Welcome

Welcome to the 2004 UPA Club Championships, the culmination of the UPA Club Series—the largest and most competitive Ultimate series in the world. Congratulations to those of you who are here to compete, and welcome to those of you who are here to help run the event or simply enjoy a weekend of incredible Ultimate action. There's going to be a lot going on this year, so here's a short overview of what you to expect.

The competition this year is going to be better than ever. There is incredible parity amongst the top teams, and the oddsmakers are in trouble this year. In the Open Division two-time defending UPA Champs Furious George finished 3rd in their region, while the Condors (a.k.a. Team USA) finished 2nd in theirs. Similar things are happening in the Women's Division, with defending UPA Champs Fury looking strong, but with a 2nd place finish at Regionals, certainly not unbeatable. In the Mixed Division, with the breakup of the 2002 and 2003 finalists, we're going to see some new faces on Sunday. The Refugees are back to defend in the Masters Division, but former champs Old & in the Way, KWA, and OLD SAG will be among many challengers for the title.

What else can you expect besides the action on the field? Check out the official tournament merchandise and other ultimate gear for sale at tournament central. Our food vendors will have great grub available so you don't ever have to leave the complex. Because the Saturday night party has been sparsely attended (due to stiff competition from the beach) we are turning Saturday evening into Happy Hour this year. So linger a little longer at the fields, grab some snacks, listen to some tunes, try to win a few prizes, and check out some pictures from the weekend. It'll be done early enough so you can get a late dinner and still have the whole night free. PLEASE be respectful of the establishment you are staying in, or you may risk losing the privilege for you or others to stay there in the future! Good work.

There are going to be several film crews at the event who will be producing videos covering the action from various angles. Check with the crews to find out what they are doing and when the videos will be available. And if you're interested in Ultimate coverage, find the Alumni tent and get a sneak preview of Ultimate: The First Four Decades, a coffee table book on the history of our sport.

And finally, speaking of the history of our sport, this year is a celebration of 25 years of the UPA. With that in mind, a great group of UPA Alumni has come out of the shadows to converge on the Championships and touch base with each other, the organization, and the sport as it is today. Stop by the Alumni tent to say hey to the people who laid the foundations for our sport.

Most importantly, enjoy yourselves, be respectful in everything you do on and off the field, and have a great weekend!

— Will Deaver, UPA Championship Director

Weekend Schedule

Please see the schedules on pages 10, 12, 14, and 16 for daily round times and field assignments.

All Day Thursday-Saturday

Rare and Collectable Ultra-Stars™ Silent Auction – Discraft has donated 10 very old and rare Ultra-Stars™ which can be seen at the Official Tournament Merchandise booth. The discs will be up for bid (write-in) from Thursday through Saturday with the highest bidder winning the opportunity to own the disc. The winning bid will be announced at the Tournament Happy Hour Saturday evening. All proceeds will go to the UPA Youth Program.

Thursday, October 28

9:30 AM–5:00 PM – Pool Play

4:00 PM – Beer at the Fields – Hang out for a cold one after the first day of pool play. Be sure to show your ID to the servers so you can get a wristband. Beer truck located near the pavilion.

Friday, October 29

9:30 AM–5:00 PM – Pool Play

2:30 PM – Beer at the fields – Grab a cold one while watching the Masters quarterfinals and/or the exciting play-in games in the other divisions.

Saturday, October 30

9:00 AM–3:30 PM – Elimination and Placement Rounds

1:00 PM – Beer at the fields – Grab some liquid refreshment when you're done playing. You deserve it. Watch the semis and Masters finals, as well as the placement games (which could be for a strength wildcard). Be sure to show your ID to the servers so you can get a wristband. Beer truck located near the pavilion.

1:15–4:15 PM – Women's, Open, and Mixed Semifinals – Some of the most exciting games at the tournament!

3:45 PM – Masters' Division Finals – Showcasing the best teams and players in the UPA's most experienced division. Masters spirit awards at half-time.

5:30–8:00 PM – Tournament Happy Hour at the Fields – Music, refreshments, snack food, pictures, and prizes under the big tent.

6:15 PM – Discraft Auction Winners – Winning bids for the rare and collectible discs auction will be announced.

6:30 PM – Discraft Trivia Contest – Come to the party and test your memory skills at the Discraft Ultimate Trivia Game. Pad Timmons from Discraft will be asking for volunteers to answer trivia questions on the past 25 years of Ultimate. Prizes and goodies will be awarded for correct answers.

7:00 PM – Tournament Slide Show – Check out pictures from the first three days of tournament action, courtesy of official tournament photographers Scobel Wiggins and Hart Matthews.

Sunday, October 31

9:00 AM, 11:45 AM, 2:30 PM – Women's, Open, and Mixed Finals – The best Ultimate each division has to offer. Be on hand during half-time and after the finals for the awards presentation, including team and individual Spirit Awards.

Tournament Staff

A lot of fine volunteers will be working hard this weekend to ensure that the tournament runs smoothly. Look for tournament staff in the forest green staff shirts, and if you have a specific concern, ask a staff person for one of the following key people. They'll be able to help you out.

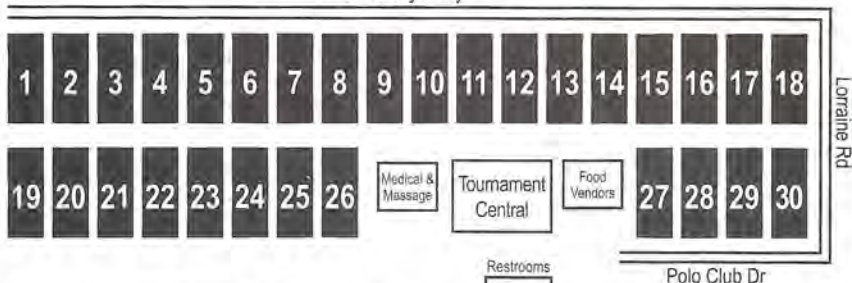

Logistics Coordinator – Tim Naylor
Competition Director – David Raffo
Volunteer Coordinator – Shiellah Quintos
Head Observer – Greg Connelly
Head Scorekeeper – Elizabeth Murray
Media Coordinator – Michael Degnan

UPA Headquarters Staff

- Michael Degnan, the UPA's new Director of Media and Communications, will be coordinating all media-related aspects of the tournament, including reporting, and photography for the website and UPA magazine.
- UPA Executive Director, Sandie Hammerly. Take a minute to touch base with her about how things are going with the UPA.
- UPA Championship Director Will Deaver will be playing with Boulder's Johnny Bravo. He's ultimately in charge of this tournament and all UPA Series events. Feel free to grab Will to talk about Series issues after the day's play. But remember, he's also a player at the biggest tournament of the year for him and his team.
- Kyle Weisbrod, UPA Director of Youth Development and UPA Membership/Outreach Director Melanie Byrd will also be playing, with Johnny Bravo and Rare Air, respectively. Both are interested in your ideas and comments for the organization. Again, time your discussions so that they don't interfere with their ability to focus on their play.
- Tim Doran, UPA Program Assistant will be working at the tournament, doing what he does best...which is a little bit of everything. Say hey to him at Registration or at the fields.
- Kitt Hodsdon, contract Information Systems Programmer, is working with the HQ staff on website and database projects. She'll be helping with score reporting. Let her know if you have ideas for the organization.

Field Map

University Pkwy

- No Glass!!!! This is important. We're at a national class polo facility. Some of these horses are worth more than your homes. If you are found on the fields with a glass container, you will be told to leave the Polo Club for the duration of the tournament.
- No Dogs! Leave your dogs at home. They can spook the horses, which could cause us to lose our privileges at the Polo Club.

Competition Rules

- All games (except finals) to 15, win by two, cap at 17. Finals to 17/19.
- Half-time is 10 minutes.
- Each team has two timeouts per half.
- Regardless of how many timeouts a team has used before overtime, during overtime each team has one timeout.
- Overtime: A game is in overtime if tied at one point less than original game total, and the winning score will exceed said game total. (E.g., in a game to 15 goals, overtime occurs when the score reaches 14-14 and the minimum winning score is determined to be 16.)
- Time-cap goes on at end of round time on schedule. Add two points to higher score after first score after time-cap. Play to that total. No more win by two.
- The time-cap does not affect timeouts.

Placement Game Rules (5-8 and 9-16 on Saturday)

For games that could affect the strength wildcard:

- If a game will determine a strength wildcard, or leads to a game that might determine a strength wildcard, it must be played. If a team still chooses to forfeit such a game, that team's region/division will not be eligible for any nationals' wildcards the following year (size, strength, growth), unless given a specific exception by the National Division Director.
- Special case: In the first round of the 5-8 bracket, if there are exactly two teams in contention for a strength wildcard, those teams will play each other in that first round regardless of the originally scheduled match-ups.

For games that do not affect the strength wildcard:

- If neither team wants to play a scheduled game that leads to another round (e.g., semis for the 5th, 9th, 13th brackets): Those two teams finish tied for the placement of the lower portion of their bracket and the other game is now for two higher spots. (E.g., in a 9-12 semi-final game, the two forfeiting teams would be tied for 11th and the other semi-final would become the game for 9/10.)
- If neither team wants to play a scheduled game that does not lead to another round: Both teams will finish tied for the higher placement, since they went out at the same time.
- If only one team wants to play a scheduled game that leads to another round (e.g., semis for the 5th, 9th, 13th brackets): The forfeiting team will finish at the bottom of its respective bracket (i.e., 8th, 12th or 16th).
- If only one team wants to play a scheduled game that does not lead to another round: The game will be treated as a loss for the forfeiting team and a win for the other team, with final placement reflecting that outcome.

Medical/Safety Information

Athletic Trainers – Will be available 2 hours prior to the start of play, through the end of the day, to tape and provide advice and injury assessments.

EMT – An EMT will be on duty at the medical tent during all games.

Lightning Guidelines

- Event staff will communicate with players and spectators via PA system and field marshals equipped with radios that there is a lightning danger. Play will be stopped and everyone should seek shelter. Safe shelter for players and spectators at the Polo Club includes any fully enclosed vehicle with a hard top and closed windows. It is not the rubber tires that protect the occupants from a lightning strike, but the hard metal framework which dissipates the electric charge around the vehicle. It is important to not touch the sides of the vehicle.
- Event staff will use the Flash-to Bang method to determine when to send people to shelter. By the time the Flash-to-Bang count has reached 30 seconds all individuals should be in a safe shelter location.
- If you can't get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects, and water. Assume a crouch position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.
- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe if the person has followed other safety guidelines.
- Event staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.

Sideline Safety

- Players and spectators should make every effort to keep objects—including, but not limited to, bags, strollers, chairs, coolers and tents—as far away from the playing field as possible.
- If a player feels that an object on the sideline is not safe, s/he should inform Event Staff and should refrain from playing until s/he is satisfied that safe conditions have been established.
- The UPA and Event Staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators from on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of the UPA or Event Staff, unsafe for players, staff, or spectators.

Special Thanks to...

- UPA HQ Staff – Melanie, Sandie, Michael, Kyle, Tim, Will, and Kitt
- National Directors – David Raflo, DeAnna Ball, George Cooke, and Pete Giusti
- All Regional and Sectional Coordinators
- All tournament volunteers, and anyone else who helped with the tournament

Spirit Awards

Ultimate has traditionally relied upon a spirit of sportsmanship which places the responsibility for fair play on the player himself. Highly competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of the bond of mutual respect between players, adherence to the agreed-upon rules of the game, or the basic joy of play.

— UPA 10th Edition Rules of Ultimate

Team Awards – Following every game, each team will be asked to rate its opponent on a scale of 1-5, with 5 being the rating for the highest level of sportsmanship. These ratings will be averaged and the team in each division with the highest rating will be awarded the Team Spirit Award after their division's finals. Thanks to The Wrightlife for donating the team Spirit Award trophies!

Individual Awards – Teams will be each be asked to nominate a player from their own team who they feel displays the highest level of spirit. The definition of spirit is up to each team, but should include elements of sportsmanship, leadership, perseverance, fire, etc. Choose the person whose attitude you wish other people on your team would emulate and who other players off your team admire. Individual spirit winners will receive a medal and customized FlashFlight discs courtesy of Internet Disc Shoppe and FlashFlight.

Peter Farricker Spirit of the Game Award – The spirit award in the Open Division is called the Farricker Spirit Award, named for Peter Farricker, a player who embodied Spirit of the Game (SOTG) to those who knew him and those who played with or against him. This award is given to a player in the Open Division of the UPA's Championship Series adjudged to have exhibited personal responsibility, integrity, and fairness combined with a high standard of playing ability. Each qualifying Open team nominates one player from their own team as the person who best represents the Spirit of the Game. At the Open Championship, each nominee is honored with a disc, pin or set of Mardi Gras beads. Our hope is that the people wearing the Mardi Gras beads will be connected to Pete, each other, and the Spirit of the Game, and become role models for their teammates and opponents. A selection committee watches the Open semis and selects one of the four semifinal nominees as the winner. The award will be presented at the conclusion of the Open finals. Previous winners include Moses Rifkin of DoG and Andy Crews of the Condors.

Kathy Pufahl Spirit of the Game Award – The introduction of the Kathy Pufahl Cande Spirit of the Game Award will build upon the foundations of SOTG that are reflected in the Farricker Spirit Award: ability, fairness, and integrity. The Pufahl Award will build upon that foundation by also recognizing those individuals who give back to our sport. The award is given to the player(s) adjudged to have exhibited personal responsibility, integrity, and selfless contribution to Ultimate, combined with a high standard of playing ability. Each qualifying team nominates one player from their team as the person who best represents the spirit of the game and has contributed in a substantial way to their ultimate community. At the Club Championships, each of the 16 nominees is honored with a disc and a memento reflective of Kathy's love of horticulture. A selection committee will review the nomination documents, observe the nominees play, determine the four semifinalists, and then select one of the four semifinal nominees as the winner.

escape with as many of them as possible. Carving three canoes out of Matapalo trunks with his bare hands, he led a daring midnight escape with twenty natives and braved the gulf waters until arriving just north of present-day Galveston, Texas.

Having imposed death on any deserters, several prominent families pledged unending pursuit until Bravo and his band were found and executed. Jorge el Furioso, Carlos Salmon, Juan de Perro, Vicente Mermelada, and Martin Condor, among others, hounded them into the mainland until the tiny band found refuge near the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. There, Joao changed his name to Johnny Bravo and resolved that his life's work would be to bring justice to the oppressors and protect the oppressed. Many believe the Johnny Bravo name dead. No known direct descendants exist, they say. He's been written as myth, fiction. Perhaps. But they say in Colorado a strange people live, with Taíno features, with an Arawak heart. And with a determination unrivaled, and a steady eye toward justice, with steely resolve.

KAOS

Santa Cruz, CA

Kaos started in '02 as a "locals only" Santa Cruz based team. We wanted to compete at a high level, but retain a life (read: practice less, surf more). We sought a mix of older players and youngins — kept it simple, played hard, and had fun. This freed-up some of the basically retired local legends and ex-Stugs livin' in the Bay... the college guys said: "um...o.k." We stole our name from the "legendary" '80's SC Kaos squad, and agreed to put three years in...did well stickin' to the formula for awhile, but Ultimate teams are dynamic...guys come and go...facing '04 we found our pool of dedicated/skilled athletes dwindling...flexible thinking was in order (read: Hagar moved—we're screwed if we don't come up with something quick). We had always carried South Bay players on our roster anyway (they carried us?...so tossin' the "local" deal seemed prudent...go with good/dedicated/cool guys from wherever they hailed—yep, even if they had graduated from Stanford, Humboldt, or UCSB—I know, I know—but what are you gonna do? Open tryouts ensued...we were lucky to land great talent from a Valhalla team that seemed to have run its course, some new college boys from The Farm and SC, and some hungry co-ed guys that we were able to lure back to Open Ultimate with pictures of surfer chicks in two-pieces... (they're suckers for that stuff). Anyway... great group of guys...we are lucky and fortunate to have come together this year and look forward to competing at the Big Show and beyond.

Machine

Chicago, IL

Machine 2004 is making the 21st appearance at the UPA Club Championships for the Chicago Open Elite team, including a run of 19 consecutive appearances from 1982-2000.

After failing to qualify for Nationals in 2003, a winter of discontent led to new leadership, new blood and new systems. A long year of rebuilding has positioned us well for the fall and we are looking forward to returning to Sarasota.

Finalist, Cooler Classic XVI

Finalist, Chicago Heavyweight Championships

Roster: 24

New Players in 2004: 9

Former Teams: 8 (3 Marlin Lunch, Big Ass Truck, Chain Lightning, Clapham Ultimate, Kaze, Proberomys Patterson, Stonecutters, University of Chicago)

Leadership: 5 (Callaway, Felchle, Ferrari, Meisenhelder, Yamaguchi)

Age Range: Veho Tilcomb (18) — John Hock (40)

Height Range: Kevin Cho (5' 7") — Jeff Mercer (6' 5")

2004 Season: March 20, 2004 — October 31, 2004

Final Cuts: August 17, 2004

Jerseys: 3 (Black, Blue, White)

Pike

Princeton, NJ

Although New Jersey has served as an important setting in the history of ultimate, its contribution to the national club scene was long hindered by the lack of a true urban center. After years of fielding hungry teams but failing to advance beyond Regionals, a core group of players from Havoc (NJ) combined with Black & Gold (Pittsburgh, PA) in 2000, seeking to forge an elite team. The team's performance that season yielded promising signs of things to come. Re-named Pike in 2001, the team retained a core group of Pittsburgh players but reverted to a largely NJ-based roster. Its 4th-place finish at Regionals was a new high-water mark for this generation of players. In 2002, Pike welcomed a group of talented players from Philadelphia along with several Jersey boys returning to their roots. This team took another step forward by securing a bid to Nationals, bridging a 20-year gap with the NJ teams that competed for titles in the early 1980's. Since then, Pike has continued to expand and develop its talent base by drawing players from across NJ, PA, MD, and NYC. Despite changes in personnel, the team has kept a firm grip on its core philosophies and strategies, and used each new season to build seamlessly on the previous one. No longer flying under the radar, Pike is making its third consecutive trip to the UPA Championships. With its deepest, most experienced roster yet, Pike arrives in Florida with its sights set firmly on the big prize.

Ring of Fire

Raleigh/Durham, NC

Ring of Fire has had a storied history in high level ultimate reaching back to its first year in 1989. Ring has qualified for Nationals 12 of the past 13 years. After losing several of last year's stars, Ring has benefited from the return of Brian Lang and added offensive firepower with Jon Boiling. We have also added to our defensive talent with college standouts Josh Berkowitz and Jesse Overby. This year we won the Furniture City Classic, and attended ECC in Seattle and the Chicago Heavyweight Championships. With a re-tooled offense, and a more experienced defensive lineup, Ring is ready to bring its best game to the tournament. Ring of Fire is proud to represent North Carolina and the Mid-Atlantic region, and is looking forward to this year's Championships. If you are interested in seeing some exciting and creative play, make sure to get a look at Ring of Fire. It should be easy to spot the "Ring Nation", doing what we do, in our traditional uniforms custom made by VC Ultimate.

Sockeye

Seattle, WA

Meet the NEW Seattle Sockeye! New clean buffed shining spotless and covered in mud, risen from the ashes of Fish brothers before! This year, Sockeye's got new faces, new captains, new offense, new process, and one angry cow with a VISION! A vision of WHAT COULD BE!! And that vision has become a REALITY that gobbles up REALTY inside of your head! WITNESS!!

Witness the finest collection of assietes to ever wear R-E-D!! We've got fast guys, faster guys, and the fastest guys! We've got rookies who refuse to shut up and veterans with one more thing to say! We play without fear and without regret, our jockstraps four-sheets-to-the-wind, our heads on FIRE and our asses catching! TRUTH!!

And now, with the UPA Championships looming, with Gay College expanding and the moral infrastructure of our team increasingly bankrupt, we are led to ponder... WILL this be the greatest Sockeye team ever? WILL Ben ever find a live duck and a dead beaver? WILL the FUNTA rise again? What the SH is MC talking about? In times like these, the ONLY certainty is that it's ALL ABOUT US! YES!! Our year, our season, our game, our victory. We're a greedy bunch of bastards and we're coming to get you!!

Sincerely,

Seattle Sockeye 2004

Sub Zero

Minneapolis, MN

Haggard (adj.) 1. Appearing worn and exhausted; gaunt. Ex. At the end of 5 universe paint games, the look of Sub Zero was haggard. Or For someone so haggard, that bushy haired kid can sure throw. (n.) 2. An adult hawk captured for training. Ex. Paco is a haggard haggard. Or Those young haggards Sub Zero has are really playing well.

Team Bios – Women's Division

Backhoe

Triangle Area, NC

Here we hoe again... That's right, the North Carolina women's team is back to being hoers. Alias '03 is back to its Hoerigian name and with the refresh in identity comes a whole new attitude, style, and flava. Expect to see the talented veteran hoers leading the hoe-pack and the superstar rookie hoers making a statement that will leave the crowds hoein' for more (we play to entertain...goin' horizontal, jumpin' to the hoezone layer). Brian Dobyns returns as the dedicated coach and has shaped Backhoe into an aggressive, cohesive team that is shooting to improve on a 2003 quarterfinals appearance. Backhoe traveled to Colorado-hoe and Seattle this year, experimenting with new hoefenses and defenses. The experiments have paid off—finishing first in their section and region, the hoers are ready for Saras-hoe-ta. It's Hoeficial, THE HOES ARE BACK!!!!!!

Bnogo

Washington, DC

Good morning. It's nice to be here in Sarasota, Florida. We are Bnogo, and we want to be your candidate for America's team. We're here to talk with you a little about the qualities we believe are necessary to be America's team. We feel it is our patriotic duty to fight for those things Americans value most dearly: an aggressive offensive strategy designed to protect your freedom. We realize that freedom fighting is hard work, but we are a bunch of hard-working folks, so never fear. We will smoke out the enemy using our vast arsenal, from the B1 bomber to our state-of-the-art Asian numbering system, in order to protect you from the hidden weapons of our adversaries. Our Frodos stand alert, always ready to employ their magical angry midget powers. Most importantly, we understand that if increasing the L factor is really what it takes to win, then we'll get the job done.

Remember, it's not our fault we can party with the best of them. Our ho-bags in the trenches have achieved a 90% success rate, and we vow to play as many breast-centric games as necessary to reach our goal. Our opponents will rue the day they try to undermine our commitment toward finishing what we started. Don't underestimate the power of the Badonk-a-donk. We believe this is the right tournament, in the right city, at the right time for Bnogo to just its way into your hearts and minds. God bless America. God bless Bnogo.

Brute Squad

Cambridge, MA

Before his now famous quotation—"Anybody want a peanut?"—Andre the Giant was just a simple boy frolicking in the mountains of southern France. His parents, Boris and Marion, and his four siblings were of average size. Andre, a member of the original Brute Squad, suffered from a scromegaly, a disease that leads to hyperproduction of growth hormones. This "Monster Elfin Tower" was first seen by the Canadian wrestler Edouard Carpentier, who led him down the yellow brick road to fortune and fame.

Andre's heart may have been as big as a Volkswagen but it dwarfs in comparison to the heart with which the 2004 Brute Squad plays the sport of ultimate. Brute, spreading the love for the third year in a row, has a few shining additions to the roster including two elfin amazing coaches and one inflatable monkey. Though some of the names have changed, the goals are always the same: to leave ourselves behind and become part of something greater; to play with love and to love each other. Andre the Giant, known to us as "Fazzki" the lovable Giant in The Princess Bride, is just part of what inspires us. A rigorous training session of sack races and Salline Olympics have prepared us for our little trip down the Yellow Brick Road. We are really elfin pumped to be here.

Rise Up Brute. 17 on 7. Go Brute or Go Home.

Clutch

Ann Arbor, MI

Clutch was created in 1997 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Michigan now has two women's club teams, Strut and Clutch, and a strong college women's team (Flywheel). In 2004, Clutch made their first quarterfinals appearance, finishing 12th from a 16 seed. We see it as a challenge each year to set the record for upsets. Talented and determined rookies, a hard-working group of returners, and the hot-pink love that keeps the Clutch machine lubed up and purring has brought us back to Florida for our fifth consecutive Nationals. We're ready to show you what we can do on the field (and you won't want to miss what we can do on the dance floor). Always a show, we play hard, smart, together and have fun. Clutch wants you to know that you've been pre-approved for a pleasurable experience.

Collide

Columbus, OH

Collide is currently in its second year as a team. Though we are a new team, we have many experienced players. Collide comes from all over Ohio: Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Columbus. Because of the distance, we don't have a lot of practices—three total this year. However, we have competed in a lot of tournaments in 2004 and we have used those tournaments as building blocks for the fall series. We traveled to compete at Terminus, TUT, Boston, Derby Bowl, Motown Throwdown, and Chicago Heavyweights. When we could, we exposed ourselves to the rigor of playing in the elite division. Having made it to the UPA Championships makes up for the battering we faced on occasion and now we are ready to experience Ultimate at its greatest.

Electric Mayhem

New Brunswick, NJ

Composed of women from New Jersey, New York and Philadelphia, Electric Mayhem has grown from its initial dedicated savage seven to a national-level competitor over the last four years. With 23 on the roster this year, we have added strength and depth to our line-up. We are a group of women who hang, both on and off the field, and keep the spirit alive while playing all day and partying all night. While competitive at regionals in 2003, we finished 4th in the region and sadly missed out on the Sarasota sun and spirit. This year though, we are ready for the fun and competition that the national tournament has to offer us girls from the land of Bon Jovi and bad hair.

Fury

Bay Area, CA

The three Furies of ancient Greek mythology were known as the avenging goddesses who sought justice. Just as the Furies relentlessly hounded transgressors, pursuing their victims from city to city without rest or pause, FURY never gives up when chasing plastic, whether in the USA or across the world in Finland. While the Greeks were so terrified of the Furies that people would not refer to them by name and offered sacrifices to the altars of the gods, FURY's four-person cup is so feared by teams going to Sarasota that many are praying for no wind this year. Spectators should watch closely to catch a glimpse of the Furies' wings as FURY players lay out with reckless abandon for the disc, whether they are on offense or defense. With the tireless determination of the team's namesake, FURY is going to Sarasota with the sole purpose of defending its national title and is ready for any battle of epic proportions.

Lady Godiva

Boston, MA

Lady Godiva was formed in Boston in 1987 and is one of the longest running teams in women's Ultimate history. Over the years, Godiva has developed a disciplined style of play that has earned the Ladies a berth in the finals 13 times in the past 16 years and brought home nine UPA titles. This year, Godiva returns to the UPA Club Championships with its tried and true combination of precision offense and team defense, and intensity and experience.

Nemesis

Chicago, IL

Team formed in: 1964—yes, it's our 20th anniversary. Cash gifts are accepted.

Ozone

Atlanta, GA
 This year's generation of Ozone includes women from Athens, Atlanta, and Chantanooga. We range in ages from 16 to 39. We have students, teachers, engineers, a lawyer, an accountant, and an acupuncturist. We are a group of dedicated women willing to sacrifice our bodies and our time for a sport and a team we all love.

Our purpose is to play Ultimate at the highest competitive level and to achieve high performance. We play for team experience, camaraderie, and the love of the game. We wish to play to the best of our abilities, grow, and improve as individuals and as a team. Our rules include respect for teammates and self, trust, commitment, and above all, fun. Our satisfaction will come from team cohesion and learning, confidence, improvement, and of course, winning.

We know that the responsibility for a successful season lies not only in ourselves and our teammates, but also in our support systems outside of Ozone. Without our families and friends standing behind us and cheering us on, all the sacrifice and work would not be nearly as fulfilling.

Prime

Vancouver, BC
 From early May to late October, from Warm Up to Cool Down, from Happy Kitty to Angry Cat... united from Vancouver to Surrey, and Finland to Florida, Prime sees no task too big, no detail too small.

2004: Prime's year to set the loftiest goal of all, THE DOUBLE PEAK. They want what few teams have dared to dream: both the World and UPA Club Championship titles in the same year.

After successfully defending their World title in Finland this August, remaining undefeated over seven days of play, Prime is in Sarasota to finish what they started. This year, it's Prime Time. Knock knock ... SLAM!!

Rare Air

Boulder, CO
 Simon says take four teachers, six students, two mamas, and nine hard-working women from the front range (and western slope) of Colorado. Simon says get a coach. Simon says move away from home, drive four hours to practice, do track workouts, push your teammates, clear hard, hit your continue, and—for the love of all that is holy—remember the progression. Sprain your ankle. Simon says get fly new jerseys and shorts. You have to get blacks. Simon says remember your Gummi weenies, your whip, bondage weekend, clothing-optional hot tub, car bombs, Pringles trivia, and what happens on the count of "five." Reply to list. Be a lard, don't out hard. Simon says read your playbook, sign it, take notes, don't bring it to tournaments! Don't forget to vote Bush. Simon says "SICK!" Simon says don't forget your mocha. Go to Starbucks. Simon says love your Air Males, bite it on the frosty field, and force crotch. Simon says blow off work, blow off school, blow off your friends and family, terrorize your credit card, barely make your flight, and go to work hungover. Simon says it's worth it. Simon says remember the lent pole, forget your fear, and bring it just one more notch. Simon says run it, boost it, live it, lay it, drink it, break it, chase it and do it together.

Riot

Seattle, WA
 This is Riot's fifth season. Since we came together as a team, we have had 13 major tournament victories including 2002 Club Worlds. We were tournament champions this year at Flower Bowl, Solstice, Emerald City Classic, and Northwest Regionals. We have a big roster and half of us have been on the team from the beginning. We train together four days a week and travel to tournaments, yet our players still find time to work, teach, study, coach, volunteer and have a good time in their lives. There is no place we would rather be right now than in Sarasota for the Championship Series!

Now it is time to plug our generous sponsors. Mary Ann Fordyce of Windermere Real Estate, she is the first name in buying or selling property in Seattle. G.A.I.A. we love the mango. Dr. Lawrence Holland, thanks for all the surgeries. Singer Design, your work is brilliant man. DiscNW, thanks for making Seattle a great place to play ultimate!

Safari

San Diego, CA
 Of all the wonders in athletics, Safari is perhaps the most remarkable. Not just because the team claims to shut you down with jungle cat moves, and drink your blood in the quivering firelight of their ultimate fearlessness, because big deal, every megalomaniac thinks this of him or herself and when sunlight calls their bluff, it reveals but another team with a bent for a trophy. Safari is not as fearless as most Nationals contenders in truth, and its teammates will, after any raucous noise such as a car backfiring, leap directly into the arms of the person they are conversing with. Margaret Mead said, "People think this team was named after the San Diego Zoo, and that simply is not true. The appellation in fact was created to celebrate the many species of wildlife lurking about in the jungles of the team member's nether-regions, as well as the beastlike hosts themselves."

Needless to say Safari women were the targets of exaggerated observation. Unfortunately these remarks hit on target more than the victims' hammer-throws. And yet Safari leaves teams tinged with a feeling of what Jean-Paul Sartre is so fond of referring to as 'nothingness' where opponents are immediately struck by the profound sense of despair, loss, reminiscent of the letters sent by German soldiers at Stalingrad. Perhaps you should have stayed in the jeep, now listening to the hungry calls, heartbeats tracking heartbeat, carrying your weight in game...

Schwa

Oregon/Washington
 The story is this: every spring Schwa is reincarnated as...Schwa. This year's team has some older roots and a bunch of new buds, a combination bound to yield—dare we say it—a rather spectacular October bloom at Nationals. But enough about the flowers, Schwa's greatest challenge this year has been consistency—sometimes even Schwabies themselves wondered what just hit them (or didn't)—but that always made for more interesting Sundays. And as Colorado and Blaine can attest, Schwa has almost always burst out on Sundays.

So don't turn your back on this backdoor creeper of team. Keep an eye on G-string streaking, or J-mono spreading whatever it is she's got. Never eat a bowl of Chowda or Yorkshire pudding, especially when served by Sir Edmund. If you don't know who George is, you're a gonner, and if you chomp on a T-bone offered by J-dog who's in cahoots with Hamm, you've been beat. When Nancy Nancy saunters by, expect an ultimate prediction from Amy the economist, like how you're about to trip on Bre-Juv's limbs and wither. Not done yet? The Kidd smiles nice, but she's a feisty one on the field. And Dietzman votes with all her might, especially when VK feeds her a line of inspiration or El makes a cut while canning or Freshman finally graduates. What's that sound? It's the siren Birdsong, and the terpreess Bobanna, and they've planted one hell of team. It's time for the harvest.

Zanzara

Houston, TX
 Zanzara, est. June 2002 in the Lone Star State, is a young dynamic team with a unique sense of unity. Bursting onto the scene in our first year, we finished 3rd in the southern region. Since then, the team has been bounded by tragedy and everywhere we go, we play for ourselves, each other and our fallen teammate Laura. In 2004, Zanzara has been buzzing around, giving strong performances at Boston, Choptank and Chicago. This is our first time to the show, and we're coming to Florida to play. A lot of hard work (in the Texas sweltering heat) has been put into this team and we're ready to demonstrate that Green is Money.

Team Bios – Mixed Division

Annapolis All-Stars

Annapolis, MD

"If you build it, they will come" . . . The Annapolis All-Stars were born in Pat and Emily's kitchen in February 2004. Recognizing the wealth of dispersed talent in the D.C., Baltimore, and Annapolis area, founders Mark Deteman, Emily Paterson, and Pat Paterson decided to fill the void by creating a team founded on two philosophies: winning and fun. First to sign on were veteran players Alex "Boat" Tiersky and Ben Snyder, and Boat's wife, former Godiva national champion Anouk Savineau. From this core of talented players grew an extremely fun, competitive team.

Molded around the two philosophies of winning and fun, the roster developed into a formidable combination of offensive handlers, tall defenders, enthusiastic newcomers, and savvy veterans. The team's debut landslide victory at the Beth Coleman Invitational at Cape Henlopen confirmed what many suspected: the All-Stars were a force to be reckoned with! The team ramped up for the fall with impressive performances (and small numbers) at Choptank and Chicago Heavyweight Championships. When the entire squad gathered for the first time at Regionals, the results proved the All-Stars could go the distance. As the team prepares for the UPA Club Championships, two objectives remain at the forefront: winning and more fun! With over 80 years of combined Nationals experience on the team and an arsenal of offensive plays and defensive tactics, the team has its eyes on the prize. At Sarasota, the All-Stars will prove to others what it already knows: all roads to Nationals go through Annapolis!!!

B+

Washington, DC

B+ has been around since 2000, when it was a team of collage freshmen losing a lot of games by a lot of points. We have existed as essentially a pickup team of friends until this year. We are based mostly in Washington, D.C. but also have a notable contingent in North Carolina (from where the team originally hails). This year, B+ remained a team of friends and a team of geographic diversity while also managing to get more competitive. We lost three key women and one key male but filled their openings with equally strong players. We are still young (average age: 23), but have aged enough to be wiser without being slower. We like to play D but are smart enough to know that good offense is pretty sweet too. We are also smart enough to know that being in Sarasota for the third time is also pretty sweet, and we'd like to make the most of it.

Bad Larry

Denver, CO

Bad Larry suffered a mild case of gout after finishing 11th last year. Our extremities were swollen and discolored; it hurt so bad we could barely walk. Larry was unaware that gout was carried by the Sarasota winds.

We spent the winter regrouping in the icy Colorado mountains with acupuncture, dog sledding, igloo construction, Clorox hot tubbing and a little procreation to boot. We shed some dead weight and added some live weight. We read US Weekly for the latest trends and fads, including the proliferation of "Sports" in the greater Denver area. Refreshed and fully vaccinated, Larry emerged from its winter re-Cooper-ation, quit its day job and began traveling the world looking for adventures like Ricky Williams with a slightly smaller bankroll (though funds are up something like eight percent now that our original website is back up). We visited exotic locales like Colorado Springs, Seattle, Breckenridge, Boulder, Santa Cruz and the Mecca of our spiritual regeneration, the EconoLodge in San Bernardino. Picture Andy Dufresne's crawl to freedom in Shawshank and you'll have a good idea of our Regionals experience, both on the field and off. A Judy Bloom-like awakening had occurred.

Final preparations for Sarasota included practicing break mark throws in the jet wash of DC-10s, classes on the proper use of resin bags and the Third Annual Bad Larry Accuracy and Longest Puller Contest, won by Team We Rule and ChugDaddy, respectively. Bad Larry looks forward to vastly underperforming its seed yet again this year.

Brass Monkey

Bay Area, CA

Brass Monkey evolved from initial banter about a new Bay Area team into a tale springing from 60+ ultimate players. Six months later we have clawed our way out of the NW Region and are looking forward to our first National tournament. True to our name, everyone on the team is a few generations closer to the ape family than the average population. Look for those long arms to get more handblocks and layouts Ds than any other team at Nationals.

Dave Owen, Maria Stokes, and Matt Ruby provide the cumulative brain power of a human kind, but seeing how it's the best that we can manage, we use their diagrams for all of our defense and offensive sets. Nate and Jenny Miller are our silverbacks, and as such they bring calm and order derived from their previous experiences with BRU. Jeff Marvan and Mike Margulies provide the emotional bonding for our excitable troop. Wendy Chan and Will Lavery got us to the UPA Championships by utilizing their opposable thumbs to the Mth degree.

BAM BAM BAM, MONKEY MONKEY MONKEY.

Chad Larson Experience

Ames, IA

In the Spring of 2003, a few young seedheads from the Flatlands Cornfield Jungle decided that the winds were ripe for creating and nurturing a unique, organic beast of an Ultimate squad that would imbibe talent from all corners of the vast Midwest landscape with blatant disregard to central proximity. Free from the caged existence of "organized practice", the creature was able to mutate, adapt, and thrive in the competitive Ultimate Kingdom. The rapidly growing organism immediately began laying waste to the hinterland, terrorizing prey from Boulder to Naperville, and absorbing constituents from beyond its birthplace, into the deep forests of St. Louis. Soon, the life form better known as CLX found itself on the scent trail of the prey it had sought since spring, but was waylaid on its way to the feast.

A winter of fitful slumber passed, the creature emerged from the ice, and was starving. Further the beast stretched - north to Minneapolis, even extending an osmotic finger south to Lawrence, and enveloping an unexpected morsel from the Old West. The beast had now come of age, and was ready to dance The Worm. Armed with candy cigarettes, a rock of mystical origin, and a coat of iris-colored fur, CLX again picked up the scent it had lost a year earlier, this time with a sharper scent of salty Gull breezes blowing through gentle southern palms. The creature was driven to the edge of the jungle, and, unblinking, steadily lurched forward to claim its birthright.

Drive Thru Liquor

Fort Collins, CO

Drive Thru Liquor: OPEN IN SARASOTA! Started years ago (nobody really knows when and a lot of us weren't even alive yet) by alternative sports guru Holly Wright, Gus Goodbody and their soft-spoken yet punch packing cohort Phil Polzer, Drive Thru Liquor has scratched and clawed its way up from a co-ed series pee-on to a National caliber super threat. This team has caused their opponents headache after headache by continually winning games nobody thought they should. At the 2003 Southwest Regional tournament, DTL was forced to win six straight games just to win the back door. They did it and then went on to finish an unlikely 7th at Nationals. After getting crushed twice by Bad Larry in this year's Rocky Mountain Sectionals, they went on to go undefeated at Regionals without letting any team score more than seven on them. This diesel-fueled band of Ultimate nobodies and delusional pseudo-athletes is powered by relentless conditioning (led by real-athlete Jee Lee), heart, desire, and a passionate love for Marco Polo. They are a team made up of a robotic nerd, 2 Nebraskaans, a receiver with a pacemaker, a poker addict, a big mouthed Cuban, a Carolina native who still believes the south will rise again, an lby, a hippy EMT, a hairy 25 year old who looks like he's 40, and about 20 other players with one goal in mind... a National Championship. Well that, and modeling careers, but that's beside the point. Just be afraid, be very afraid when your opponent from across the field belts out in unison "Drive Thru Liquor... OPEN ON SUNDAY!" You just might lose that game... or you just might have a good time playing them. Either way, everybody wins.

Duff

Denver/Boulder, CO

Homer rides along on Lisa's bike, trying not to think about beer. He sees a Duff billboard of a scantily clad woman next to a beer bottle that reads "You know you want it" and Homer turns sharply to avoid looking at it. He stops at a railroad crossing, where he sees that the train rolling past is carrying several boxcars worth of Duff. The wheels seem to be saying "Chug-a-lug, chug-a-lug, chug-a-lug" . . . Homer turns away from the railroad and bikes straight into an empty can of Duff, which launches him off his bike looking skyward. A zeppelin flies overhead, with a marquee reading "Surrender to Duff."

Holes & Poles

Baton Rouge, LA

Holes & Poles was formed in the winter of 1995 when a group of 5 women invited 2 men to join them at a men's "Savage 7" tournament in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The team continued to play at this annual Savage 7 tourney and when Coed/Mixed Ultimate hit the national scene, Holes & Poles began to compete across the country.

Among us, we represent a variety of Ultimate experiences. Some of us began playing 20 years ago when Ultimate was very young, while others are relatively new to the sport. Our team is made up of an extended family of children, spouses and friends. We are truly a family team. Our strengths are that we love playing ultimate, playing hard D, and taking other teams behind the woodshed. We know how to have a good time and rise to the occasion when it's time to TCB.

Our 2004 season has seen some personnel changes. We lost a few longtime friends and added some new faces to the squad. Just as in previous years, there has been an emphasis on our mini-camp practices as opposed to attending many tournaments throughout the season. These practices have been events as we have had to travel to a central location just to get together; our team is scattered throughout the states that make up the Gulf Coast Section plus a few others. After claiming the South Regional crown, we are peaking and coming together when it counts!

Hot Action

Minneapolis, MN

"Hello everybody and how do you do
We've got a Hot Action Jam and here's what we do
Huck, huck to the beat ya'll
Cut, cut down the field ya'll"

We travel to the UPA Club Championships this fall representing a strong, spirited and competitive mixed ultimate community that has seen significant growth in the last two years. Hot Action was founded in 1999. Four straight Central Regionals finals appearances (2001-2004); Club Championships appearances in 2001 and 2002.

The defining characteristic of our team year in and year out has been UNITY! Whether it's playing on the field, composing cheers, representing at the party, traveling far and wide, playing every goofy disc-related game known, Hot Action is unified! We're just like a big, happy, dysfunctional family. So as October comes to a close, the sun sets at 6:00 pm and the Minnesota air grows crisp. We hear the wind whispering the promises of a five-month winter freeze! Everyone knows we like our action "Hot, damn Hot!" ... So it looks as if a migration is in order. Here we come: "...like a bolt from the sky..." looking to heat up our action in the Sarasota sun.

"... Bam! It's HOT in here!
There must be some ACTION in the atmosphere!"

Puppet Regime

New York, NY

In response to great upheaval in the New York co-ed community at the turn of the 21st century a tremendous hue and cry went up from the people, demanding strong leadership, genuine cooperation, and a continuation of a long tradition of ultimate excellence. Puppet Regime is a rejection of those demands.

By centralizing power in the hands of the few and serving at the back and call of large overseas empires, Puppet Regime has managed to develop excellent sports and rural agriculture programs, while largely losing touch with the realities of an increasingly complex global environment. This is Puppet Regime's 109th trip to the UPA Club Championships.

Red Fish Blue Fish

Bay Area, CA

RFBF brought back all but three members of its 5th place 2003 UPA Championship team. We added a few new faces and brought back a number of familiar ones to round out our roster and to provide extra depth.

Our season was highlighted with tournament wins at DUI, Cal States, Shazam Invitational, and Stanford Coed Classic. We also made the finals of Kleinman, Sectionals, and Regionals, missing the finals of a tournament just once. We are hoping to continue our success at our sixth appearance at the UPA Championships.

Shazam

Seattle, WA

Chosen from among all others by the immortal elders—Solomon, Hercules, Athena, Zeus, Achilles, and Mercury—Billy Batson and his mentor travel the highways and byways of the land on a never-ending mission: to right wrongs, develop understanding, and to seek justice for all. In time of dire need, young Billy has been granted the power by the immortals to summon awesome forces at the utterance of a single word—SHAZAM!—a word which transforms him in a flash into the mightiest of mortal beings: Captain Marvel!

Worshipping their immortal idols—Spirit, Hustle, Athletism, Zsa Zsa, AC/DC, and Mix-a-lot—a group of Seattle women and men made a startling discovery in the dark winter of 2002. At the utterance of a single word—SHAZAM!—the young team, led by kindly mentor Dr. Finn and the mysterious Miss Erickson, now summons awesome powers: to throw lightning bolts into the wind, run faster than a speeding bullet, and unleash death-defying D's from Puget Sound to Sarasota Bay.

Unassuming B-girls and B-boys by day, the young superheroes are in their third year of gonging evil wherever it appears. It's hard work. We've seen it on TV.

Six Trained Monkeys

Boston, MA

We and six trained monkeys could do better than this.

Soul Patrol

Macon, GA

Soul Patrol qualified for the UPA Club Championships for its first time this year. We have yet to win a tournament, but would be content to win just one out of the series. Our team story is one of ingenuity and irony. We put the "I" in team. We will not be satisfied until we win both the popular and the electoral pools this year. We seek to disenfranchise others.

Our players hail from the fine metropolis of Mauglantia, Georgia, located somewhere between Macon, Augusta and the capital. We head to Florida to get out of the heat. When we're not having babies, we're practicing medicine. When we're not medicated, we play doctor.

Soul Patrol's patron saint is James Brown. Our 360 degree pivot is second to none. We exude rhythm and flow, so watch your feet. We're prone to fits of apoplexy, but all in the name of demonic possession. If the disc don't fly right, it's our fault. We get down... sometimes out of control, but we'll groove on back... we're the Soul Patrol. Good luck everyone!

Uncivil Union

Burlington, VT

In 2002 Uncivil Union was born in a back room at Evergreen Eddy's, a now-defunct bar outside of Burlington, after a rousing summer league practice. The same potent combination of great play and fantastic spirit continues to guide the team today. UU swept through Sectionals and the first day of Regionals. Perhaps they stayed up too late on Saturday at an Irish pub to win their first two games on Sunday, but the third time was the charm to get us our second trip to Florida. With our 27-person roster, we look forward to having plenty of subs during the hot days of play in Florida. And since we have a few more words, we'd like to thank all the teams in the New England for excellent play at Sectionals and Regionals.

Universe

Northfield, MN

Today you're going to learn a very important lesson—the lesson of how the universe began. Now, does anybody know the true story of creation? "I KNOW, I KNOW! PICK ME, PICK MEEEEEE!"

"My goodness, we are eager today, Seth, why don't you tell us."

"In the beginning, there was Lou."

"Oh, good try, Seth! Lou was a great man, a great prophet and a passable freebase player. He figured out how the universe began, but he didn't create it himself."

"Did the UPA create the universe, Miss Sexton?"

"No, no, nice try Beth."

"What about Darwin, Miss Sexton? Did we all come from monkeys?"

"Well, yes and no, Timmy. You see, we all came from thetans. You, me, Lou and the monkeys—we're all thetans, remember? Or you might say that we're sort of like thetan pods, because the thetan is an immortal soul that goes from one body to the next through endless reincarnations over trillions of years."

"Children, it's these thetans that created the universe—all the stars and planets, every plant and animal..."

Team Bios – Masters Division

Above & Beyond

Brooklyn, NY

While the history of Ultimate shows that the game evolved from being played at Amherst College and the Mount Hermon summer school, Dave Chaiken wants the world to know about Brooklyn's contribution. A decade after the Columbia High School kids wrote down the sport's first rules, Chaiken and his Brooklyn boys were one of the first club teams in the nation, taking on New York's Heifers, Boston Aerodisc and Connecticut's Dukes in the late 1970s and early 80s. More than a quarter century later, Chaiken is back at the UPA Championships and ready to challenge for his third Masters championship with a New York-based team. Above & Beyond is the first-year brainchild of Dave Fausel and Joe McHugh. The team includes a mix of former New York, New York vets like Aram and Juano Flores, Dave "Babs" Babkow and Andy Scheman, hometown Brooklyn boys like Adam Pacelli, Nick Mahedy, Billy Selo, Lev Fruchter and Chaiken; a New Paltz posse of Marty Giannukos, Brian Mahoney and Mark "Rosie" Rosenthal; and Adam Zagoria, one of two Crugers, NY, kids in the Masters bracket. (See Philly's OLD SAG for "Big" Steve Leshinski.) Some guys on the squad have six Open rings; others are making their first Nationals appearance. Most are just hoping they can get through the weekend with a good buzz and no major injuries.

Big Unit

Bloomington, MS

Big Unit is the sequel to Big SAG (Southern All-star Karma) offspring of Chain Lightning refugee Greg 'Bug' Allpaw and former Condor Mike 'Puddin' Weems. After supreme underachievement in the Open Division, 'Puddin' was cut and a Big Unit grew out of the remaining players. In 2003, the Unit surpassed all expectations by posting a donut in Sarasota. Weems was cut again. Now expanded, the Unit has several key players who have yet to show but make the roster look intimidating. Notwithstanding, Allpaw was cut for the second time to make way for the new Bug. Shawn Adams Memorial started 2004 well for the BUT (Big Unit Team). Poaching D became a forte; of course, bailing has long been a tactic of slower Masters division players, but these Master balters worked it to exhaustion. In the end the BUT was busted in semis and went home unsatisfied.

Regionals held more promise, but the Unit arrived chubby. As the Rev led them in song, Matty led them in turnovers. BUT was penetrated on D as no one could keep up with Stu's "Switch" calls. Losses to Texas and Miami impeded their spirit. But slowly it began to rise. Simpson with the snag, Kiefer with the kraw, Cobble with the clomp. Scott rode the horse, while Akasha chased away all the women. Absence of Dougodo providing motivation (and play time), all little units became huge! Down went VC, down went Texas. And when the final bell tolled, it told the Big Unit of a return to Nationals!

Faded

Orange County, CA

FADED is a last minute, thrown-together team of cagey veterans from Southern California. We had two practices before Sectionals, and it showed. With little time together and some key players lost to injuries, we had no real expectations coming in. The Regionals squad included L.A. Iguaña vets Rich Gallagher and Randy "Bean" Sanchez, members of 1998 finalist Tempus Fugit's Long Beach contingent, notably Kevin Easter and Curt Caprine, 2004 Beach champion Mark Ross, as well as vets John Worden and Haynes Brookes.

At Regionals we drew Old first. Their conditioning and cohesion won out, but we found that our skills weren't completely FADED, and took a positive attitude into the next game against Ironwood. They won, but we hoped to see them again in the playoffs. Sunday, we "upset" a short-handed NNG team playing savage seven due to injury and a small roster. Then, we gelled in time to stage a furious come-from-behind win against Ironwood in the back door game to qualify for Nationals, 14-13. Gallagher's steady handling against the zone, Bean's scores, and all-around solid team D highlighted by Easter's layout D on their goal line at 12:30—topped off by Worden's full field huck for the win to our sole under-35 player, Lance Larson.

Since we were a surprise qualifier, many of our big guns aren't making the trip, but with several newcomers to the Nationals scene we decided that the experience will be worth the trip, regardless of outcome. Next year, we'll make better plans.

GLUM

Ottawa/Toronto, ON

Green Light Ultimate Masters is in its second year of life. We are composed of players from Ottawa, Toronto, Rochester, Kingston and Halifax. Despite the fact that Northeast Regionals was the first time many of us played together, we are hoping to improve on our 8th place finish from last year's Championships. In our spare time we enjoy dog sledding, snowboarding, watching hockey (well, not this year) and drinking Canadian beer.

Grey Expectations

Minneapolis, MN

Grey X was formed in 2002 by Marty Bakko and Russ Adams. Through their leadership, a final link in the men's ultimate chain for Twin Cities' players has been established. After two years at the helm, both were ready to hand off the reins to new captains, although keeping them quiet only works occasionally. The first task for the new captains was ridding the team of the dreaded weave drill.

This year has brought many new faces to the team, along with more speed. Our conditioning coach, Eric Engle, has been working feverishly to get us in shape, up to his personal standards. We spent the majority of the season chasing around people half our age and nursing hamstring injuries. Our heckling has improved dramatically throughout the season as well, just ask Sub Zero. If you hear the Winona State fight song, you are getting close to our camp. Our entire focus is preparing for two tournaments: Regionals and Nationals. One down, one to go...

HOSS

Wilmington, NC

HOSS was formed in 2001 as a team of friends just trying to get to Sarasota. Back then the HOSS motto was "no practice." Today, that motto is gone and only five of the original 13 players remain. Making our fourth consecutive appearance at Nationals, our old-school style of debauchery remains quite strong. The 2004 HOSS roster consists of 29 brothers, loving every minute of playing together. While the majority of our players hail from southeastern North Carolina, HOSS is nationwide, with players from NC, VA, GA, PA, and CA. We are honored to be here with our great players, playing the sport we love. Listen for the roar.

KAVU

Ketchum, ID

For the most part we all blame Trent and Kibber for getting us into this mess. Our wives curse them unmercifully, and our kids wall uncontrollably every time we walk out of the house with our cleats. You all know the line—"Honey, I swear, this is the last year". Lies. If not for Trent and Kibber back in '88 there'd be no Ketchum Ultimate, the majority of us would not have played there at one point or another in our careers, and the camaraderie that comes from playing with and against each other for all these years would not be the overriding factor that binds this team together. Though most of us now reside far and wide in the Big Sky (with a few strays lost in other parts of the country), that common bond has brought us together once again. It's starting to snow up in the hills...time to head to Florida. Lace em up boys; here we come again!

Keg Workers of America, Local 333

Seattle, WA

The core of this Union of free-spirited players with strong Seattle ties has been together in changing forms since the early 90's, including three mid-90's UPA Open division finals with Sockeye, and first used this name at Flower Bowl in 1995. A love of intense competition, each other, and beer, coupled with genuine respect for other teams and topped off by the inability to grow up and stop playing games like children has kept the brotherhood together ever since. Now arguably more a social club than an ultimate team, the non-judgmental joy its players share in each other's company seems to bring out the best in everybody, both on and off the field. KWA continues to rally for each new season. After kicking a keg a day while winning UPA Masters Championships in 2000 and 2001, a World Championship in 2002, and winning the Spirit awards in 1999 and 2003, the team has retooled with more players with really hot wives and insatiable thirsts, plus some stylish new shirts (like we needed more Ultimate shirts) that mask our growing guts.

Long Playing

Cincinnati, OH

Cincinnati has had a Masters team since the inception of the division. The current roster is made up of players that have made numerous trips to Nationals as an Open player or as a player on the Cincinnati Masters team. The current team name of Long Playing is in its second go round. Last year we finished as the third place team in our region and are looking forward to fun on fields as well as the beach.

Old & in the Way

Boulder, CO

"Old" was started by Gary Foreman in 1988 as an outlet for local players who were desirous to compete in the prestigious Boulder 4th of July tournament but unwilling or unable to sacrifice the time necessary to practice and compete at the open level. Compete they did, often winning the B division at a tournament that was once one of the top tournaments in the nation. In 1998, more recent Open division retirees—Buzz Ellsworth, Mike Morrissey, Randy Ricks, Brian Oliver, Chris Payne and others—signed on and the gradual replacement of the original Old lineup was underway. In 1999 the floodgates opened when Bobby Pease agreed to co-captain and was joined by Rob Bleiberg, Jim Glynn, Karl Heuerman, Geir Kvaran, and others who decided it was time to give Masters a try. That fall Old won a UPA title in San Diego and went on to win WFDF Gold at Worlds in Germany in 2000. Since that time other local Colorado legends and unknowns have risen to join "Old's" roster (Big Dave Smith, Heath MacKay, Bo Esrey, Ian Hue, Jeff Bryant, Renzo Verbeck, and many others) and these stalwarts have kept "Old" in the national arena, finishing in the semis or finals every year at "the show" since 1999. We hope and expect this year will be no different!

We share our name with an old bluegrass band and we'd like to think our legacy has been, and will be, to maintain a Colorado-style grassroots dedication to USA Masters Ultimate. Best of luck to all at the 2004 UPA Club Ultimate Championships!

O.L.D. S.A.G.

Philadelphia, PA

Born in the birthplace of the nation, O.L.D. S.A.G. celebrates its fifth straight trip to the UPA Club Championships this year. Champs in 2002, our carriage turned into a pumpkin, and we finished a disappointing 7th last year. In the off-season, we lost some key players to retirement homes, prisons, frisky wives, and such, but Philly legends Big Rick, Nacho, and Steve Wherry lead the return to Nationals, bringing with them some familiar faces and a pair of the new, very long legs, for what may be our One Last Ditch Shot at Glory.

Refugees

Miami, FL

The "Gees" officially began in 1984 with the merger of the North Miami Ultimate team and their cross-town southern rivals from Riviera. During its 20-year history, the team competed in numerous national and world championship tournaments. Last year, the team entered the masters division and won the national title. The Refugees were honored to represent the United States and the UPA at the World Championship this summer in Turkey, Finland winning the gold medal after defeating Canada in the finals.

The Refugees would like to thank all of those players who have played with and against them throughout the years. We would also especially like to thank one of our own: our captain, coach and soul of the team, Kurt Dahlenburg.

The Miami Refugees will be hanging them up at the end of this season. It was great. Thank you!

What's it like to know you were made for Ultimate?

To remember,
nearly twenty years ago,
you worked hard to get onto the field and then maintained your position with consistency, dependability and quality.
That you soon surpassed your rivals and have played in every major event worldwide for more than a decade.

To know you're the leader in the sport... and the standard by which others are judged and to which others aspire.

What's it like to quietly contribute year after year to the Ultimate community.

What's it like to have a feel for the sport that no one else can touch?
To know you're just getting started?

What's it like?
