THE SANTA BARBARA CONDORS

Situated on the coast of California, Santa Barbara with its unique climate provides a perfect setting for frisbee players to practice their skills. The Condors have utilized this situation to blossom into one of the premier ultimate teams in the country.

Over the years the Condors have amassed a few tournament victories, including two World Championships, four consecutive Western titles and a California State Ultimate Title, which they won in 1978 with only 11 players.

Their achievements as ultimate players have won them international recognition. Through the last five years, ultimate has grown greatly, the Condors, being at the front of that growth, have enlarged their initial group of 15 players to include a wide spectrum of frisbee energy in Santa Barbara that numbers close to 100 active members.

For this year's California State Ultimate Championships, the Condors are sending a young, quick team to Irvine to challenge for the title. Though veterans Cliff Marhoefer, and Mike Minnini remain stalworths on the team, it is the inspirational play of the newer players that keep the Condors giving and going.

From wildboys like Dan TB to schoolboys like Brian O'Donnell, the Condors new look is young. But don't be fooled, these boys know how to play ultimate. The Condors have always been known for their defense and this year it will once again assume a primary role in the Condor game plan. Now more than ever, the passing game of the team is becoming more refined. With their quick bursts of speed, this year's team could do real well.

THE PITZER BRAINEATERS

The Pitzer Ultimate Braineaters played their first game against U.S.C. in the fall of 1979. The next game was against the MudSharks of Irvine. The MudSharks taught the Braineaters to use a knife and fork when eating shark. Since this time the Braineaters have been playing constantly (except for vacations) and the improvement is evident.

Now the Braineaters are in their second year of existence; our record may not show the improvement, but our level of play does. We participated in the Southern California Regionals. Since then we have added drills to our daily practices and the improvement in skills is evident.

The Braineaters are a purely "home-grown" team with no more than two years of experience. The Braineaters are extremely excited about playing Ultimate and about the future of the game. Good luck to all of the participating teams.

SAN DIEGO FLÖ

Ultimate growth in the real southland, has increased steadily since the introduction of the 165. The first San Diego Ultimate players had to put clothes on to support their habit. Native players were entrenched on the free beaches. The San Diego Free Flyers Frisbee Club fielded the first Ultimate team to play other southern teams. However, after an invitation to the 1979 Western National Ultimate Championships and an embarrassing five-man squad, the team took on its own Ultimate identity and became The Flö.

The Flö travels! Being the southern most team in the western continental United States, the Flö has had to "Motivate" all over the west coast. Team trips include the 2,000 mile "grande" to Eugene, Oregon. Flö members are credited with inventing the buds, bagels, brews, balls and bruises Winnebago Option Play ... we really go long! Other plays include the Santa Barbara, Irvine, Santa Cruz — "Combinacion."

The team established itself as a force to be dealt with in their first year, qualifying for the Western Regionals in Santa Cruz. Mucho experience was gained at the Western's and the Flö is moving up.

A club team, members range from wily veterans, to enthusiastic, yet spastic rookies. Some members come from other Ultimate backgrounds and others are home grown disc-handlers. Collectively, The Flo has 51½ years of experience. Some members even know T. K., the Godfather of Ultimate, and others have even seen Irv Kalb once or twice.

Team goals are to qualify for the Baja 500, play retirement Ultimate in Mazatlan (the lobster play), host a fine tournament, and expand the collective consciousness.

Lookout for The Flö, and think of San Diego for your next vacation .... but for Pete's sake don't move here.

KAOS

Santa Cruz Ultimate KAOS Club. Just reading the name in print kind of makes your heart swell up with pride in memory of all the fine things Santa Cruz Ultimate has done for a "Decade of Disc."

"A Decade of Disc;" kinda catchy, huh? Not as Madison Ave. as "Ten Years of Tossin" or as pretentious as "Backhanding out of the Seventies and Forehanding into the Eighties." A "Decade of Disc" tells you all you need to know in four simple words.

What of Santa Cruz Ultimate then? Of course the most immediate thing that comes to mind is the incredibly fine job done on the Western Regional Championships last fall. Santa Cruz KAOS would like to thank everyone and their wallets for making that event a happy point in time for the KAOS club and their backers.

Currently Santa Cruz KAOS is 6-1 in the Northern California Ultimate League and enjoying the increased competition that is being offered with the addition of new teams this year.

Running their scratch n' sniff philosophy like Reagan runs the country, KAOS slashes and cuts for every hard fought goal they earn.

This year's good showing is largely attributed, by many team members, to the fact that KAOS has adopted a patron saint this year. Before every game, this saint known humbly as "The Rog" inspires KAOS to new heights of pagan rituals.

LA MIRADA ETHEREAL WHIZZERS

The La Mirada Ultimate team, called the "Ethereal Whizzers," was formed in 1978 and has been a grass roots team from the very beginning.

All players on our team have learned the game of Ultimate at La Mirada. There has been no recruiting on La Mirada's team.

La Mirada has been a southern California Ultimate energy going on four seasons now.

The last three years the "Whizzers" have represented the La Mirada Frisbee disc program at the Western Regional Ultimate Championships and many other Ultimate tourneys. This year is the first year La Mirada has played in the California State Championships.

La Mirada's team colors are red and black.

The 1981 team is led by 4 year player and team captain, Henry Robinson.

U.F.O.S.

The United Flyers of Sonoma have been around for a long time, officially as a club since 1975.

The U.F.O.S. ultimate team is called the Ultimate Flyers of Sonoma.

In 1977 the U.F.O.S. hosted the first North - South Ultimate Classic. Don Vaughn, John Wright, Don Dutton, Evan David and Corey Basso were some of the founding players and most are still active players with the U.F.O.S.

The U.F.O.S. are one of the leaders in frisbee classes having both freestyle and ultimate classes offered at Sonoma State University since the fall of 1975.

This year we have played in many tournaments with Don Dutton and Marc Williams as co-captains and feel we are ready to come to Irvine and give it our best ultimate try.

The energy you've put towards promoting this sport is recognized and appreciated by all of us here in U.F.O.S. land. Our thanks and fly high.

Sox Ultimate of L.A., formerly the Woodland Hills HotSox, began informal play in the summer of 1974. They have been competing seriously since 1977 when they placed fifth in the Western Nationals at Irvine.

The Sox traditionally play a short, control oriented offense. Defensively, they play "man" as well as experiment with various zone defenses.

ORANGE SKY FLYER DISC TEAM

The Orange Sky Flyer disc team is one of the local underdogs going into this year's Cal States. Coming to U.C.I. from the near City of Orange, the Sky Flyers represent a partisan crowd in the beginnings of their second year of play. Led by Steve Walker, Mike DeMont and team captain Dave Kingsland, the Flyers are off to a hot start in 1981 with seven wins and two losses, with both losses coming from Irvine Mudsharks.

The Sky Flyers have a strong nucleus of players that graduated from El Modena High School together and with the addition of key new players, are looking for a highly successful season. With an average height of six feet one inch, coupled with exceptional speed and intensity, the Flyers are eagerly waiting to play some very aggressive Ultimate with the best teams in California.

STANFORD SYNAPSE

Stanford Synapse Ultimate Team has its roots at many levels: From the 165 to the Pluto Platter; from the casual Saturday game of "Frizball," to the intramural "Whippets of Branner Hall, to the highly sophisticated ultimate seen today at Robley Field on the Stanford campus.

From two competing teams in 1977, 78 and 79 (the "Whippets and the "Menlow Flow") we've forged one highly competitive team. We're primarily a solid squad of seniors, joined by a new swift swarm of underclass people, some eastern blood, rounded out by a handful of cagey veteran disc handlers.

The Synapse says: "We recognize this karmic opportunity. We have the talent and the teamwork to be the California State Ultimate Champions for 1981!"

CHABOT 101st AIRBORNE UNIT

The "Chabot 101st Airborne Unit" has matured quickly since its birth a year and a half ago. Every one of our members have learned to walk, run and throw the "ultimate" way in the past year.

Like most infants, we sometimes fall flat on our faces, but somehow there's always a disc in our hands before we hit the ground. It seems one year olds aren't smart enough to know they can hurt themselves that way!

Unfortunately, our pediatrician knows all about how shoulders, knees and ankles can get hurt playing with a simple frisbee.

Every player seems to know that their bodies are worthless, so WATCH OUT!

CHABOT ultimate has just reached puberty and our hormones are going crazy! We've brought 16 REINDEER to the States and every single one knows that "SUICIDE IS PAINLESS!"

UCSD ULTIMATE FRISBEE TEAM

When I came to UCSD four years ago, a frisbee was a rare sight. My roommates and I played in virtual solitude. Then, after two years of intense meditation, a number of Ultimate players spontaneously materialized at UCSD. Scott Allison came from the HOT SOX, Dean "Bum" Lee drank his way down from Santa Barbara, and Larry Goldman and John Greene sauntered in from the East.

These seasoned veterans plus a group of dedicated rookies became the "TRITON FRISBEE TEAM" (Triton, the UCSD mascot, is the mythological half-man, half-fish son of Poseidon. More recently, it has been suggested that the Triton may have been created in an accident at the UCSD genetic engineering labs!).

We've played games against the United Flo, the Irvine Mudsharks, UCLA and San Diego State, always demonstrating strong play for such a young team. Besides having fun, we've also been raising the frisbee consciousness at UCSD.

Last year we sponsored a Miller High Life Frisbee Tournament, and this spring we are introducing "Ultimate" to the intramural program at UCSD.

As our team continues to grow, we all look forward to that day when Ultimate is the national sport and the San Diego Chargers give exhibitions during our halftimes.

IRVINE MUDSHARKS

"Too hip, and absolutely sick, this Squad gotta flow!"

All descending from the big green tent, a highly energized Shark attack shall permeate this year's Cal State Championships — YES, the Squad is ready!! Combining a multitude of individual talents and Ultimate experiences, the MudSharks have grown considerably in only 3½ years since 1977 here in Irvine. The early days, (then the Irvine Frisbee Disc Club Ultimate Team), saw a wrecklessly controlled team flounder with marginal abandon; consistently losing to the more established L.A. teams. However, the influx of east coast psyche kings, (Woodruff, Smythe and Lee) together with local frisbee pros, (Alona, Williams, Long) established a core group way back then that made it all worthwhile. Yes, new players slowly came to the Sharkland, building strength month by month. Yet up until 1979, our disc squad wasn't taken too seriously.

Freddie "too hip" Pisacane (ex Michigan St. captain) finally enlisted and brought strategic motivaton to the growing Mudpups, while local favorite Steve "G." provided "Intensity" leadership. In one year's time a drastic realization took place with an impressive 50 game 1980 won-loss record of 39-11; certainly one of the most active clubs in the country.

Thus far in '81, the MudSharks are 12-1 and definitely looking forward to the home field advantage, (phew! Mary will be there). Of note, recent MudClub developments include, (after long contract negotiation sessions) the acquirement of the relatively unknown persona, Dan "Stork" Roddick as Coach/Player; and a very strong L.A. contingent, even sicker than previously released shark bait. Please look for the loud tent, stop in, "catch the MudShark" and enjoy a guacamole-dip cola on us.

THE "UCLA ULTIMATE BRUINS"

UCLA ULTIMATE BRUINS

Our team is now in its 4th year. In the fall of 1977 as a freshman I was one of the, how do you say, "Founding Fathers" and now as a graduating senior I act as one of the team's two captains.

The team is composed totally of UCLA students and this seems to be our biggest problem. The problem is that every summer the team disintegrates and each fall brings the problem of rebuilding. Our problem is that the 10 or so members which create the "core" of the Ultimate Bruins aren't from this area and therefore can't function as a group over the summer and during breaks. Unlike club oriented teams comprised of people of a similar and more stable geographic area, breaks such as the month off between fall and winter quarters doesn't mean time to strengthen our ultimate team, but rather is a time when campus literally closes down and everyone goes home.

At this point however, our unity is at its peak. We have started bringing more strategy into the game and have made each practice more like an actual game situation.
