Welcome to the 16th Annual California State Ultimate Frisbee Championships! A special welcome to those of you who have traveled from afar to play here in Santa Cruz for the weekend! This year we are expanding our format to include a few teams from states other than California, namely Oregon, Washington and Colorado.

All the best teams from the West will be out in force. There are ten women's teams and sixteen men's teams. You can count on some pretty stiff competition. It would be great to see the Spirit of the Game rising above any petty arguments that may arise from the pick travel foul. Let's just all do our best to play hard, have fun, and have some respect for everyone. I know that's a lot to ask, but, hey, let's try.

Once again, you can count on a great party, thrown by your glorious hosts who aren't afraid of beer, music and fun! To accommodate those of you who want to rage out of your heads, but don't want to drive anywhere after the party on Saturday night, sleeping accommodations are available at the East gym, located about 100 steps from the fields for your convenience. For alternative sleeping arrangements, speak with any of the locals, and bribe them with beer (or anything else that you think will win you floor space, or maybe even a couch!).

Good luck to all of you - May the Most Fun Win!

your 1992 CAL STATE HORRORSCOPE

TAURUS: Once again, this is your tournament for the taking. Don't let it go to your head. Just remember this simple advice, and you should be all right: First you catch, then you throw - then you party.

GEMINI: Lately you've shown a lack of concentration that could be detrimental to every aspect of your life. Pull it together, and get it in gear. You still have a chance if you act now.

CANCER: Look, I know that you've traveled a long way to get here, but it's time to stop the traveling on the field - save it for the roads! I'm sure that your teammates would appreciate it as well.

LEO: Live a little! Let those hucks fly: look deep, deep into the endzone. Do you see your teammate making that deep cut? Well, then, what are you waiting for? Just Hurl it!

VIRGO: The time is now - now is the time. Time to show what you're made of. Are you that super gnarly turbo force that everyone says you are? Well, you better prove it before your teammates start to wonder about you...

LIBRA: If you weren't such a hack, you could be good. Do these words sound familiar to you? Have you heard them before? Maybe it's time to not force the issue so much, and listen to the other side.

SCORPIO: You, Scorpio, need to learn how to relax and not be so uptight. This tournament, promise yourself that you will have fun. You will go to the party and enjoy yourself. Don't be such a stick in the mud!

SAGITTARIUS: Wherever you cut, no one can cover you. Wherever you throw, nobody can stop it. The awesome power of the universe is with you. Don't blow it. You are still only one player on the field.

CAPRICORN: You know how to party, that's for sure. But keep in mind that this weekend brings more than just a raging party - you still have to play ultimate all day Saturday, and Sunday if you make it.

AQUARIUS: It's a good thing you bought those new cleats. If you haven't, perhaps you should think about visiting a local sporting goods shop during your bye. New cleats for you feet is the secret for you.

PISCES: Ah, Pisces. You feel at home here in Santa Cruz, close to the ocean, close to the mountains, playing ultimate on fields surrounded by breathtaking views all around. When are you going to move here?

ARIES: When are you going to grow up and face the facts? It does no good to kid yourself and your teammates. You either want to play ultimate and go to tournaments, or you don't have the time. Not both.

SHOWERS/BATHROOMS

Looking for a place to clean your tired, sticky, sweaty body up? Well, there is such a place, located right by the fields. Just on the other side of the tennis courts on the upper fields is the East Field House gym. The showers and bathrooms are located in that building, just across from the tennis courts. It's hard to miss it. Really.

CAL STATES MEN

Here they are, Poochie's Famous Picks. But, if you ask Poochie, he'll tell you: "Please take my name off this article. I never started it. Ricky Z. did." I don't know...do you believe that line? Sorry Pooch. You're stuck with it until Ricky Z. jesses up. Ricky?

KAOS: Back again and better than ever. On and off the field these guys are great. Skippy, Donzo, and Poochie will beat any seven (in a boat race, that is), Watch out - they're warming up for Solstice. (odds: 12 to 5)

L.A. IGUANAS: After their loss in the quarters to Stanford at April Fool's, they've decided to practice. But, is six weeks enough time? We'll see. (odds: 4 to 1)

SANTA BARBARA CONDORS: Once again this proud bird flies freely. But will the breeding program return them to the once proud stature? (odds: 5 to 2)

FORT COLLINS: Seven guys driving west picking up subs on the way. Hopefully they've got some room in their car. (odds: 11 to 3)

MARAUDERS: Since they finally got their team roster to their sectional coordinator ), we've decided to let them play. That is, just as soon as we get their entrance fee. (odds: 12 to 1)

UCSC SLUGS: Still the reigning college champions, these guys have decided to end their season on their home field. And since it is their field, I'm sure they'll all be more than willing to help out this weekend. (odds: 13 to 4)

SAN DIEGO: With the return of Pinz and Blachard this team has found the will to live again (or is that swill again...). With some of the best new talent in ultimate this team will be a contender. Someday. (odds: 8 to 1)

RHINO SLAM!: Their name says it all about these cagey vets. These defending Cal State Champions are so confident that they'll repeat, they've left the trophy at Turf Terrace. (odds: 5 to 1)

FIRESTORM: This unquenchable team is still seeking its first appearance in the finals at Cal States. Is this the year, or will they go down in flames again? (odds: 3 to 1)

SOUTH BAY TSUNAMI: Just making it through the cuts is more success than some of these guys can handle. Is Thad truly the Messiah they've been waiting for? God helps those who help themselves. (odds: 4 to 1)

BOMBAY: These guys are the innovators of ultimate. Knowing that they can't rely solely on their physical abilities, they've gone mental on us. Hey, it got them to the finals of Fool's. Copies of their play book will be on sale at Frisbee Central. (odds: 7 to 1)

BOULDER STAINS: First in Colorado, Fifth in the Region and always finalist at the party. If they can get acclimated to our elevation, they might have a chance this time. NOT!!! (odds: 5 to 1)

SEATTLE CHINOOK: The second best ultimate team ever named after a fish. Is this team slippery enough to make it to semi's or will they succumb to their nature and just swim upstream and die... (odds: 8 to 1)

STRANGE FIN: Which means Strange End in French. This is a team with deep roots in Bay Area ultimate, going back for weeks. Hopefully experience will pay off. (odds: 17 to 1)

LAS POSITAS: Still trying to shed the Chabot stigma while learning how to shred. Pat Pohl and "Koachie woachie jr."K. have taught them all they know about the rules of the game and how to use them. (odds: 17 to 2)

PALACE OF SPIN DOCTORS: This team would win the "spirit of the game award," if we had one. They beat out Stanford who were too busy licking their wounds to confirm for the spot. They've challenged everyone here to party them under the table. (odds: 17 to 1)

CAL STATES WOMEN

There are ten women's teams here at this glorious tournament this year. We should call this COW States, seeing how we have teams from Oregon and Washington as well as California teams. There's some pretty stiff competition out there this year, and it's not going to be easy for any one team to come along and sweep. Check out some of their action — it's going to be HOTT'All!

MAINE-IACS: You know who they are. If they play up to par, you could expect to see them in the finals. Look for Preggers calling out the plays. She's been playing a long time, and she's a wiley one, so she's sure to be sharp. Unless she goes into labor...

SEATTLE WOMEN-ON-THE-VERGE: Do all you readers out there know what "le verge" means in French? Ask these ladies, they've named themselves to be on top of it. If they do too much of it, chances are they'll have a tough time concentrating on playing ultimate...

AFTERSHOCK: This is one of those new Bay Area All-star up-and-coming teams that could make an impact if they don't get too uptight. They have a lot of talent on their side. They should be in the semi finals for sure, and if they're on, they'll be in the finals.

THROWS OF PASSION: You guessed it, another one of our very own Bay Area teams. Everyone agrees that these ladies are a bunch of fun. This team has not forgotten the essence of what ultimate is all about: high energy, good spirit, and lots of fun!

SANTA BARBARA: Here's a team that's hard to forget. They've always been there, and they probably always will be. With a place like Santa Barbara to play in, and a plethora of players to choose from, you can always count on consistence and quality.

SAN DIEGO SAFARI: Are the natives getting restless? Are those drums off in the distance? Let's see if this Safari team can pull it out, and stand up like the Safari of old. With Chris Jew and Jane Factor, it's hard not to make an impact, at least at the party!

PORTLAND SWARM: Here's a team to be reckoned with. They've come all the way down to Santa Cruz yet again to join in on the fun and kick some butt. This team is tough, and they're not going to go down easily. Look for them in semis. Finals?

WHIRLED PEAS: Here's a fun new team with grand ideas making their debut. There's a lot of skill on their side, in a few raging transplants from Santa Barbara. This team could take everyone by surprise, and make some heads turn. Watch out!

ANDREA'S ALL-STAR RAGING RAIDERS: Here they are. Without a doubt the team that has the most fun. You may not see them in the finals, or even the semis, but you can count on them taking down the party! Count on them hosting a great tournament.

STANFORD: Well, they called and said they wanted to play the day before we put the program together, so I guess they're in. They're paying the money, we can squeeze in another team, so why not let them play? I just hope that they go to the party.

Feeling hungry? Thinking about places to eat? Well, here's The Best of food in Santa Cruz:

BREAKFAST

The Whole Earth.....Located on campus. Good eggs and pancakes, Known for their vegetarian meals.

The Bagelry.....Downtown near the mall, sort of. Best bagels around, and some soups and salads as well.

Zachary's.....Great Basic Breakfast. Better than anywhere else in California. You're lucky you're in Santa Cruz. --But get there early if you want to eat and play your first game on time.

Santa Cruz Coffee Roasting Company.....Downtown at the metro. Best coffee anywhere.

DINNER

Upper Crust Pizza and Pasta..Westside Santa Cruz, on highway 1 heading towards Half Moon Bay (but definately still in town).

Tampico's..... Great Tex-Mex style food and Margs. Located on Pacific. Great service, and a great place to party with your friends.

Palomar.....Best Mexican food and Margs in Town. There are now two locations: the old new by the main beach, and the new old right downtown on Pacific Ave.

Front St. Pub.....Great for the Liquid Diet. On Front St.

Seabright Brewery.....Liquid diet by the harbor with semi-real food

Saturn Cafe.....Lots of vegetarian stuff for you Veg Heads. Left on Misson St., kinda near Bay St.

China Station....Westside Santa Cruz, near Upper Crust, across the street from Seven-Eleven on Fair St. Pretty good food. Pretty good prices.

Anna Maria's.....Awesome Italian food, with two locations to serve you. One is right on the wharf, the other one is by the harbor at 7th and Eaton.

Riva Fish House.....On the wharf, great fresh fish. Ask Bobby P. about this place. This is where he likes to take his dates.

For dessert, go to Polar Bear Ice Cream.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF ULTIMATE

To huck, or not to huck? That is the question that we are faced with in our daily lives as Ultimate players. Every time we find ourselves with the golden disc in our hands, we have to ask ourselves, "should I take the easy dump, or should I just huck the disc into space?" There are those with whom the thought of taking a dump just doesn't even enter the spectrum of the mind. It should be noted that it is healthy, indeed in one's best interest, to take that dump every once in a while. There are also those, perhaps more timid in nature that don't even think of hucking (this case just isn't as interesting as the first, so it will be disregarded as such). Any decent utilitarian would realize the benefits of hucking, oh..... about seventy percent of the time (Assuming, of course, that one is not killed by one's team mates in the process, or after the fact-whatever the case may be.)

There is a distinct, some could say 'dynamic,' dualism found in the workings of ultimate. It could be argued, perhaps, that it is just a mere dialectical unity; the entity being the two possible worlds known as Offense and Defense. These are two parts of the game that take place simultaneously (preferably not by the same person at the same time). It could even be said that these are two different games, even though they are played on the same field. Of course, any decent dialectic is self-negating, and as such, frisbee players have been known to disappear into thin air, at any given time, place, and atmospheric conditions. There is the possibility that those who have disappeared are partying just off the coast of Bermuda, with Bigfoot and Elvis. (Though one could never say for sure when it comes to frisbee players.)

And what about this "frisbee time" stuff? It could be said to be a unique entity, unto itself like no other relation known to civilized mankind. It is found to be most relevant and at its most heightened intensity during those times which are slated for the official game starting times. Certain factors have been known to have a more severe effect on this phenomenon, vis a vis the famed frisbee party. Perhaps further study will shed light onto the subject, and a stronger conclusion can be reached in future articles.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those involved with making the California State Ultimate Frisbee Championships happen. Here they are, in no particular order:

UCSC Office of Physical Ed, Rec. & Sports

UCSC Ultimate Frisbee Club

UCSC Intramural Office

Whole Earth Restaurant

Tampico Kitchen

Skippy Jammer

Andrea Barrio

Bob Pallares

Poochie Woochie

Chris Wags

Ted (even though he's just a Ted)

Bob Sharma

Danny and the Deep Blue Sea

And everyone else who has helped by picking up their trash and recycling.

PARTY DIRECTIONS!!!

Once again, expect nothing less than a rager in Santa Cruz. We have a great band lined up for the evening entertainment, and plenty of beverages (beer).

So, where is it?

The party will take place at the Whole Earth Restaurant, located just up the road from the fields. Ask any local. They'll show you the way. Show up at party time, after you have eaten.

SLEEPING ACCOMODATIONS

The place to rest your weary head after you've played hard all day, and partied hard all night is available right here on campus. The East Field House gym, the very same one in which the bathrooms/showers are located is also available for sleeping. Please take advantage of this opportunity if you've been drinking and dancing wildly. Or even if you haven't!

RECYCLING

We have set up a Cal States recycling program that will take cans, glass bottles, clear plastic bottles and Odwalla juice bottles. Please take all cans and bottles over to the large white bags by Frisbee Central.

We have some problems right now with non-renewable resources so let's all do what we can to help. Please don't just leave bottles and cans lying around on the sidelines. Take a cruise by Frisbee Central and drop them off in the recycling bags. Earth thanks you.

P.S. Bottle caps can be recycled along with the cans.
