

SPIRIT CIRCLES

Spirit Circles are an idea borrowed from international competitions throughout the ultimate world. For years, American teams have traveled to world championship events where they have not only done exceptionally well in each competition, but showed the international community the importance we place on respect for the game and their opponents. But American players have also learned a lot from competing against teams from other countries, and invariably one of the most positive parts of the international experience has been the tradition of the post-game spirit circle. While there are a number of ways to do this, here are some quick tips to get your team started:

- Following each game, rather than lining up to slap hands, the two teams gather into a circle, alternating players on each team, facing inward, with arms around the shoulders of the person next to you.
- One or two people (often team captains or spirit captains) on each team will talk briefly about the game. Usually the losing team goes first, then the winning team.
- Things to talk about can include how the game went, how your own team played, what the other team did well, who on the other team played well, and anything else that might be worth communicating...even if it's something you think could be done better (and don't forget to look in the mirror on this).
- After each team has had a chance to talk, the winning team takes a step into the circle and walks around counter-clockwise to slap hands with the players on the other team.

That's it! It's pretty simple and definitely an experience that brings teams together and puts the game and the experience in perspective. It's all about respect for each other and the experience of bringing out the best in each other through competition. It's also about building relationships and seeing opponents for what they really are: part of the same community that loves ultimate. Please note that this is not meant to replace other post-game traditions you may have (e.g., cheers, games, photos, gifts or trading gear). Good luck, and please let USA Ultimate staff and other event organizers how it goes!
