

Welcome to the 17th Annual California State Ultimate Frisbee Championships! A special welcome to those of you who have traveled from afar to play here in Santa Cruz for the weekend! This year we are expanding our format to include a few teams from states other than California, namely Colorado, Oregon and Washington (COW STATES).

The best teams from the West will be out in force. There are ten women's teams and sixteen men's teams. Count on some pretty stiff competition. It would be great to see the Spirit of the Game rising above any petty arguments that may arise from the pick-travel-foul. Let's just all do our best to play hard, have fun, and have some respect for everyone. I know that's a lot to ask, but, hey, let's try.

Once again, you can count on a great party, thrown by your glorious hosts who aren't afraid of beer, music and fun! To accommodate those of you who want to rage out of your heads, but don't want to drive anywhere after the party Saturday night, sleeping accommodations are available at the East gym, located about 100 steps from the fields for your convenience. For alternative sleeping arrangements, speak with any of the locals, and bribe them with beer (or anything else that you think will win you floor space, or maybe even a couch!).

Good luck to all of you - May the Most Fun Win!

SLEEPING ACCOMODATIONS

The place to rest your weary head after you've played hard all day, and partied hard all night is available right here on campus. The East Field House gym, the very same one in which the bathrooms/showers are located is also available for sleeping. Please take advantage of this opportunity if you've been drinking and dancing wildly. Or even if you haven't! Bring a sleeping pad!

THE PHILOSOPHY OF ULTIMATE

To huck, or not to huck? That is the question that we are faced with in our daily lives as Ultimate players. Every time we find ourselves with the golden disc in our hands, we have to ask ourselves, "should I take the easy dump, or should I just huck the disc into space?" There are those with whom the thought of taking a dump just doesn't even enter the spectrum of the mind. It should be noted that it is healthy, indeed in one's best interest, to take that dump every once in a while. There are also those, perhaps more timid in nature that don't even think of hucking (this case just isn't as interesting as the first, so it will be disregarded as such). Any decent utilitarian would realize the benefits of hucking, oh..... about seventy percent of the time (Assuming, of course, that one is not killed by one's team mates in the process, or after the fact-whatever the case may be.)

There is a distinct, some could say 'dynamic,' dualism found in the workings of ultimate. It could be argued, perhaps, that it is just a mere dialectical unity; the entity being the two possible worlds known as Offense and Defense. These are two parts of the game that take place simultaneously (preferably not by the same person at the same time). It could even be said that these are two different games, even though they are played on the same field. Of course, any decent dialectic is self-negating, and as such, frisbee players have been known to disappear into thin air, at any given time, place, and atmospheric conditions. There is the possibility that those who have disappeared are partying just off the coast of Bermuda, with Bigfoot and Elvis. (Though one could never say for sure when it comes to frisbee players.)

And what about this "frisbee time" stuff? It could be said to be a unique entity, unto itself like no other relation known to civilized mankind. It is found to be most relevant and at its most heightened intensity during those times which are slated for the official game starting times. Certain factors have been known to have a more severe effect on this phenomenon, vis a vis the famed frisbee party. Perhaps further study will shed light onto the subject, and a stronger conclusion can be reached in future articles.

CAL STATES WOMEN'S TEAMS 1993

Maine-iacs: How could you say you know anything about women's ultimate frisbee not know who this team is? I don't think that it's possible. Except for those of you suffering from a really bad memory... or selective amnesia.

Block Party: They're warming up for Worlds, and they've chosen our tournament to practice together. Now isn't that special? They could rock the Women's Ultimate world if people forget to pay attention to them. They're ready for you. Are you ready for them?

Women on the Verge: There are so many women who are playing ultimate in the northwest these days, that it may lead to some speculation about gene splicing and DNA implants. I don't know for sure, but there are a lot of women, and I'm beginning to wonder where they all came from... Mary Jorgensen's class?? She's not that old... is she?

DV8: Just what are they trying to get across to us, that they deviate from the norm? Are they mutants? How did they get to Santa Cruz? Did they tell you they flew? In what? From where? These are a lot of questions. And they're probably not worth answering.

Whirled Peas: Want some cream corn with that? Or how about some frozen broccoli? Any way you want to look at it, this team is not going to just get cooked and get eaten up very easily. They came to play, and they're not going to let you forget it!

PARTY DIRECTIONS!!!

Once again, expect nothing less than a rager in Santa Cruz. We have a great band lined up for the evening entertainment, and plenty of beverages.

So, where is it?

The party will take place at the Whole Earth Restaurant, located just up the road from the fields. Ask any local. They'll show you the way. Show up at party time, after you have eaten. Remember to get there early since the party ends promptly at 12:00 midnight.

Great for Breakfast !

Swarm: Remember the killer bees that scientists keep warning us about that are coming to North America? Well, maybe they're already here. They may be walking among us sooner than you would care to think. They may be swarming the keg if you're not watching.

Lazy Girls: Contrary to what the name may suggest, this team can run. And they can throw and catch. With Kalindi on the team, the fun factor just skyrockets out of the atmosphere. They've been practicing a lot , so look for them to make an impact. At the party.

Eugene: Is this team psyched or what? They must've called us ten times before a spot opened up for them at this tournament. Finally we had to say ok already, just show up! So now they're here, and they're ready to play. You've got to love that perseverance.

Santa Cruz Ragers: What else is there to say? Your gracious hostess' of the tournament want to make sure that everyone is having a great time. They are the designated fun monitors, so don't slack off and get tense in front of them. Unless you want to face the wrath... By the way, say Happy Birthday to Andrea on Saturday. That's major fun points! 8

Feeling hungry? Thinking about places to eat? Well, here's The Best of food in Santa Cruz:

BREAKFAST

The Whole Earth.....Located on campus. Good eggs and pancakes. Known for their vegetarian meals.

The Bagelry.....Downtown near the mall, sort of. Best bagels around, and some soups and salads as well.

Zachary's.....Great Basic Breakfast. Better than anywhere else in California. You're lucky you're in Santa Cruz. --But get there early if you want to eat and play your first game on time.

Santa Cruz Coffee Roasting Company.....Downtown at the metro. Best coffee anywhere. Friends of Kevin Beck.

DINNER

Upper Crust Pizza and Pasta..Westside Santa Cruz, on highway 1 heading towards Half Moon Bay (but close to campus).

Tampico's.....Great Tex-Mex style food and Margs. Located on Pacific. Great service, and a great place to party with your friends. Friends of Andrea's Front St. Pub.....Great for the Liquid Diet. On Front St.

Seabright Brewery.....Liquid diet by the harbor with good food

Saturn Cafe.....Lots of vegetarian stuff for you Veg Heads. Left on Misson St.

China Station....Westside Santa Cruz, near Upper Crust, across the street from Seven-Eleven on Fair St. Pretty good food. Pretty good prices.

Anna Maria's.....Awesome Italian food. Right on the wharf.

Riva Fish House.....On the wharf, great fresh fish. Ask Bobby P. about this place. This is where he likes to take his dates.

For dessert, go to Polar Bear Ice Cream.

 Hot tip: get a chocolate dip; Martha will buy.*

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those involved with making the California State Ultimate Frisbee Championships happen. Here they are, in no particular order:

And everyone else who has helped by picking up their trash and recycling.

RECYCLING

We have set up a Cal States recycling program that will take cans, glass bottles, clear plastic bottles and Odwalla juice bottles. Please take all cans and bottles over to the large white bags by Frisbee Central.

We have some problems right now with non-renewable resources so let's all do what we can to help. Please don't just leave bottles and cans lying around on the sidelines. Take a cruise by Frisbee Central and drop them off in the recycling bags. Earth thanks you.

P.S. Bottle caps can be recycled along with the cans.
