WELCOME

Welcome to the 2007 UPA Club Championships! Every year it seems that the tournament attracts more people and more attention. We hope that means people think it's a great event to be a part of, and we hope that you will feel the same.

The competition is without a doubt the primary focus of the event, with Ultimate fans all over the US, Canada, and the world tuning in to see who will earn Ultimate's top prize. In the Masters Division there will definitely be a "new" champion, but with the players and teams in contention, it's likely the winners won't be lifting a trophy for the first time. In the Women's Division, it seems that top-seeded, reigning champs, Fury have solidified themselves as a favorite to repeat. The Open and Mixed divisions both have teams at the top spot who were not at the tournament last year, although the reigning champs and multiple other teams in each division are close behind, looking to knock off the new top dogs. And of course, this year's top US team in each division will qualify for Worlds next year in Vancouver. Plus, the top Open and Women's teams will receive all expense paid trips to Japan for the 2008 Dream Cup (see write-up in event guide for more info). As if the teams needed any more motivation to be at their best...

In addition to the games, there is a lot of other stuff going on. Be sure to check out VC Ultimate's tournament merchandise, as well as the always happening Five Ultimate tent. A new food vendor will be joining an old favorite to provide great grub all weekend. The cameras of UltiVillage will be roaming the fields, and if you're in the right place at the right time, you might make it into their footage, or even star in a Clip of the Day! An exciting addition this year is the introduction of the VC Green Program, sponsored by VC Ultimate in cooperation with the UPA. Please help us reduce waste at the event by using the recycling bins for all your cans and bottles. And as always, free beer will be available each day in the Beer Garden. You must be 21+ with ID to enter, and you can't take beer you get there outside the Beer Garden area. You're welcome to bring your own beer to the event, but free tournament beer has to be consumed in the Beer Garden. As part of the VC Green Program, please use (and reuse) the green stadium cup from your player pack, or purchased at the VC booth, for the Beer Garden. Please drink responsibly and be respectful of the Beer Garden rules and staff.

After you leave the fields, enjoy yourselves around Sarasota and Siesta Key. Drink specials have been arranged at two bars on Siesta Key for Friday and Saturday nights. Please be respectful of the places you go and the places you stay. That's what Ultimate is about, and we want the people of Sarasota to enjoy us being around and excited to have us come back.

Above all, have a great time! Play with class, win or lose, and be respectful in everything you do on and off the field.

Will Deaver, UPA Championship Director

SITE RULES

No Glass! This is important. We're at a world class polo facility. Some of these horses are worth more than your homes. If you are found on the fields with a glass container, you will be told to leave the Polo Club for the duration of the tournament.

Dogs must be leashed! We would prefer that you leave the pooches at home. We don't want dogs locked in cars or tied up in the sun. If you must bring your dog, leash it. They can spook the horses, which could cause us to lose our privileges at the Polo Club.

Spectators and equipment must stay at least 3 meters away from sidelines! Where there are buffer lines, respect them. Where there are not buffer lines, stay back at least 3 meters.

Trash and Recycling! Please help make the new Green Program, initiated and sponsored by VC Ultimate, a success. Place bottles and cans in the recycling receptacles and place trash in the trash. Thanks.

COMPETITION RULES

- 11th Edition Rules of Ultimate will be in effect.
- All games to 15, point-cap at 17.
- Half-time is 10 minutes.
- Each team has two timeouts per half.
- Regardless of how many timeouts a team has used before overtime, during overtime each team has one timeout.
- Overtime: A game is in overtime if tied at one point less than original game total (e.g. In a game to 15 goals, overtime occurs when the score reaches 14-14).
- Soft time cap goes on at end of round time on schedule. Add two points to higher score after first score after soft time cap. Game ends when first team reaches new game total, or when first team reaches 15 ahead by at least two points, whichever comes first.
- A hard time cap will be put into effect for all pool and placement games (5th-16th, Masters 3rd). The hard time cap will go on 35 minutes after the soft time cap for pool games and 20 minutes after the soft time cap for placement games. When the hard time cap goes on, finish the point in progress and the game is over. If it's tied, play one more point.
- Caps do not affect timeouts.
- Special case: In the first round of the 5-8 bracket, if there are exactly two teams in contention for a strength wildcard, those teams will play each other in that first round regardless of the originally scheduled match-ups.

For games that do not affect the strength wildcard:

- If neither team wants to play a scheduled game that leads to another round (i.e. semis for the 5th, 9th, 13th brackets): Those two teams finish tied for the placement of the lower portion of their bracket and the other game is now for two higher spots. (e.g. In a 9-12 semifinal game, the two forfeiting teams would be tied for 11th and the other semifinal would become the game for 9/10.)
- If neither team wants to play a scheduled game that does not lead to another round: Both teams will finish tied for the higher placement, since they went out at the same time.
- If only one team wants to play a scheduled game that leads to another round (e.g. semis for the 5th, 9th, 13th brackets): The forfeiting team will finish at the bottom of its respective bracket (i.e. 8th, 12th or 16th).
- If only one team wants to play a scheduled game that does not lead to another round: The game will be treated as a loss for the forfeiting team and a win for the other team, with final placement reflecting that outcome.

PLACEMENT GAME RULES (5-8TH AND 9-16TH ON SATURDAY AND ANY 3RD PLACE GAMES)

For games that could affect the strength wildcard:

- If a game will determine a strength wildcard, or leads to a game that might determine a strength wildcard, it must be played. If a team still chooses to forfeit such a game, that team's region/division will not be eligible for any nationals' wildcards the following year (size, strength, growth), unless given a specific exception by the National Division Director.

WFD WORLD'S (2008 WUGG)

QUALIFICATION:

- If two non-US teams make it to the final in the Open Division, a 3rd place game will be necessary to determine the US champion and Worlds qualifying team. If necessary, the game to determine this team will take place on Sunday at the same time as the Open Division final, on an adjacent field.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Medical staff, including athletic trainers, will be on site at tournament central to treat injuries, handle emergencies, and provide some preventative care. The event will provide standard athletic tape, pre-wrap, ice, and some bandages. Other supplies, including special tape/bandages and anti-inflammatory drugs, you will need to bring yourself or you may be charged by the training staff for those supplies. If there is an injury on a field that needs medical attention, inform a field marshal and they will radio in to the trainers. If you have issues that need attention in the morning before play, please show up early to avoid long waits in line. The trainers will be at the fields by 7:30AM each day.

Directions to the local hospital can be found in the "Directions" (page 5) section of this program.

CONCUSSIONS

- Concussions are brain injuries that can occur as a result of a blow to the head.
- Symptoms may include headache, nausea, vision problems, confusion, balance problems.
- If you think you or one of your teammates might have a concussion, tell your coach and have the person see a medical professional. Medical staff are on hand at the event at Tournament Central.

HEAT, NUTRITION AND HYDRATION

- Heat-related illness occurs where body cooling by evaporation is limited. Sweating depletes the body's salt and moisture, which leads to dehydration. If a player recognizes any signs or symptoms of heat-related illness, he or she should treat the problem immediately.
- Signs and Symptoms of Heat Illness can include change in level of consciousness, abdominal cramps, nausea/vomiting, fatigue/tingling, chills, inability to spit, dry mucous membranes, decreased urine output and change in color.
- Prevention and Treatment of Heat Illness
 - Avoid alcohol, caffeine, and carbonated beverages.
 - Medications such as antihistamines, decongestants, certain asthma medications, and diuretics can increase risk for heat illness. Avoid them if possible.
 - Avoid certain nutritional supplements (such as caffeine and ephedrine) that can dehydrate the body and/or increase metabolism and heat production.
 - Know your body – Be honest! Are you fit enough to perform under current conditions?
 - Drink and eat – Eat and drink (water AND sports drinks) "optimally" before, during, and after play. Potassium is important (good sources include: sports drinks, yogurt, grapefruit juice, bananas, oranges). Sodium is also important (good sources include: sports drinks, vegetable juices, pretzels, nuts, cheese and crackers). After play, carbohydrates are important: foods such as potatoes, honey, cereal, white bread, corn chips, sports drinks, jelly beans, rice cakes, bagels, crackers, gummy candies).
 - Don't drink too much. Over-hydrating can be dangerous if it leads to a fluid and electrolyte imbalance.
 - Monitor your urine – Clear/copious = hydrated. Dark = Need water/electrolytes.
 - Be sensitive to prior illness – If you've been sick, your body may be more susceptible to dehydration.
 - Rest and cool down after play – Find shade, wet the skin, get in front of a fan or breeze.

SIDELINE SAFETY

- Players and spectators should make every effort to keep objects, including but not limited to bags, strollers, chairs, coolers and tents, as far away from the playing field as possible. If there are restraining lines around your field, keep all objects behind the lines.
- If a player feels that an object on the sideline is not safe, s/he should inform Event Staff and should refrain from playing until s/he is satisfied that safe conditions have been established.
- The UPA and Event Staff reserve the right to move or remove objects or spectators from on or near the playing field if those conditions are, in the opinion of the UPA or Event Staff, unsafe for players, staff, or spectators.

LIGHTNING GUIDELINES

- Event staff will communicate with players and spectators via PA system and field marshals equipped with radios that there is a lightning danger, play will be stopped, and everyone should seek shelter.
- Safe Shelter for players and spectators at the polo grounds include any enclosed building or fully enclosed vehicle with a hard top and closed windows.
- Event staff will use the Flash-to Bang method to determine when to send people to shelter. By the time the Flash-to-Bang count has reached 30 seconds, all individuals should be in a safe shelter location.
- If you can't get to a safe shelter, try to avoid being the tallest object in an open field or on open water. Avoid other tall objects, metal objects, and water. Assume a crouch position with only the balls of your feet touching the ground, your arms wrapped around your knees, and your head lowered. Minimize contact with the ground. Do not lie flat.
- Avoid using telephone land lines. Cell phones are safe provided the person has followed other safety guidelines.
- Event staff will indicate to players when play is going to resume. Team captains should meet at Tournament Central to receive instructions for resuming play and any schedule modifications.

BE A PART OF THE VC GREEN PROGRAM

The VC Green Program's first large-scale initiative has created the opportunity to recycle cans and bottles at the 2007 UPA Club Championships – not an easy logistical task, but with the full support of the UPA, we've been able to actualize this idea.

We hope that you'll support this year's VC Green Program initiative by recycling responsibly at the 2007 UPA Club Championships.

Dispose of cans and bottles in the receptacles provided. Please don't throw waste into the recycling bins that have been set up. One piece of garbage can ruin an entire container of recyclable goods.

Together, we can all help make this a greener event.

SPIRIT AWARDS

Ultimate has traditionally relied upon a spirit of sportsmanship which places the responsibility for fair play on the player himself. Highly competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of the bond of mutual respect between players, adherence to the agreed-upon rules of the game, or the basic joy of play. – UPA 11th Edition Rules of Ultimate

TEAM AWARDS

Following every game, each team will be asked to rate its opponent using the following UPA Spirit Ratings Guidelines, approved by the UPA Board of Directors in July, 2007. These ratings will be averaged and the team in each division with the highest average rating will be awarded the Team Spirit Award after their division's finals.

UPA SPIRIT RATINGS GUIDELINES

The ratings are ordered from 5 (indicating the highest level of spirit) thru 1 (the lowest level of spirit):

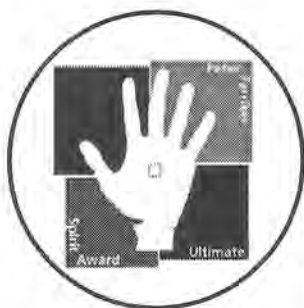

- 5: Highest level of respect shown throughout game towards opponents, officials, and spectators. For the level of play, showed excellent knowledge of the rules and abided by them throughout the game. Any conflicts were resolved amicably and without incident. Opposing team's conduct added to our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team unfailingly played fairly and with an excellent attitude.
- 4: Respect shown throughout the game towards opponents, officials, and spectators. For the level of play, showed above average knowledge of the rules and abided by them throughout the game. Any conflicts were resolved favorably and without incident. Opposing team's conduct did not detract from our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team played fairly and with a good attitude.
- 3: Generally exhibited respect towards opponents, officials, and spectators. For the level of play, showed adequate knowledge of the rules and abided by them during the game. Any conflicts were resolved plainly and without incident. Opposing team's conduct generally did not detract from our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team generally played fairly and with a decent attitude.
- 2: Exhibited a lack of respect towards opponents, officials, and/or spectators. For the level of play, showed a lack of knowledge of or disregard for the rules at points during the game. Any conflicts were resolved heatedly or led to contentious incidents. Opposing team's conduct detracted somewhat from our enjoyment of the game. The opposing team played unfairly and/or with a poor attitude.
- 1: Exhibited a major lack of respect towards opponents, officials, and/or spectators. For the level of play, exhibited no knowledge of the rules or blatantly disregarded them during the game. Conflicts were resolved acrimoniously or led directly to contentious incidents. Opposing team's conduct made the game basically unenjoyable. The opposing team played unfairly and their attitude was abysmal.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

Teams will be each be asked to nominate a player from their own team who they feel displays the highest level of spirit. The definition of spirit is up to each team, but could include elements of sportsmanship, leadership, perseverance, fire, etc. Choose the person whose attitude you wish other people on your team would emulate and who other players off your team admire.

Individual spirit winners will receive a medal and prize disc (courtesy of DISCRAFT). Thanks to Discraft for their support of Ultimate and Spirit of the Game!

Peter Farricker Spirit of the Game Award - The spirit award in the Open Division is called the Farricker Spirit Award, named for Peter Farricker, a player who embodied Spirit of the Game to those who knew him and those who played with or against him. This award is given to a player in the Open Division of the UPA's Championship Series adjudged to have exhibited personal responsibility, integrity, and fairness combined with a high standard of playing ability. Each qualifying Open team nominates one player from their own team as the person who best represents the spirit of the game. At the Open Championship, each nominee is honored with a disc and pin or set of Mardi Gras beads. Our hope is that the people wearing the Mardi Gras beads will be connected to Pete, each other and the Spirit of the Game, and become role models for their teammates and opponents. A selection committee watches the open semis and selects one of the 4 semifinal nominees as the winner. The award will be presented after the Open Finals. Previous winners include Moses Rifkin, Andy Crews, Damien Scott, Jeff Eastham-Anderson, and Allan Cowan.

Kathy Pufahl Cande Spirit of the Game Award - The introduction of the Kathy Pufahl Cande Spirit of the Game Award will build upon the foundations of SOTG that are reflected in the Farricker Spirit Award; Ability, Fairness, and Integrity. The Kathy Pufahl Cande Spirit Award will build upon that foundation by also recognizing those individuals who give back to our sport. The Kathy Pufahl Spirit Award is given to the player(s) adjudged to have exhibited personal responsibility, integrity, and selfless contribution to Ultimate, combined with a high standard of playing ability. Each qualifying Women's team nominates one player from their team as the person who best represents the spirit of the game and has contributed in a substantial way to their ultimate community. At the Club Championships, each of the 16 nominees is honored with a memento reflective of Kathy's love of horticulture. A vote of the qualifying teams will determine the recipient of the Pufahl Award, which will be presented after the Women's Finals. Previous winners include Vida Town, Kati Halmos, and Kristine Gill.

MASTERS TEAMS

Captain: Arnold Sanchez

The home for a bunch of aging friends from New York City and the surrounding areas, Above & Beyond has added some talented and spirited players from the team known as Salt, as well as some dudes from Pike, Twisted Metal and elsewhere. Above & Beyond is making its fourth straight appearance in Sarasota, having reached the Finals in '05 and the Semis in '06. Under the steady and firm hand of Captain Arnold Sanchez, we plan to play hard every point, huck the hammer when it comes and enjoy the beach and brews at the end of every day. Good luck to all the teams in the tournament and we look forward to some great competition on the fields.

BIGS

Captains: Chris Eaton, Pat Benson, Layne Davis
Coaches: Pat Benson, Davie Hill, Kerry Karter

We are so damn proud of our little section in the northwest that we named our team BIGSKY in 2006. That was a magical year; KAVU had disbanded and a bunch of Boise players turned 33. With no expectations, a fairly easy road to Nationals, and a big boost of talent and experience from our Bay Area brothers, we ended up being the happiest losers of what was likely the best double game point Master's final in UPA history. So, we're back; fortunate enough to earn a bid out of a very tough region. We are elated; there's nothing more fun than going into battle with a bunch of your buddies. We're going large and pushing deep this year, forever chanting "BIGS!!!"

Fortified with kackalacky backy juice (it's not yet a banned substance), old players take on the sheen of newborns. Watch for the brown spittle when you argue a call.

DoG

Captains: Jim Parinella, Alex de Frondeville, Jeff Brown

DoG (Death or Glory) is one of the most storied franchises in ultimate history. Created after years of crushing defeats, this Boston team won six consecutive Open National championships from 1994-1999 and continued to be a presence on the national scene for years afterward. With the retirement this past winter of the final two original members of the team and the merger with a crosstown rival, the Open team in Boston decided to create a new identity, thus opening the way for the name to be passed back to a slew of the vintage veterans. Bolstered by long-term friends of DoGs and some new additions, the team hopes to make an impact in its first venture into Masters. Look for the old trademark style of high-percentage offense and an innovative mix of defenses.

Ironwood

Captains: Tim Streit, Ben Thielhorn

In the American Southwest, there grows a tree. Ironwood. An old tree. A strong tree. Ironwood. Fed with only sparse desert rain, it may grow 1500 years. When cut, its wood can dull a steel blade. Yet this resilient desert tree can endure the fierce Autumn storms of Florida. This is our tree. This is our team. Ironwood.

Our roots lie deep in the Arizona earth. Our top is reborn with a year's new growth. Our branches now reach the blue Pacific, Sprawl to the Colorado Rockies and the Midwest heartland and touch the Jersey shore. Twice battered by Gulf storms, newly strengthened by California sun, this tree reaches toward Florida a third time, eagerly seeking the ultimate mix of competition and spirit.

Miami

Captains: Darius Khonsary, Erik Peterson

"Miami" as it is creatively named is made up of players mostly from Miami. Although the offense still has a little Refugee flavor, the team is not quite a reincarnation of Miami teams past - we sprinkled in some specialized talent from neighboring cities to bulge up our defense. To our divisional comrades, welcome to the Sunshine State. We hope you lose... but in a nice way.

Captains: Bob Pease, Gary Foreman, Bo

From the 80's to 00's, these OLD huckers have truly been showing THE WAY. A long-standing team of Colorado-based, masters-level players, Old and in the Way has been providing Ultimate competition and camaraderie for over 20 years. We have a great legacy - we've won two National Championships (1999 & 2005) and one WFDF World Championship (Heilbronn, Germany 2000) and have finished no worse than third in the country in the UPA National Series for nine straight years. We are proud of our record but also gain great satisfaction in being a great TEAM - with continuity of leadership and familiar faces dating back to our first National Championship. With an influx of some new, younger teams this year's competition will be the best ever seen in the Masters Division. Watch out for "OLD"! This year's challenge? Don't let Bo lose his security deposit!

Good luck to all the teams in the 2007 UPA National Series Masters Division.

MASTERS TEAMS

O.L.D. S.A.G.

Captain: Steve Wherry

This is O.L.D. S.A.G.'s 7th trip to Sarasota since 2000. The team started when a burning bush caught the eye of Jim Brose in Glacier National Park. From behind the bush a voice called out, "You must gather a group of men who are at least 33 years old and bring them to Sarasota, Florida every October. Oh yea, and bring a disc with you."

Having lived an uneventful life to that point Brose set out on the mission. First came Jim Viner, then Pickleman, Adlis, McDonough, Kelly, and Sauce. Then Steve Wherry and his minions joined and soon there were 14 who braved the heckles and taunts of heresy from the local villagers as they boarded that first plane to Florida.

The next year was more of the same, but in the year after that, the pilgrimage grew bigger — Paul Minecci, Sam Sackett, Curtis Maier, Hector Hernandez, Chris O'Connor and Big Rick Atkins left their wives at home without explanation. The sun shone brightly upon them when they arrived in Florida and rainbows filled the skies. Their throws flew on the wings of angels and their D's struck like bolts from Zeus. Now champions they awaited a further sign, but none came.

And so, this team from Philadelphia returns again. This year's group is the biggest ever, and it includes first-timers: Len Magargee, Clayton Colman, and Billy Maroon. We make the trip to Sarasota to answer a vague calling, and when we take the fields we play with the burning desire that comes from the recognition that this may be our - One Last Ditch Shot at Glory!

REAL Huck

REAL HUCK

Captain: Johnny Hock

REAL Huck quickly formed in 2006, quickly qualified for the Club Championships and quickly declined the bid once we learned the other teams would not be playing "savage seven" like we would have been. We are back with bolstered numbers for 2007 claiming to be Chicago based, but some would say we are a Buckeye flavored Midwest melting pot. We are early in the team's evolution, intend to become a Midwest mainstay, and have a vision of completing a REAL Huck!

Troubled Past

Captain: Michael O'Dowd

Troubled Past is a bright cheery spot that continues to shine amongst the many teams that enjoy this sport.

Our players come from all corners of the North American West to celebrate true Spirited Ultimate. Troubled Past is the model for teams that are searching for integrity.

We start our Spirit belief system in the individual because when one player is weak it brings down the entire sport. If a player drops a pass or throws a turn TP beats that player into submission by reading the new Spirit guidelines for final participants until they weep for their sin. As a team we know how to respond when calls drain a game of Spirit. We practice our initial call responses together by shouting out in the stretch circle, "Are You Done?" "Do You Use That Mouth To Eat!" and of course team favorite, "Why Are You Still Talking?"

Perhaps the most controversial aspect of TP is our outreach program. We believe every game is an opportunity to teach and we are not afraid to use force in our instruction. While some disapprove, we have at all times three to five players ready to beat opposing players who resist our brand of Spirit. If you are an opposing player, be warned that discussing calls can lead to a Spirit readjustment. While everyone on our team prays for the day this sport has referees, until that time, we will continue to be this sport's enviable combination of Spirit model and enforcer.

Amp

Captains: Jeff Snader, Kathi Jenkins, Peter Knappenberger

Amp is based in Philly, and is proud to represent the Founders' section in Sarasota for a third straight year. We have certain core beliefs that guide our team. We believe that the Ab Lounge at the end of a four hour practice is the best part of the weekend. We believe that whatever is said on the Podium of Truth stays in the room. We believe that F-day should be a national holiday. We believe that Amp was a better name choice than anything to do with Rocky Balboa, the Liberty Bell, or cheesesteaks. We believe that it is game time and, hell yeah, we are going to win.

Axis of C'ville

Captains: Oliver Platts-Mills, Natasha Sienitsky and Kevin Kusy

Since our birth, springing spontaneously from the igneous core of Virginia's Blue Ridge, the question has been raised reflectively, what sort of axis do we claim to be? For, surely, we have conceived to orient linearly, around which our polymorphic members fancy to rotate. Equally, this team and our single purpose has become a sort of geometrical safe haven, a promise of orientation for many of our otherwise-wayward comrades. Or, in a similar fashion, do we see ourselves as a sort of dentine projection, a keystone at the vertebral core of our sleepy college town?

Could it be this simple? Could these, in sum, suffice to posit the story of our forming as an inevitable consequence of so many molecules in motion? Or, more boldly, must we venture to approach a more contemporary invocation of this beguiling homonym? Do we, like so many rogue states, contrive to develop weapons of such power to threaten the established hierarchy? Would our strict allegiance to the principles of three of this nation's greatest guiding lights (and hippest sleeve ornaments) allow for such a Judas kiss?

So far, despite our most earnest attempts to understand the nominal core of our nascent identity, we can offer only this simple, intoxicating drumbeat of a response: Who are we? Just axis.

Bad Larry

Captains: Bill Burke, Shannon Smith

Wanna know a secret? I haven't brought a single morsel of food to an Ultimate Tournament all season. There's no need to, I just steal it from the rest of my teammates. They all bring plenty, and good stuff too. Honestly, I don't think I've ever seen an Ultimate team that eats as much as Bad Larry. It's not all that shocking, if you actually take a moment to look at the people on the team. That guy, #4, could probably fill out a C-cup...I'm not kidding. Not to mention that thick and stout girl handling all the time. I bet she can wolf it down. I don't steal from everybody though. We have this one guy who's so skinny that he's practically 2-dimensional. I feel bad stealing from him. Plus his food is usually boring like granola bars and crap. I wouldn't steal from #7 either. He's a complete head case and would probably kill me if he caught me. Luckily he got cut at Nationals last year, so I don't have to worry about it.

Here's the kicker. The team even has a silly cheer that goes "EAT," then "MORE" (it's kinda hard to write it out). I love that cheer. Every time we cheer it, I think to myself "Sure, fools, I'll go ahead and 'Eat More'... of your food. Suckers." And that's the end of my story.

Barrio

Captains: Jeff Grobe, Grant McCall, Gretchen Kiehlbaugh, Liz Penny

Bar - ri - o /bahr-ee-oh/ n 1. A Spanish word meaning our community, territory or neighborhood; a barrio is generally considered to be a cohesive place rich in tradition and populated by a tight knit minority. 2. The name of a co-ed Ultimate team originally formed in Tucson's Barrio Anita; it is a community of players proud to be representing the minority desert section at the UPA's 2007 National Championships. 3. Barrio connotes spirit, love of the game and never, ever giving up.

Barrio runs a tireless offense honed under the relentless gaze of the scorching Sonoran sun; rains down one righteous huck after another like a caped luchador flying across the ring; plays lay-out defense hardened on parched fields where a blade of grass is the stuff of legend; and dances with the dead to the immemorial serenades of a mariachi's violin to never forget who came before

Bashing Piñatas

Captains: Ryan West, Lucas Murphy

The modern Piñata (Papyrus animalis) is found in the wild mostly in the Northeast United States, with pockets of surviving populations in Colorado, Maryland, and the Carolinas. The fun-loving animals are known to migrate south to Florida in late October, which is the traditional mating ground of the species. A specific sub-species, the Papyrus animalis bashingus, or Bashing Piñata, has adapted to live in a nocturnal environment, mostly to avoid predators, which to this day is mostly humans. The wild Piñata first migrated to the United States from Mexico, where it was often cruelly hung from trees and beaten. This tradition, plus decades of illegal poaching for their valued tissue paper skins, landed the Piñata on the Endangered Species list. Although a few success stories exist, such as the Bashing Piñatas, most Piñatas are still tortured for the amusement of children and adults across America. This mostly comes from a lack of knowledge on the part of the American consumer, which is why this animal cruelly must be brought to the forefront of our minds. Please, next time you are celebrating a birthday or holiday, avoid sacrificing such a beautiful creature for your own entertainment.

It's on like backbone!! North Carolina has a long history of great teams, and the Triangle specifically has produced several great coed squads. We aim to tap into that still existing talent base and bring the coed title back home to the Triangle, although we might not force middle and have learned what dump swing means. In our second year, we reorganized with competitive open tryouts, taking on Olivo as our feeder team. The result was a team that's 41% married to itself, and 13% Gardner. We're 100% Blacker and Mollyer, and 9% of our team sweats more than the other 91% combined. Aylee and Zach for Callahan 2027. Special thanx to Robbie Minshall and Ana Plachco. Yup.

Captains: Nate Miller, Joshua Greenough, Hannah Griego

Coach: Henrik Meng (GM)

Brass Monkey has existed since 2003 and been a consistent force in the Bay Area (and national) mixed since being founded. The team prides itself on playing gritty defense in any conditions and having a smile while getting the block. The team spirit is anchored by Nate Miller, Kerry Soo, Patrick Hard and the original monkeys but as always we are excited by the new blood for 2007. The stories from past years are retold with gusto and bonding happens on at the track and on team retreats. We guarantee that we eat better than any other team in the fall series.

This year has seen a conscious effort to play against some of the best mixed teams in the country by traveling to Boston, Seattle and then hosting Mixed Labor Day in San Francisco. The team has had our ups and downs on the field this season but we are battle tested and like good Spartans fear no one.

See you on the field or at the beach and we will have a good time with Chuck and his fiddle.

Chewbacca Defense

Captains: Meetesh Karia, Patrick Mackie, Mary McDowell, Harper Ray, Tal Tversky

In 2006, a bunch of Wookiees and Wookettes decided it would be fun to play together (along with some Ewoks) so Chewbacca Defense was formed. With players from Doublewide, Buttercup, Showdown, UT and Payasos con Pistolas, we're a fun and experienced bunch. Why 'Chewbacca Defense'? Why would a Wookiee, an eight-foot tall Wookiee, want to live on Endor, with a bunch of two-foot tall Ewoks? That does not make sense! If Chewbacca lives on Endor, you must acquit! The defense rests.

Iowa Corn Exchange

Captains: Rich La Vigne, Dan Kresowik,
Michael Francis

Coach: Ken Gayley

In 2004 playing with Ethanol (men's open) many of us saw the success Iowa State men had with CLX. We decided to throw together a team based in Iowa City with the men from Ethanol (University of Iowa Alum) and the University of Iowa women (Saucy Nancy) that had just played College Nationals together to form the team Method. Turns out no practice and a plentiful supply of Sparks can turn you into the Central Region Mixed Champions in 2005.

Keeping the dream alive in 2006 under a new name proved a little more difficult, with many players moving out of state and not being able to commit to all practices held (read tournaments). We ended the season with a disappointing Regionals showing losing three games-to-go.

2007 has been a year of dedication. ICE gathered some young talent from Northwestern University, changed our source of energy (FOUR), and committed to getting into better shape. And here we are again, Central Regional Mixed Champions heading to Sarasota.

Mental Toss Flycoons

Captains: Markie Aagenes, Daphne Evans

The Mental Toss Flycoons hail from a relatively small town nestled at the center of five fabulous valleys. Our town's neighbor is the Rattlesnake Wilderness area, which is home to elk, moose, cutthroat trout, grizzly bears, and the occasional wolf. These vast open spaces and wild lands are exactly what motivate our team. Many of us make a living working in these wild places, and the others live in Missoula so we can recreate there. We spend some time on the Ultimate field but more time on skis, snowboards, rock faces, trails, or one of the many rivers in our area. All of these things meld into our name, "The Mental Toss Flycoons," a quote from Frank Zappa, who proclaimed he is "moving to Montana soon." Though we love visitors, please think twice before moving to our own little icy wasteland.

MISSOULA MONTANA

MIXED TEAMS

Mischief

Captains: Shirley Wu, Kris McQueen

Coach: Andy Crews

2003: Mischief takes first breath as a Frankenstein comprised of the most wily and mischievous players from several Bay Area mixed teams.

2004: After a hemorrhage of players to teams such as Monkey, Fish, and Kaos, concentrated recruiting efforts for young players bag top prospects from teams such as Ramona.

2005: Deepening our roster further with additions from Superfly, BLU, and Squids, Mischief becomes a contender. After learning about heart, Mischief achieves its goal of qualifying for the Club Championships. Seeded 15th coming into Nationals, we beat Gorilla Foot and Donkey Bomb en route to finishing 13th overall. But our first trip to the Club Championship only whetted our appetite for mischievous greatness.

2006: A few key pickups coupled with a year of hard work and passionate play brings us to the National Championship. A well-played game, including star performances from our Finals MVPs, David Pickett and Lori Eich, gives us the edge as we defeat Slow White 15-11 to win the Championship.

MIXED TEAMS

Rival

Captains: Michael Wood, Ned Coker, Holly Sommers

In 2007, Rival has placed 1st or 3rd at every Ultimate tournament it has attended. The team hopes to see this trend continue at Nationals.

Unfortunately, Rival has not performed as well at other sports. The team lost the championship of a Tag-Team Scrabble(tm) Tournament for the third year running (despite great efforts on the part of Rival captains to, in the immortal words of Jason Kidd, "turn this team around 360 degrees"), was eliminated early in a Charity Sepak Tekraw Exhibition Against Leukemia, stumbled through a Cold Air Ballooning competition, finished dead last at a caber toss (but set a world record for injuring spectators), was disqualified from a 10k power moonwalk, received the "most improved" award at a synchronized weightlifting event and had three teammates arrested for their participation (and poor aim) in a biathlon atop Stone Mountain. To be fair, Rival did see a much improved performance in the LARP Olympics this year. However, the team fell short of the points necessary to attain immortality upon the judges ruling that "sugar britches" is not a virtue.

So, while the year may not have brought all wins for Rival, this team is striving to end their Ultimate season with a strong showing in Sarasota and begin their underwater curling season without trepidation in Phoenix next weekend.

Slow White

Captains: Kris Kelly, Mike Miller

Slow White was born July 22nd, 2004, the brainchild of one Stephen Sullivan. That season we fell short of our goal to qualify for the UPA Championships, but we saw the great potential that the team could have. In 2005 we enjoyed a fairytale run at the UPA Championships ending up finishing sixth, earning a bid to Worlds 2006 in the process. In 2006, with a retooled roster, we took silver at the UPA Championships and bronze at WUCC. 2007 saw the losses of two of our biggest playmakers, Princess Jasper and Teddy Ridiculous, to the new Boston men's team, "Fortch and the Firetrucks". This forced us into retooling mode once again. A strong recruiting class full of monkeys and wombats has us poised for another strong run in Sarasota. As always, we love stuff, and we hate quail. Slow White '07: do it, you won't.

BOSTON MASSACHUSETTS

Chain Lightning

Captain: Jonathan Monforti

Atlanta's Chain Lightning has been a regional power ever since the team's inception in 1981, qualifying for the UPA Club Championship 19 of those 27 seasons. The 2007 squad, though, following last year's Championships finish, is the first to enter a season with such high expectations. In one of the best runs versus initial seed the tournament has ever seen, the '06 team went from being the 10th seed all the way to the semifinals, the best Chain showing ever (and the best of any team from the southeast since 1983).

Capitalizing on that experience has proven a challenge so far this season, as a sophomore slump of sorts has hit. Despite returning most of last year's key players and adding several strong newcomers, including former Team USA member Josh Ziperstein, this season's results have been inconsistent at best. In Sarasota, a late-blooming Chain will look to recapture some of last October's end-of-season magic along the way to showing they have again been underestimated.

Condors

Captains: Jonathan Hester, Rhett Nichols, Whit Clark

The Santa Barbara Condors Ultimate Frisbee team first took the field in 1974. They didn't know they were the Condors yet, but with the leadership of Tom Kennedy (TK) by 1976 they were playing games against opponents. And in 1977 they became the first National Champions in the sport. Then they repeated as #1 in 1978 and again in 1981. The Santa Barbara Condors are the longest running club team with the same name and background in the world... and their dedication and quality of play continues to this day. The 1998 and 1999 teams were 2nd in the nation (the 1999 team was 3rd in the world). In 2000 and 2001 the Condors were National Champions. The Condors became Club World Champions in 2002. The 2003 team was 2nd in North America, and in 2004 the Condors represented the US at the World Championships and won the silver medal.

Doublewide

Captains: Sean McCall, Max Cook, Scott Berens

Based in Austin, TX, Doublewide will be attending its 5th UPA Nationals since forming in 2001. Following a disappointing 2006 club season finish and a quarterfinal loss in 2006 WFDF Worlds in Perth, Doublewide heads into 2007 UPA Nationals with a 21-4 record.

Watch for O team players David "Salad" Melancon and Stephen "Franchise" Presley to shred the field with precision and ease while defensive stalwarts Michael "Tank" Natenberg and Benjamin "Verbal" Sims dominate key matchups. Also in the mix the 6'4" rookie Jason "Soda" Millard and the human trashcan Jay "Jamba" Lane.

Doublewide would like to thank all its friends, fans and sponsors for their support. Keep it well nasty, hoop!

GOAT

Captains: John Hassell, Andrew Ouchterlony
Coach: Garry Watanabe

GOAT is from Greater Ottawa And Toronto. We win Canadian Nationals when Furious doesn't show up, and Boston teams keep getting in the way of us getting to Florida. Following a humbling appearance at the 2004 UPA Championships, the herd retreated to the frozen north, and in 2005, entered a rebuilding phase. After a 2 year hiatus, and the setting-up of a formal club system in Toronto with Grand Trunk and ROY, GOAT returns to the lush grounds of Sarasota. The 2007 season has seen GOAT triumph at Flowerbowl, Boston Invitational, Chesapeake Open and the Chicago Heavyweight Championship.

Jam

Captain: Idris Nolan

Formed in 1998 with players hailing from all over the San Francisco Bay Area and beyond, Jam is attending the UPA Club Championships for the 8th time in 10 years. A two-time national finalist ('01, '04) and five-time national semifinalist ('00, '01, '03, '04, '05), Jam has won the Northwest region three times ('98, '01, '07) and the Northern California section six times ('99, '00, '01, '02, '03, '04).

The style of play is blue collar with a splash of jazz. After a year off to try something new, Jam is back to its roots and retooled for '07. A couple new faces have joined the mix and couple old ones have returned. The team colors are a fresh new blue and gold, but the logo remains the same... Sutro Tower, the San Francisco landmark is a tv/radio antenna well known to locals.

Jam comes to 2007 UPA Club Championships as the Northwest regional champion with a record of 32-9 and one goal in mind... to win the next game. Better grab an umbrella!

Johnny Bravo

Joshua Ackley (captain), Forrest

Like a soda being shaken, Bravo looks to finally burn the hay that is ultimate. New blood mixed with old makes for a delectable treat that is both tangy and burnt. Is this toasty like substance going to step up and smother jam all over their hardened crust? A brief history. Bravo was an accident like many of the players. Like all mistakes it grew until it became an undeniable waste of money and child support. Many moons later women's knees get weak from pure fear at the mere chance of glimpsing the glimmering stag that is Johnny Bravo. Although one still holds hope, and that one is JV's dog with those sultry eyes, pouty eyelashes and supple fur who desires to have a voice just for one day so that she may sing in a angelic voice the praise and love like desire that she has for this team. Hermes has put back on the saddles and dusted off the helmet for he has one more message to deliver and those words, the very words that shall capture in horrific clarity the heart and imagination of a nation are "yeah buddy."

Machine

Captains: Joe Ferrari, Bill Finn, Tim Halt

Machine 2007 is making the 23rd appearance of a Chicago Open Elite team at the UPA Club Championships. Windy City, Z, Second Wind, and Chicago Ultimate have all competed in the UPA Series representing Chicago. A young crop of recent college grads joined the team in 2001, and Machine was born. Despite the gear-like logo on our jerseys, Machine refers to the infamous Chicago political structure, not to a mechanical or electrical device that performs or assists in the performance of human tasks.

Pike

Captains: Dan Heckman, J Dono

Pike first surfaced from the murky waters of the Dirtree Jerz back in aught one with a desire to step above mere colors or concepts. After rearing their ugly head, gaining experience and fighting the redfish in an epic battle, Pike went back underwater for a time. A time, perhaps a shade too long or to a corner too murky, that Pike used to reload their roster with younger talent and to fill their hearts and minds with bloodlust. Thirst for competition. A belief that no matter the score, any game is within reach. And then? A test of that belief. Pike resurfaces to the national stage, brimming with confidence and ready for battle. Ugly head and all, Pike is out to destroy.

Rhino

Captain: Paterson Seaton

The best Ultimate players from Oregon's Willamette Valley, Rhino are something of an enigma. There's an intriguing mix of old and young, employed and not, portly and lean, Ducks and Beavers. The name, minus the Slam, returned a few seasons back, revived from the pioneers of hard-running, good-time Northwest Ultimate. That energy is alive, along with a do-it-yourself ethic which the team knows can be both frustrating and inspiring.

Individually and collectively, Rhino often do things their own way. Sometimes it works (2006 quarterfinalists), other times, not so much (ECC 2007). Regardless, Rhino continue to move forward with their organized chaos. Matching numbered shorts? Not yet. Track workouts? Sometimes. On-time arrival? Depends. Color coordination? Not really. Practice space? Please. Of course, none of this matters, because when a bunch of freaks come together and get after it on the field, and when those freaks are from Oregon, good things can happen. So here Rhino are again, returning to the Championships. Indeed.

Ring of Fire

Captains: Tully Beatty, Jared Inselman, Dave Snoko

Ring of Fire has had a storied history in high level Ultimate reaching back to its first year in 1989. Tempered in the fires of North Carolina summer, this year's squad is once again ready to compete with the best of the best. Ring lost half of its 26-man roster from the 2006 campaign, including franchise player Augie Kreivenas. Also gone are Ray Parrish, Paul Klenk, Jon Boling, and Ultimate history book cover boy Mick Ribault. However, two former members of Ring have returned and six new faces have been added. As always, Ring has pulled talent from the area's college teams and they've also added former Floridian Stephen Poulos to top the roster at 21. Dave Snoko and Jared Inselmann have put down their in-state collegiate rivalry to co-captain this season's squad along with veteran player Tully Beatty. Getting back to the basics and cutting no corners, this year's team has taken all strides to continue building upon the Ring Nation.

Sockeye

Captains: Mike Caldwell, Sam Chatterton-Kirchmeier, Roger Crafts, Will Henry

The yearly salmon run is a trek, not a sprint.

The Seattle Sockeye is one of the longest-represented clubs in America. A string of 3 straight UPA finals appearances in the mid-90s were followed by the dark years, during which longtime members of the team were forced to dig in and struggle. In the early part of this decade, however, Sockeye began to surge back to the top on the strength of team defense and the love of our Fish brothers, winning the UPA Championships for the first time in 2004, and doing so again in 2006.

Led by a quartet of captains (Mike Caldwell, Sam C-K, Roger Crafts and Will Henry) the 2007 Sockeye came together to win Solstice and ECC.

This team trains together and plays together, inspiring each other to leap one more hurdle every day. Sockeye's variant of the horizontal offense meshes rapid timing with aggressive cutting. This partners a pressure man-to-man defensive system well.

Sockeye is proud of our NW roots, and we benefit from strong relationships with Patagonia, ClifBar, Georgetown Brewing, DiscNW, the Seattle Ultimate community, and Voodoo. We'd like to give special thanks to the alumni, parents and family members that help support our run. When you see a Fish with a crazy grin or a writhing mass of 24-strong mobbing each other after a big block, please know that you are a part of our team, and that we couldn't do it without you. Upstream!

Sub Zero

Captains: Dave Truesdale, Charlie Reznikoff, Andrew Brown, Andy Dikeman

This year marks the tenth straight year that Minneapolis Sub Zero will be competing at the UPA Club Championships. Gone are many of the familiar faces who helped Sub Zero become the successful team it is today, but new faces aim to propel the team to new heights. Drawing the best talent from schools in Minnesota and as far away as Madison, Sub Zero has put together a very strong team. An offense anchored by several of the usual suspects has been bolstered this year by some of the best that the college game has to offer. Defensively Zero is teeming with athletes and the vets speculate that this year's D team is the best we've ever unleashed at the Club Championships. Sub Zero 2007 is poised to bring the blizzard this weekend in Sarasota. Don't forget to bring your shovel when you get snowed in.

Truck Stop

Captains: Sean McComb, Ryan Morgan

Truck Stop is making its second consecutive trip to the Club Championships. We've come a long way in our 3 years of existence, going from a team of college players from the college regional powerhouse that is the Metro East to a team of athletic players filled out with the elite experience of former members of e-Pig and Potomac. We came to the Club Championships last year as one of those "just happy to be here" teams and left unsatisfied. This season focused on going to more elite tournaments than in years past and has resulted in a stronger, more confident team in order to show up and perform on a much higher level than last year.

The Van Buren Boys

The Van Buren Boys are a first year team based out of Ames, Iowa. Players on the team come from Ames and surrounding areas, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Fayetteville, and Boston. A number of players on the team formerly played on The Chad Larson Experience, or were plucked from rival coed teams. Our roster was filled out by other Iowa State alumni and University of Kansas alumni.

The team did not experience a lot of success this year, finishing sixth at the Boston Invite, eighth at Chicago Heavyweights, and no tournament victories elsewhere. The Van Buren Boys were West Plains Sectional champions, went into central Regionals seeded sixth, and took the third bid to UPA Club Open Nationals.

We would like to thank all those who have bolstered our sidelines this year, including members of Small Packages, Dingwop, Liquid Assets, Tussin, and ISUC. We would like to thank our family and friends for their constant support. We would like to thank all those who helped fill out practice numbers including Misra, Kurt, Torin, Dunlay, Greg, Keiser, Kevin, Shoe, Michael, Chuck, Tim, Jim, Jeff, Scott, Drew, Crotty, 808, and anyone we've forgotten

WOMEN'S TEAMS

Ambush

Captains: Alison Kling, Becca Tucker

Ambush very nearly did not exist this year.

There was talk of an all-star women's team that would combine the best of Ambush with women from area co-ed teams and out-of-towners from New Jersey and Connecticut. This team was supposed to "change the face of women's Ultimate in New York." Read: it would make the Club Championships, a feat that Ambush had not accomplished since its glory days ended in 2001.

That team fell through, setting off a frenzy of recruitment (begging) and planning (cursing) as Ambush reassembled. In retrospect, it was a blessing. When we brushed ourselves off we saw Ambush did not need a facelift. At our tryout tournament, Boston Invite, we went undefeated, beating Wicked and Scandal. We got so high off all that winning that we took every tryout, giving us a giant 27-woman roster (which would, in typical New York fashion, whittle itself down to the 16 who are here in Sarasota).

Our tenth "Hamilton" season has been catch as catch can from first to last. We've played 55 games, many of them nearly savage. We brought six women to No Borders in Ottawa, where we picked up four Canadians. The eleven we took to Colorado Cup arrived at 4 a.m. Saturday, partied 'til the same time Sunday, and still posted a win over Nemesis Sunday morning before collapsing in the hysterical laughter of exhaustion.

The Club Championships? You could knock us over with a mini disc. We're first-timers at the dance, and we're giddy as a girl scout.

NEW YORK NEW YORK

Backhoe

Captains: Frannie Goodrich, Lindsey Hack, Beth Stagner

Coach: Brian Dobyns

After a less than desirable end to the 2006 season, Backhoe returned for the 2007 season with a 45% roster turnover. What did remain of the team that had been to the finals in 2005 were 13 women and our coach Brian Dobyns, ready to get up and fight again. Tryouts in May were popular, demonstrating one of the largest tryout classes ever on record. From that large class, we added six more players to our roster...and the rest is history. The 2007 season brought us the Boston Invite (Tryouts), WCC, ECC, Chesapeake Open, and the series. Currently, we are 34-7 with 4 tournament championships and we are moving full force ahead.

"They say a family that plays together, stays together.

And one that walks apart just falls apart.

19, together we stand, divided we fall.

United, we form Backhoe and take on all. Let's move.

Best of the best is what we strive to be. Yeah.

A legacy is what we trying to leave.

Blood, sweat, tears, yeah.

We dripped all three just to get here."

In hopes of confusing the US Immigration Service, we shortened our name to Box to avoid deportation — but it didn't work. People still call us Sack Lunch AND they carted off one of our own. We may be conspiracy theorists, but there is also reason to believe the government may have contaminated our water supply with fertility drugs which resulted in the conception of two new baby boxers who will make their way on to the Ultimate field in 2008. I don't think Big Brother realizes that this only bolsters the numbers for our faceless army. Box has faced its share of challenges and met with adversity since day one. The haters can hate, but ballers gotta ball. Nothing is gonna stop a team armed with a lifetime supply of GU and pepper spray from achieving great things. Bring it!

- "you're forgetting that momma has the added advantage that she can throw her baby at you from a distance."
- "i could mention that i basically have a master's degree in god and other divine methods of action. these include plagues, transformation of earthly elements, molting of the mind-body, and meditation on fists that emit lightning."
- "you think my marriage would come before fantasy fist fight. you have underestimated me."
- "it may be gritty, heart-wrenching, and inappropriate, but i do not take NO for an answer. and they tell me this works better in fighting than it does with guys."
- "mostly, i use my powers for good. for example, i save countless lithium ion batteries from early death by regulating their charge cycles and can often revive even the most dead of batteries by charging them gently."
- "first, i glue them down, so that, wriggle as they might, they can't escape. then i slowly cut their skin open, all the way down the length of their small bodies. when the guts start spilling out, i grab them and pull. and pull. until they have no more internal organs left. then i stretch their skin out like the hide of an animal. and if that weren't enough, i proceed to torture them by sticking small needles in their brains and muscles, and zapping them with electricity."

Capitals

Captains: Alison Flynn, Alyson Walker, Danielle Fortin, Hali Gernon, Sheri Madigan

Capitals Ultimate began in August 2005 after the top two Canadian Women's Ultimate teams planned to compete to qualify for UPA Championships. Top players from Ottawa and Toronto were selected to take part in this short two-month season. After two tournaments, the Capitals qualified for the championships – entering the competition ranked 16th. Three days of fierce playing from the Capitals shocked the crowds as the team jumped from 16th to finish in 6th place.

The Capitals re-formed in 2006 to once again qualify for the UPA Championships. After fighting through strong competition at regionals, the team qualified for the UPA Championships. Another top-ten finish was registered in Sarasota with the Capitals taking 7th.

The Capitals decided to compete together for both the 2007 Canadian summer season and the UPAClub Series.

Lady Godiva

Captains: Christina Cianfrani, Sarah Cook, Dominique Fontenette, Maureen McCamley, Liz Middleton

Tenacious and stingy team defense, a highly efficient offense, and an unparalleled focus on strong fundamentals define Boston's Lady Godiva. Our goals are simple—striving to be the best while raising the level of play every time we step out onto the field. There are no superstars, just a well-oiled super team of highly dedicated athletes who love to play the game.

Since the team's inception in 1987, Godiva continues to be an elite women's Ultimate frisbee team. We have made it to the semi-finals or better at the U.S. National Championship Tournament 18 times. With 9 U.S. national titles and a gold medal at the 1998 World Championship, Lady Godiva is the most successful team (men's or women's) in the history of Ultimate.

Layuma

Captain: Kellie Diehl
Coaches: Dan DePaul, Johnnie Hasson

EXTREME PLAY ALERT: HURRICANE LAYUMA BLOWING THROUGH!

2006 SEASON: Tropical Depression left in the wake of dominant FL women's teams. Tropical Storm LaYuma developed as the first captains start recruiting and the team starts forming. By Regionals 2006 the storm had become Hurricane LaYuma, blowing through and taking a bid to the Club Championship in its first year of existence. LaYuma grows from its experiences in Sarasota and leaves hungry for more. 2007 SEASON: In 2007 LaYuma was building in strength and intensity as it swept up more talent across the state of FL. As a Category 1 hurricane, LaYuma caused some teams to run for cover at tournaments across the U.S. and continued speeding up after many hot, wet practices. Hurricane LaYuma was upgraded to a Category 3 storm, flooding South Regionals with sick plays and tight Ds. "The wetter the better" was true for the LaYuma storm advancing to the Club Championship. HURRICANE WARNING IN EFFECT FOR UPA CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS 2007 Hurricane LaYuma becomes a Cat 5 storm, set to make landfall on Thursday, October 25th in Sarasota, FL. You'll recognize the jerseys that made waves last year. Expect extreme plays, intense D, and hot layouts in the outer bands, with a chilly calm O in the eye of the storm. LAYUMA ULTIMATE, YOU GOT TO LOVE THE SOUND OF IT.

Loose Cannon

Captain: Erin Crider

Loose Cannon's rookie season has been a roller coaster of dazzling successes and disappointing losses. We began as a typical recent graduate's Ultimate pipe dream - a team of girls who played with (and against) each other in college. Unfortunately, most of us were, and are, scattered far and wide across the country, some thrown even as far as Boulder, Boston, and Georgia. In the end it was largely thanks to the charisma, charm, and shady connections of our captain, Erin Crider, that we finally managed to make a list of girls who were ready to form a team. Now, we are a versatile roster of aggressive handlers and smart cutters, running on a philosophy of constant innovation and clear communication. We play hard and party harder, and boast an undefeated boat race record and a 33-8 season.

BALLOON TRI-STATE AREA

MOJO

Captains: Keely Dinse, Amy Young, Sarah Zistler

MOJO was borne out of a karaoke love-fest at Captain Kurt's at Club Nationals in 2004 between Clutch (Michigan) and Collide (Ohio). At first, there were some furtive glances, and shy smiles shared through the microphone stands. But, by the bottom of our 12th shot, we were bumping and grinding. MOJO (Michigan-Ohio Joint Operation) was conceived that night.

In 2007, we've competed and trained as a team to earn our third straight bid to Club Nationals with victories over the likes of Small Rackages, Lady Godiva, Wicked, Loose Cannon, and Ambush along the way. Our e-plays, virtual practices, and team fitness challenge have brought us all together. The 2007 squad sees the return of key veterans, fresh FAST talent, hot mamas, new eye candy, cancer quitters, movers & shakers, and more damn good ultimate players.

Watch out for us on the field, we're going to surprise you. Then come over to Captain Kurt's; it's our anniversary!

OHIO AND BEYOND

WOMEN'S TEAMS

Ozone

Captains: Julia Echterhoff, Katherine Wooten, Sandra Davis, Sara Gravelin, Maggie Jackson

Ozone is one of the longest running women's teams in the country and has a record of excellence matched by few. In 2006, Ozone was the only U.S. women's team to compete at the WFDF World Championships in Perth, Australia, and we finished 4th overall. Since returning from Down Under we are poised, as always, to fight for the top spot in Sarasota and give every team our best game.

After saying goodbye to some good friends last year, we got the opportunity to bring some new faces into the fold. We recruited some local college stars and picked up the best Atlanta standouts around. Then we bribed a couple of ringers to move to town and our roster was ready to go.

In 2007 we've done our best to represent Atlanta wherever we go. We've got better costumes than Elton. Our beverage of choice is always Coca-Cola. We've rediscovered our youth and we've been playing great ever since. We are so proud to represent the South this year, and cannot wait to play! Team before self. Simplify and amplify.

Riot

Captains: Miranda Roth, Liz Duffy, Kari DeLeeuw

Inspired by the mayhem of the 1999 WTO riots in Seattle, Riot formed in 2000 as a combination of former Vergin's and fresh local talent. Since that first year, Riot has been a dominant force in the highly competitive Northwest region and has made their mark on both the national and world stage, winning Worlds in 2002. In 2004, Riot finally brought home a national UPA title to the Seattle women, and then in 2005, they won the Club Championship again! After a strong 2nd place finish in 2006 and 7 successful seasons, many original Riots went on to pursue non-ultimate activities, while a handful of veterans came into 2007 excited to see what new talent would come their way. This season, 14 amazing, energetic, and fun new teammates joined the Riot returners, bringing with them intensity, heart, and more of the high level play that Riot is known for. Riot 2007 is very excited to be back in Sarasota!

WOMEN'S TEAMS

Safari

Captain: Shar Stucht

The Pride returns to stalk the savanna. Once more this clan of lionesses must battle for control of the hunting grounds. Female-dominated territories are the most hard-won and defended. In response, the might of each solitary huntress unites in order to kill all opposition in the quest for rule of the land.

This hunting season a few recluses have brought additional power to the Pride. These new members joined the tribe and strengthened the lines...the weaker ones were devoured in a glorious feast. The leader has increased her force and all are gaining speed, agility, and power with every hunt.

Hungry is our vision, mighty is our depth. Prepared to fight to the death, the queens of the Safari pounce into the clash for the crown.

Small Rackages

Captains: Rachel Derscheid, Rachel Sheldahl

Now here's a little story - I've got to tell
About three Scorned Women - you know so well
It started way back in history

With Amy, R. Sheldahl, and me - Rach D.

The unBeastie version really did begin with three of us on the first women's Ultimate team at Iowa State University, Woman Scorned. From there, we played with The Chad Larson Experience, picking up more women cut from the same cloth - a lot of style, a little sass (the spunky kind, not the witchy kind), and a passion too deep to be ended by various medical schooling, out-of-state moves, or little injuries like ligament tears or concussions. Having played with some of those CLX boys from the time I started Ultimate, we decided to part ways this year, forming The Van Buren Boys and Small Rackages. We made a few fortuitous additions with the timely (for us) break up of Bait & a few more with our attractive reputation of being the most fun (and winningest) team to play with in the tri-state area (MO, MN, and IA). We are looking forward to truly making this the Rackage Nation, with plans to extend into Canada already begun.

Zeitgeist

Captains: Kath Ratcliff, Krista McDonald, Kelley Bagby

Coach: Alex 'Dutchy' Ghesquiere

The potential had been clear for a while, yet we all patiently awaited the zeitgeist. At the onset of this year, 2007, it finally arose, calling for us to let go what held us to the past, be it the comfort of an old team, or the wariness of old rivals. A NewTeam was created, one that would aim to revolutionize Bay Area women's Ultimate, the Northwest region, and now the nation. But the zeitgeist wisely demanded more than just the uniting of talent; the zeitgeist demanded a unity based on camaraderie, dedication, and unconditional belief. And thus, in the spirit of the times, Zeitgeist came to be.

By regionals, this new Zeitgeist fully emerged, and it was that of a different kind. We didn't have to act on it; we could just be it. Each member of the team brought their own addition to the revolution. We found ourselves standing under each others umbrellas, in timberlove t-shirts, eating orange slices, and listening to nothing but a capella. Most significantly, we found that we all shared a drive to play for every inch, and to persistently nuzzle each other to do so. It is this, the depth of our geist, and the strength of our nuzzles, which makes us the force we have become, and will continue to be.

However, anyone wishing to sell or market their recordings in any manner to any organization other than the UPA (including but not limited to any sales, promotional, advertising or merchandising uses) is required to complete a 2007 Recording Partnership Agreement prior to being allowed to record UPA events.

Anyone wishing to record for strictly personal use may also be required to review and sign the agreement to ensure that the permitted uses are understood. The agreement is intended to protect the UPA's rights as an event organizer as well as to encourage and allow recording of UPA Events for both personal and commercial purposes beneficial to the sport and its participants. If you are unsure about any of these policies, or would like to obtain a copy of the agreement, please see UPA Executive Director, Sandie Hammerly who will be on site throughout the Club Championships.
